

OREGON DELEGATES SHARE THEIR SEATS

Republicans and Moose Invite Each Other to Take Part in Convention.

HUGHES SPEECH AWAITED

Colonel Is Reported Likely to Withdraw in Favor of Hughes if Later Announces Stand for Adequate Preparedness.

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago, June 5.—(Special)—"Love feast" is the proper term to apply to the conference today between the Republican and the Progressive delegations from Oregon. They are all for harmony, and lots of it.

When the Republican delegation met this morning, National Committeeman Ralph E. Williams suggested, and the Oregon delegation agreed, that the Progressive delegates should receive seats in the Republican convention, as alternates, along with those of the defeated candidates who are in the city. In turn, the Progressives want the Republicans on better, and through National Committeeman Williams invited the Republican delegation to sit as full-fledged delegates in the Progressive convention. Mr. Williams received five Progressive delegate tickets and badges to be distributed among the Republicans.

"Progressives Would Accept Hughes." Dr. H. W. Coe and A. E. Clark, two of the Progressives now here, are in a most genial frame of mind; they are looking forward to a reunion of the Republican and Progressive forces. Mr. Clark, speaking tonight of the situation, said the Progressives would accept Hughes if he will make a satisfactory declaration of his stand on the big issues advocated by Colonel Roosevelt. If Hughes will make such a declaration, Mr. Clark believes the Progressive convention will endorse his nomination and support. But the declaration, he said, is regarded by Progressives as essential to their endorsement and support.

Mr. Clark said that, personally, he would gladly support Hughes if he makes the all-essential declaration, or if someone authorized to speak for him will declare Hughes' position. It was the opinion of Dr. Coe and Mr. Clark that Hughes must declare himself in advance of nomination else the Progressives will surely nominate Roosevelt.

"Roosevelt Withdrawal Possible." "What will the Progressives do if Hughes is nominated but makes no declaration until he formally accepts the Republican nomination, probably a month hence?"

"That," replied Mr. Clark, "will be entirely up to the Progressive nominee. It will be for him to say whether or not he will withdraw and support Hughes."

"This statement from Mr. Clark is in line with the Progressive attitude generally. But it also is strongly hinted that though the Progressives may nominate Roosevelt, they, under the Colonel's leadership, will unite with the Republicans in support of Hughes if Hughes comes out strongly for adequate preparedness, and for the upholding of American rights. Colonel Roosevelt, it is said by Progressives of prominence, if nominated by the Progressive convention, will withdraw and declare for Hughes if the Hughes speech of acceptance is satisfactory to him.

Vote for Webster Insisted On. Charlie Lockwood, of Portland, appeared on the scene today. He is an interested onlooker.

When the Oregon delegation met to organize this morning, the suggestion was advanced that a resolution be adopted declaring it the purpose of the delegates to overlook the fact that one William Grant Webster, of Chicago, had received Oregon's indorsement for the Vice-Presidential nomination. The idea was suggested in view of the fact that Webster and his candidacy are not taken seriously, and that the Oregon delegation is not taking any part in the matter. Clarence Hotchkiss, however, raised instant objection, declaring he intended to vote for Webster and carry out his instructions, no matter how Webster might be regarded in his native city. Albert Abraham also indicated his purpose to vote for Webster. In view of the dissension, the formal resolution was not presented.

Farmers Will Organize. THE DALLES, June 5.—(Special)—The farmers in the Pleasant Ridge district are planning to form a Farmers' Union. At a meeting last Saturday night 11 farmers were present and signed their intention of forming an organization.

Supreme Court to Meet June 12. WASHINGTON, June 5.—The Supreme Court adjourned today until June 12, which will probably be the last decision day until October.

HOW TO GET RID OF CATARRH

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness, or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 oz. Farmint (double strength), take this home, add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and 4 oz. of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful 4 times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Catarrhal nostrils should be open, breathing becomes easy and the mucous stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to make, tastes pleasant and costs little. Every one who has catarrh should give this treatment a trial. You will probably find it just what you need.

London Dailies Have Staff Men at Chicago to Send 50 or 75 Words a Day. "Uncle Joe" Cannon Says Republicans Could Do Worse Than Nominate Him—Pacifists See Light.

CHICAGO, June 5.—(Special)—Two of the great London dailies have sent staff men to the Republican convention, to cover special features in connection with the service they secure through New York and Chicago connections. The expenses of these men, aside from the transportation over and back, will run about $20 a day each. One of them sends an average of 50 words every night. If their papers do not go broke, they will repeat this performance at the St. Louis convention.

One of the features of the convention is furnished by a local German daily paper, which has two Irish reporters writing the report of the proceedings in English. After the space is filled by the stories, they will repeat this performance after that time. There is little "over set" on a German paper. It is strictly verboten.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon, always the most picturesque figure of the Republican National Convention, arrived today, his big black cigar tilted at an especially truculent and devilish angle. After skimming around for some tickets for his own use, he shook hands with something less than a million people, he gave utterance to this sentiment: "I don't know whom the convention will nominate, but it could do a damned sight worse than to pick me."

Edward Randolph Wood, who came to Chicago from Pennsylvania to urge pacifism and who might have been induced to run for President on a peace platform, is a changed man. He witnessed the great preparedness parade and it altered his views radically. Now he is strong for preparedness and a standing army of 250,000 and a naval programme that will make this country second among the world powers. He speedily discovered that a peace propaganda has slim picking in Chicago, especially at this time. William Jennings Bryan, who is here in the capacity of a reporter, and who has in fact frequently, four years ago Bryan was good for tremendous applause whenever he appeared and he was quoted daily. Now his paid column is all that appears.

The radiant Mary Garden arrived today in a great flutter of enthusiasm for Roosevelt, who, she insists, is a man of destiny; a leader not to be questioned, but followed. She said: "You know I've been working in the very inferno of France for the last six months or more. Well, every soldier for whom I have been buying wooden arms and legs, every foreigner tells me that if we only had T. R. in Washington things would be different. If we had had him there we would have had no Lusitania disaster, no Sussex complications."

Isiah T. Montgomery, slave and body servant of Jefferson Davis during the Civil War, late founder of the city of Mount Bayou, Miss., and now a delegate to the Republican National convention, and George L. Knox, founder of the Freeman, will be guests of honor at a reception tomorrow night at the Phyllis Wheatley Home, at which a

CONTESTS DISPOSED OF BY COMMITTEE

Seats in Convention Refused 3 Delegations From District of Columbia.

ALL LOUISIANANS SEATED

Half Vote Granted Each—Woman Suffragists and Preparedness Advocates Will Be Heard, Says Chairman Hillis.

CHICAGO, June 5.—The Republican National Committee adjourned at 6 o'clock tonight after disposing of 62 contests for seats in the convention. During the last four hours of the session, which continued four days, the most interesting decisions were made. They included the following:

Refusal to place on the temporary roll of the convention any members of the three contesting delegations from the District of Columbia.

Seating of both delegations from Louisiana, each member with half a vote and requesting the delegation to select Armand Roman, of New Orleans, National committeeman in the place of Victor Lohel.

Decision that the committee members be asked to receive delegations from the suffrage convention and conference and from preparedness organizations. By formal motion the National Committee went on record in favor of public hearings on preparedness and woman suffrage, the hearings to be held in the convention hall with the committee on resolutions occupying the platform seats of the National Committee. Chairman Charles D. Hillis brought up the question of granting public hearings by announcing that many requests had been made for an opportunity to present various subjects to the resolutions committee.

"It is inevitable that the resolutions committee will hear some delegations, particularly those organizations which are urging preparedness and those supporting woman suffrage," said Mr. Hillis. "I think this committee should request the committee on resolutions to give public hearings on these questions two hours after the adjournment of the convention Wednesday. The proper place for these hearings would be the convention hall, where all the publicity possible can be given."

T. R. URGED BY GERMAN

DEMOCRAT TELLS COLONEL TROUBLES ARE HIS FRIENDS.

Entry as Independent, if Not Nominated by Wisconsin Man.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., June 5.—Colonel Roosevelt made public today a letter he received from W. F. Zierath, councillor of the State Medical Society of Wisconsin, in which the latter, who said he was a German descent and a Democrat, urged the Colonel, if not nominated by the Republicans, to "be standard-bearer of an independent party—an American party."

Zierath said he had never voted for Colonel Roosevelt, but hoped to have that pleasure, adding: "Your firm stand against the hyphen is not going to lose you votes. 'You observe my name is German.' Zierath's letter read in part, 'I have Teutonic blood in my veins and am glad and proud of it, but for all that I am an American. 'If you, or anyone else, believe that American-born Germans of this country, acting through any German-American Alliance, are the spokesmen of the Americans of German descent in this country, I want to say that they are sadly misinformed or malicious liars. 'Americans of German descent are going to vote for you and, take it from me, even they will be surprised at the vote for you in their own communities.'"

Colonel Roosevelt, in his reply to Mr. Zierath, said: "I am certain that the great bulk of Americans of German descent feel as you say, they will vote for me, and that is as straight-out Americans."

Even a King can't dictate what you should like or not like

If it so happened that Fatimas were originally "Made and blended for the King of Whitz"—would that fact prove that you were going to like Fatimas best? It would not.

A man's taste is his own. A cigarette that might delight some old potentate's palate would not necessarily please you.

That's why we leave Fatimas up to your taste.

But there is something more than good taste that is mighty important to you.

No matter how good-tasting a cigarette may be it can only be the SENSIBLE cigarette for you if it is comfortable, too.

Its pure tobacco must be cool and comfortable to your throat at all times. And it must leave you feeling fine and fit at the end of a hard-smoking day.

Will it do all that?

Then, it is the sensible cigarette for YOU.

There are thousands and thousands of men who believe that Fatima is the most sensible cigarette there is.

Try them yourself. You may discover—as these thousands of other men have—that Fatimas have just the cool, mellow taste that you've been longing for in a cigarette.

You may find that Fatimas have the kind of mildness which allows you to smoke more of them than you might of other cigarettes.

You may find that Fatimas offer you a little more satisfaction in every puff than you ever before found in any other cigarette.

Buy your trial package of Fatimas and test them today.
