Major Patton Predicts Declination of Nomination in Hughes Favor.

OTHER COURSE SUICIDAL

Opposition to Regular Nominee This Year Would Yoke Roosevelt With Bryan and Carry Him Down to Oblivion.

BY MAJOR H. W. PATTON, Editor Oregonian Washington and President Washington State Press Association. CHICAGO, June 8.—(Special.)—This Republican convention reminds me of a big solid meat pie, heavily salted, but with the pepper carefully omitted. The delegates are middle-aged, bald and gray head predominating. They are substantial and rombles-looking men, but you'd never back them in a foot race or a shouting match. A desperate attempt is being made to work up some enthusiasm this morning when the temporary organization was made permanent. The cheering continued for some minutes, but probably it was forced.

These delegates seem to realize the magnitude of the task before them and undoubtedly they are approaching it with all due solemnity.

Leather-Lungs Work for "Teddy." If you want to see the boys and girls, too, with "pep" and ginger you will have to go down to the Auditorium Theater, where the Progressive convention is being held, or to the hotel of the same name, where the wild asses have their stalls. Down there the raucous cry of "We want Teddy" vexed the smoke-laden atmosphere. It seems to me that every leather-lunged individual within the confines of the country came to Chicago yesterday or last night and shouted for "Teddy." Certainly there was no complaint of lack of noise last night, but nine-tenths of it was furnished by the Progressives. Yesterday the belief was that Hughes seemed a certain winner of the nomination for President. Today I can say that it looks as if Roosevelt would be nominated, but the former will be named by the Republican convention and the latter by the Progressives.

Colonel Expected to Decline. My tip is that Roosevelt will decline the nomination after it is made and will endorse Hughes in order to defeat Wilson. It is not in the cards for the Republican party to endorse Roosevelt and it is inconceivable that Roosevelt will oppose the regular nominee. To do so would mean the destruction of the party and the destruction of himself and reduce him to the level of Bryan. In fact, one more knifing or bludgeoning of the party by Roosevelt will yoke him with Bryan and the two will make a simultaneous exit from public life and esteem.

Of course, it is possible that this convention may heed the suggestion of Roosevelt as to a candidate and nominate some other man than Hughes, but I don't believe it. Already Roosevelt has been honored and recognized by having his policies and the issues he has made incorporated in his platform. But while the convention is willing to adopt Roosevelt ideas it will have none of him or his as a candidate.

Veterans' Speeches Pleading. The most enjoyable part of this convention to me today was the speeches of these two fine and distinguished old gentlemen, Chauncey M. Depew and "Uncle Joe" Cannon. Each is more than 80 years old, yet they speak with voices of vigor and gesticulated in a manner to do credit to athletic young men. They are of the old school, but are thoroughly up to date in their ideas and are progressive in the true sense of the word. There may be things going on here which have escaped me, but my observation convinces me that this is a thoroughly unbossed convention and that the delegates are here to do the best they can for the Republican party and to defeat Wilson. They seem to think the best way to do that is to nominate Hughes.

DEMOCRATS FAVOR HUGHES

25,000 in Washington Said to Be Willing to Vote for Justice.

TACOMA, Wash., June 8.—(Special.)—If Justice Hughes receives the nomination of the Republicans he will get between 20,000 and 25,000 Democratic votes in the state of Washington. George H. Colby, of Tacoma, secretary of the Independent Democratic Club, declared today. "There are a lot of Democrats who would vote for the Progressive nominee if a suitable man is not chosen by the Republicans," said Mr. Colby. "In fact, almost any other nominee but Roosevelt and Root would be satisfactory to them. The selection of Justice Hughes would be the most pleasing to the 20,000 or 25,000 Democrats in this state who are affiliated with the Independent Democratic Club. We are not saying much about this organization at present and have not even made the officers public, although I have no objection to saying that I am the secretary."

STUDENTS OFF FOR HOMES

Several Are to Stay at Corvallis for Summer Session.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, June 8.—(Special.)—The annual exodus of students from the college campus is at its height today. The last examinations of the undergraduates are being completed and each train carries away its quota of students homeward bound. Following the commencement exercises Tuesday most of the graduates left the campus. Immediately after the exercises examinations for the undergraduates began, and by tomorrow most of the students will have departed. Several of the seniors and undergraduates will remain for the summer session, which will begin next week.

LEADER OF OTHER DAYS SNAPPED AT CHICAGO.

EX-SENATOR CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW AND WIFE.

PLACE WAITS BORAH

Idahoan May Be Nominated for Vice-President.

ACCEPTANCE NOT CERTAIN

Only Other Name Mentioned Is That of Fairbanks, Who Has Said He Desires Nothing if Not Placed at Head of Ticket.

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago, June 8.—(Special.)—Senator Borah, of Idaho, unquestionably can have the Republican nomination for Vice-President, if Justice Hughes is named for the Presidency, but there is no certainty that he would accept. Until today all speculation had to do with the Presidential nomination. During the past 12 hours the Hughes leaders, confident of success, have been looking over the list of available men for second place on the ticket, and there is no question of opinion that Senator Borah would be the ideal man, if he can be drafted. Senator Borah will have to be drafted, however, for he does not want the Vice-Presidential nomination. He prefers to remain in the Senate, where his activity will not be restricted and where he will be in a position to aid materially in furthering the legislative policies of the next administration, if that administration be Republican.

SECOND NAME SPURNED

OREGON DELEGATES REFUSE TO ENTER COAST LEAGUE.

Washington and California Proposal to Unite on Man in Event Hughes Is Not Nominated Is Repudiated.

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago, June 8.—(Special.)—A movement was started today by the California delegation and taken up by some of the delegates from Washington to form a Pacific Coast League of delegates from the Far West with a view to getting together on some second-choice candidate in the event Justice Hughes should not be nominated. When Oregon delegates were approached they turned down the suggestion. "We are instructed for Hughes and we have no second choice," was the substance of the answer sent back by the Oregon delegates. Refusal of Oregon to become a party to the league had a deterrent effect on the scheme, especially since Hughes sentiment has been growing in the Washington delegation, and present indications are that the league will be abandoned. The idea of those proposing it was to weld together the Western delegations behind some candidates, agreed in advance, that they might influence the convention if a second choice became necessary.

SUFFRAGE COURSE FOR DAY CURIOUS

Plank First Rejected, Then Accepted and Ends With State Settlement Proviso.

BORAH WINS FOR WOMEN

Sub-Committee First Refuses to Act—Full Committee Then Without Reservation Grants Wish and Later Reconsiders Move.

CHICAGO, June 8.—Woman suffrage ran a curious course today in the Republican convention. First denied a place in the platform, then accepted in a party plank without reservation, it finally found its resting place in the Republican resolutions as a favored proposition in principle, but with the proviso that each state should settle the woman suffrage question for itself. The plank offered by the newly-formation of the party, which would have pledged the Republican party to the so-called Susan B. Anthony amendment, was rejected. The plank adopted conforms more nearly to the requests made in resolutions by the National American Woman's Suffrage Association. As incorporated in the platform the plank reads: "The Republican party, reaffirming its faith in government of the people, by the people and for the people, as a measure of justice to one-half of the adult people of this country, favors the extension of the suffrage to women, but recognizes the right of each state to settle this question for itself."

Jubilant Replaces Gloom. The pendulum swung first one way and then another. The jubilation reigned in the ranks of the women who through rain and wind carried their plea to the convention yesterday. The adverse decision that five of the subcommittee of the Republican resolutions committee had voted against recognition of woman suffrage in the platform and four had favored it, came early in the day. There was a hurried marshaling of the friends of suffrage and three hours later the resolutions committee as a whole voted 26 to 21 in favor of recognizing the principle of woman suffrage. The jubilation was short-lived, for within half an hour word came that the roll of absentees had been called and seven committee-men were hastening to the committee-room that the favorable action might be reconsidered. Friends of suffrage on the committee were boarded with entreaties to stand firm as one after another the absentees took their places. The committee repeated their action, a recess for luncheon, and finally reconsideration was agreed to and it emerged as the last plank of the Republican platform with the principle of woman suffrage unconditionally favored, but with the modification that the party "recognizes the right of each state to settle the question for itself."

Final Vote Is 35 to 11. The final vote in the committee on the declaration as agreed upon was 35 for and 11 against. Credit for preventing flat rejection of the plank on reconsideration by the committee was given to Senator Borah, who declared that the question would be taken to the floor of the convention if the committee voted were overridden. This stand, it was declared, forced a stay of the movement to overturn the recognition and the modification recognizing the right of the individual states to decide on the franchise within their borders were evoked.

THANKS SENT TO BORAH

WOMAN SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION APPRECIATES SERVICE.

Resolution Adopted Expressing Gratitude to Senator for Recommending Suffrage Plank.

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago, June 8.—(Special.)—Senator Borah tonight received the following letter from Mrs. Mary F. Morrison, secretary of the National American Woman Suffrage Association. "My Dear Senator Borah—I am directed by Mrs. Catt and the executive council of the National American Woman Suffrage Association to inform you of the resolutions which were unanimously adopted by the council this morning, and which are as follows: 'Resolved, That we hereby express our deep appreciation of the great service rendered the women of America by the resolutions committee of the Republican convention in recommending to the convention that it place a plank favoring the extension of full suffrage to women in its platform, and that we express to Senator Borah our heartfelt gratitude for the important part he played in getting the resolutions committee to take this action.' 'This is no mere formal expression of appreciation, but a most sincere realization of all that the insertion of such a plank will mean to us.' 'We are most sincerely grateful to the committee and especially to you for having so splendidly championed our great cause.'"
