T & D—"The Suspect." Columbia—"Market of Vain Desire." Majestic—"Soul Mates." Peoples—"The Gutter Magdalene." Pickford—"Tangled Fates."

ALICE BRADY, the dramatic and operatic star with the infectious smile, who has been the leading figure in so many of the season's World successes, is featured in "Tangled Fates," a worth-while production, the current offering on the Pickford Theater screen.

Those who like motion picture variety have it in "Tangled Fates." There are country scenes, these showing glimpses of city life, with a fashion show of living models, and then, with a sudden shift "snow stuff" galore is presented, with dancehall scenes in Alaska, dog teams on the trail and a hanging party as a finale.

Miss Brady evidently envied Jack Sherrill his role of scrapper-extraordinary in "Then I'll Come Back to You," for in "Tangled Fates" she is the heroine in a feminine scrap. It is no party affair, with action purely veiled after the two women emerge from their meise their clothing and hair show the effects of a rough-and-tumble midget.

POLICE DO DOUBLE DUTY, BUT ARE CHEERFUL VITAL.

Every Available Man Is Pressed Into Service in Patrolling Floral Route of 52 Blocks.

Every man of Portland's police force, with the exception of the strike detail, was pressed into service yesterday afternoon to police the long route of the automobile and floral parade.

From the starting point, at Fourth and Morrison streets, to Sixth and Alder streets, a distance of 44 blocks by the parade route, Police Captain Inskip and his officers, of the first night relief, were in charge.

Members who observed the spruce and alert bearing of Portland's uniformed protectors, who marked the parade with which they performed their duties, and the good humor that was never failing, cannot be censured for failing to guess that all of them were officers who have been on double duty during the Rose Festival, with but little opportunity to woo gentle slumber.

CREAMERY OUTPUT LARGE

Hood River Plant Turns Out 6800 Pounds in One Month.

HOOD RIVER, Or., June 8.—(Special.)—During the past month the Hood River creamery, operating on a co-operative plan, has made a record amount of butter, a total of 6800 pounds, 1500 pounds more than any former month during the past 13 months of operation.

DIPLOMAS AWARDED TO 37

Clark V. Savidge Speaker at Aberdeen High Exercises.

ABERDEEN, Wash., June 8.—(Special.)—The educational opportunities afforded by the state of Washington were made the subject of an address by Clark V. Savidge, Public Land Commissioner, at the Aberdeen High School exercises.

The T & D Theater is showing special Rose Festival motion pictures, filmed especially for that house. The Majestic has special motion pictures of the various events of the festival, while the Peoples and Pickford theaters, in addition to decorative effects, are holding three or four night matinees for the benefit of the evening crowds.

Screen Gossip.

Life for Blanche Sweet is just one photoplay after another. Instead of the usual time to six weeks' vacation between pictures, Miss Sweet for the past three months has not been allowed that many days of inactivity. Furthermore, she says this is decidedly to her liking.

Conrad Cantzen, now with the Fox photoplayers, is a regular fire alarm. He has been in three or four theater fires, as many hot fires and once was caught in a railroad wreck which took fire.

Herbert Standing, the Morosco player, has seven sons, the eldest of whom, Guy, is at the front with the English army.

Once again, Alice Joyce and Mary Pickford are sisters-in-law. Mary has a new sister, Lois, and brother, Jack. Miss Nomination, the prima donna, Henry Reuter's preparedness illustrated lecture is a strong argument for National protection.

What difference is there between the woman who sells her pitiful body on the streets, and the society girl who barter her beauty to the highest bidder on the Market of Vain Desire?

This is the theme of the powerful Ice problem drama, as interpreted by H. B. Warner, Clara Williams, and a strong supporting cast, in "The Market of Vain Desire," at the Columbia Theater.

CRITICISM IS REFUTED

Centralia Man Accused of Withholding Truth in Pamphlet.

CENTRALIA, Wash., June 8.—(Special.)—A statement contained in a pamphlet recently circulated by J. E. Willis, a Chehalis attorney, to the effect that a former Board of County Commissioners received more salary than allowed by law, and intimating that Judge A. E. Rice, of the Lewis and Clark Superior Court, was responsible for this condition, was refuted today in the first night relief, where J. E. Teachnor, of this city, former chairman of the County Commissioners, stated that H. H. Swoford, who was then County Auditor, in drawing warrants for the Commissioners, did not segregate salaries and expenses and in so doing was acting under the orders of the State Board of Accountancy. The former chairman also asserts that Mr. Willis knew this fact and made no effort to state the truth in his pamphlet.

RECRUITING IS STIMULATED

Oregon City Captain Expects to Have 100 Men Enlisted.

OREGON CITY, Or., June 8.—(Special.)—As soon as the proposed armory is erected and the bill federalizing the National Guard becomes effective, Captain Lowell Blanchard, of Company G, Oregon National Guard, believes that the local company of militia can be recruited to 100 members and held there.

Albany Band Concerts Start.

ALBANY, Or., June 8.—(Special.)—A series of public band concerts in Albany was inaugurated last evening. The Albany City Band, which will give the concert, played in the bandstand on the City Hall site, or old Central School grounds, and a large crowd attended. A number of seats recently were erected on the grounds for the convenience of those attending the concerts.

Mrs. M. E. Illig, of Newberg, Dies.

NEWBERG, Or., June 8.—(Special.)—The funeral services of Mrs. Mary E. Illig were held here today, the body being sent to Hubbard for burial. She was the wife of John Illig and the mother of Carl, John S., Stephen, Benjamin Illig and two daughters, Mrs. Shirley Buck, of Portland, and Miss Margaret Illig, of Newberg.

The Signboard of Civilization

You are never far from the Blue Bell Sign of the Telephone.

Travelers throughout the Pacific Coast and other parts of the United States recognize the Blue Bell Sign. It is seen in cities, towns, villages and also in the most remote parts of the country.

No matter where you may travel, a glimpse of the Blue Bell Sign brings to you that joyful feeling as when meeting an old friend in a strange land. It denotes an always welcome place towards which to turn for almost every requirement for human communication.

It truly is "The Signboard of Civilization."

MEN WOULD GO TO WORK

COMPROMISE TO BE ATTEMPTED AT UNION HALL TONIGHT.

Some Former Employees of Contractor on O.-W. R. & N. Tunnel Want to Return on Old Terms.

An attempt will be made at a meeting at Arion Hall tonight to effect a compromise among the workmen who have been employed by A. Guthrie & Co. in rebuilding the O.-W. R. & N. tunnel.

Committees representing the strikers and the workmen who have been willing to return to the job on the original scale will present the demands of both sides. According to C. H. Miller, secretary of the striking workmen, the question will be put to a vote and it will be the purpose of the workmen to abide by the decision.

More than 400 names have been signed to a petition being circulated among the workmen, asking that they be allowed to go back to work on the original conditions which prevailed before the work ceased. The petition was started and is being circulated by Harry Nicklin, 1528 Olive avenue, one of the miners in the tunnel. The petition will be presented to the contractor and the railroad company as soon as a sufficient number of names are added.

A meeting at South Portal Saturday is expected to be productive of results. "A big majority of the men want to go back," said Mr. Nicklin yesterday. "Hardly anyone refuses when the petition is offered."

Fruitgrowers' Meetings Fixed.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, June 8.—(Special.)—The schedule of meetings in the campaign to organize the fruitgrowers of Oregon on the uniform market plans recommended by the Federal Government is as follows for the remainder of this week: At Albany, today; Dallas and Sheridan, tomorrow; and Newberg, Saturday. These meetings will be held by Professor C. I. Lewis, chief of the division of horticulture at O. A. C., assisted by G. L. Hurd, of the college, and J. C. Skinner, editor of the Portland Fruit Marketer. The organization of affiliating associations in some parts of the state already has been effected.

YAMHILL PIONEERS MEET

Officers Are Elected and Luncheon Is Enjoyed at McMinnville.

McMINNVILLE, Or., June 8.—(Special.)—The Yamhill County Pioneer Association held its annual meeting here Wednesday in the First Presbyterian Church. They were welcomed by Mayor Evans and spent the day listening to the scheduled programme, renewing acquaintances and talking over the events of the pioneer days. Ladies of the Methodist Church served luncheon.

Shooting Victim Dies.

GRANGEVILLE, Idaho, June 8.—(Special.)—George Riebold, who was accidentally shot Sunday while cleaning a 12-caliber rifle, died unexpectedly this evening at 7 o'clock. He is survived by a father, mother, several sisters and brothers, most of whom reside on the prairie.
