

BORAH PHONEST R.; COMES BACK SMILING

Something Idaho Senator Has Heard From Oyster Bay Has Soothing Effect.

SECRET CLOSELY GUARDED

Republican Apprehension, However, Is Lessened—Accord Between Two Parties, With Hughes as Nominee, Is Indicated.

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago, June 6.—(Special.)—Senator Borah, of Idaho, who has been working all day for Hughes and harmony, had long-distance conversation tonight with Colonel Roosevelt, and at its conclusion let it be known he is greatly pleased at what took place over the wire. The details of the conversation were not made known: In fact, Senator Borah would not discuss the conversation, further than to admit his gratification. Just what this means can only be surmised. Senator Borah is of the opinion and flatly declared tonight that in his judgment Justice Hughes will be nominated by the Republicans. He is hopeful, however, that the nomination will be brought about in such a way as to result in accord between Republicans and Progressives. His efforts today have been in that direction and he suddenly has assumed the role of leader of the harmony movement.

Senator's Mood Has Quieting Effect. It is learned from men who are in close touch with Colonel Roosevelt that his uppermost desire is to accomplish the defeat of President Wilson in November. Whether that means that the Colonel will sway or attempt to sway the Progressive convention to Hughes; whether it means that he will take some steps later on to check the impulsive Progressives who, under the leadership of Murdock and Johnson, have run wild today, or whether he will let these wild men have their way and decline the nomination at their hands, no one seems able to say with authority. At least if anyone is authorized to say, he is not saying it.

The fact remains that since Senator Borah's conversation with the Colonel over the telephone wire, there is less apprehension in Republican circles than prevailed earlier. Senator Borah's mood has had a quieting effect and has conduced to the hope and the belief that Colonel Roosevelt will not be found playing the game of Murdock or Johnson.

Revolt May Come to Naught.

If it be true, as is reported, that the Colonel's first and foremost desire is to defeat Wilson, then the revolt will come to naught. How the Colonel will frustrate them, nobody is so bold as to say. But it may be that he is in accord with the view expressed tonight by Senator Borah, that the party is greater than any man.

As an evidence of his interest in Hughes and harmony, Senator Borah today called on the Progressive National Committee, and told him the Idaho delegation would support Hughes.

OREGON CITY, Or., June 6.—(Special.)—Plans for elaborate exercises here June 14, Flag day, are being made by a committee of Elks, composed of J. C. Sawyer, F. A. Miles, C. C. Babcock, H. A. HAITIEN CHIEFTAINS SLAIN

American Marines and Native Gardarmes Still in Pursuit.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—American marines and native gardarmes killed the revolutionary chiefs, Welles and Codio, and nine of their men in a fight near Fonds Verretes Sunday. No mention of American casualties was made in the State Department dispatch today reporting the incident. The chief was killed in a desperate effort to escape when cornered, and remnants of the band were being pursued by the marines and gardarmes when the dispatch was sent.

Brodie Homestead House Burns.

OREGON CITY, Or., June 6.—(Special.)—The house on the old Judge Brodie homestead, situated on the bank of the Willamette near Canby and known as the Cliff Camp, was burned to the ground this afternoon. The fire is believed to have been caused by sparks from the fire which lit in the moss on the roof. The loss was not covered by insurance. Chester Brodie and two tenants lived on the place. Mr. Brodie was in Portland at the time of the fire.

CHILDREN WE WORRY ABOUT

Close confinement in school during the past winter, overstudy perhaps, an attack of the grip or tonsillitis, some one of these things is doubtless responsible for the condition of the child who shows a decline in health now.

What are the symptoms? Pallor and languor, a flake appetite, dark rings under the eyes, bronchial colds. Very often the best efforts of the family physician fail in such cases and the condition of the child causes the most intense anxiety. Cod-liver oil, so often prescribed, generally fails because the weak stomach is unable to digest fats. Try this treatment. Before breakfast each morning give the child the juice of half an orange. After the noon meal give one of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Keep this up for a few days and then give one of the pills after the evening meal also. Weigh the child before beginning the treatment and again after two weeks. An increase in weight of from two to five pounds will show you that you are on the right track at last. Care is necessary in the diet of the patient and it will be well to send to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for a diet book and the pamphlet, "Building Up the Blood." Both are free. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.
