

150 F-1000 MEN NOTE TO STAY OUT

Minority of ex-Employees at St. Johns Tunnel Hold to Demand for Raise.

OTHERS WANT TO RETURN

Petition to Guthrie & Co. for Reinstatement Is Signed by More Than 500 Workers—Smaller Force to Picket Works.

Action to stand by the demands already made for a 50-cent raise was taken by about 150 ex-employees of A.
Guthrie & Co., who have the contract for rebuilding the O.-W. R. & N. Co.
St. Johns tunnel, at Arion Hall, last night.

The meeting represented only a small portion of the employees at the tunnel, who numbered between 1000 and 1150.
The other workmen, who are known as the non-strikers, and who want to return to work on the original conditions, will meet today at South Portland station, near the tunnel, and complete the petition asking that they be reinstated at work. The petition is now signed by more than 500 men.

A committee representing a faction of the workmen desiring to return to work had been asked to meet at the gathering last night and present that side of the question, but it did not appear.

Y. H. Douthwaite, one of the workmen, created a sensation when he expressed the belief that the agitators had lost already.

"I believe we bit off more than we can chew," he declared.

He urged that the demands for a 50-cent raise be changed so as to include only miners, muckers and helpers, pointing out that the other classes of workmen had not struck and consequently should not benefit from the efforts of the agitation.

Simon Billings, who spoke for standing by the original demands, was interrupted by several from the audience who questioned some of his more radical remarks. The gathering on the whole, however, was in favor of continuing the demand for the 50-cent raise.

M. A. Hathaway, chosen to lead those favoring a strike, presided. He urged a united effort and declared he believed the ultimate success of the effort was possible.

Other speakers were J. Britt Garley, a Socialist, C. Carson and C. H. Miller, Miller, who is treasurer of the organization, asked for volunteers to do picket duty at the tunnel. Several volunteered to assist him.

"If the tunnel opens up it will do so over what is left of me," he declared.
It was decided to hold a meeting next Thursday in Arion hall.

Guthrie & Co. suspended work when a strike was agitated.

10 ON HONEYMOON AT FETE

Five Seattle Couples Are With Party of Eagles.

Five newly wedded couples were among the happiest and proudest attendants at the Rose Festival this week.

The bridegrooms were members of the Seattle Eagles' party who have been contributing so materially to the festival merriment. The five brides are Seattle girls who are unanimous in the assertion that the Rose Festival and honeymoon are a winning combination.
The newlyweds have been much honored by other members of their party all week long. They had a conspicuous place on the float in the Uaitte parade last night. The names of the five couples are: Mrs. and Mr. Howard N.
Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William Woodcock, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hoben, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Miller and Mr. and Mrs.
E. Friedman.

WHITE SHRINE INITIATES 50

Eastern Star Members Attend Ceremonial Session.

A ceremonial session was held at the Masonic Temple last night by the Organ Shrine, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, about 50 candidates being initiated. About 300 members of the order from all sections of the state were present.

Proceeding the meeting at the temple a banquet was held at the Benson Hotel. The order is a fraternal organization within the ranks of Masonry, which includes members of the Eastern Star and the Masons. Nymous delegates and officers of the Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, remained over to attend last night's gathering.

YOUTH ACCUSED OF THEFT

Leo Burlow Slid to Have Offered Forged Slip at Bank.

Leo Burlow, aged 19 years, was arrested by Detectives Goits and Howell charged with larceny from a dwelling. Young Burlow is said to have entered the house of Mrs. M. E. Ashton, 257 East Bryant street, two days ago and taken away a cash box containing a savings bank book belonging to one of Mrs. Ashton's borders.

Yesterday morning, bright and early, he appeared at the bank with a forged withdrawal slip, officers say, and the clerk, becoming suspicious, called for Francis Alkna, head of the local Burns Detective Agency. The withdrawal slip was for $10.

FALL ON PICK FATAL

Elderly Prospector Is Victim of Accident Near Waldo.

WALDO, Or., June 9.—(Special.)— J. P. Grant, 65, a prospector, is dead as the result of a fall from a scaffold at the Moore place near here. He fell upon a pick which penetrated his breast, and death ensued within a few minutes. He was buried today at the cemetery in Waldo.

Mr. Grant leaves relatives in Illinois, whose address is not known. He told local residents that his father owned a ranch near Chicago and that he had a sister living in that city.

Virginian Heads Travelers.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., June 9.—Daniel W. Sale, of Virginia, was elected national president of the Travelers' Protective Association of America, at the closing session of the national convention of that organization here today.

AN ATTRACTIVE YOUNG MATRON OF PORTLAND, WHO WILL LEAVE TOMORROW TO JOIN HER HUSBAND IN ENGLAND.

MRS. MILDRED CAMPBELL, WIFE OF CAPTAIN T. C. CAMPBELL, OF THE WESTERN SCOTS REGIMENT.

Miss Catherine Russell has asked a few of the younger girls in to tea this afternoon at the Portland Hotel.

Mrs. Mildred Campbell, wife of Captain T. C. Campbell, of the famous Western Scots Regiment, located somewhere in France, is going to England.
Mrs. Campbell is making the trip in the hope of occasionally seeing her husband and also to take up work in the Blue Cross. She is a very clever woman, as written a number of articles under the name of "M. See," which have won favorable comment from short-story readers. She is related to a number of prominent pioneer families in this state, but has for several years past made her home in Canada. She is a native of Oregon.

Mrs. A. M. Johnson, and her daughter, Miss Ethel Johnson, of Seattle, in Portland visiting Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. J. D. Kennedy, 739 Corbett street.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Carter, of 44 East Eighth street, the home of pleasantly surprised recently when a party of about 20 friends gathered to celebrate the happy couple. Supper was served, prepared by the guests.
Music and dancing were the features of the evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Beaumont, Mr. and Mrs. B. Mosher, Mrs. Rose Fletcher, Fred Veeringer, Miss Estelle McCarthy, Jack Deegan, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson, Miss Nettie Jacobson, Masters Jack and Jim Montgomery.

One of the most attractive weddings of the year occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Morphey, 293 East Thirty-second street, Thursday morning, June 8, when their daughter, Miss Irene V. Morphey, was united in marriage to William B. Scheel, of Berkeley, Cal. Artistic decorations were evident on every hand, reaching their max in a graceful flower canopy of ferns and roses. The bride was charming in an embroidered tulle, trimmed in pearls and ribbon, her hair was caught with spray of orange blossoms; she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The service opened with the bridal hymn from Lullaby, played by Miss Helen Miller, continuing with "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and closing with "When I Found You." Mr. Morphey, father of the bride, gave her away. Telegrams of congratulations from Mr. Scheel's parents in New York mingled with the well wishes of mutual friends. The bride is a charming young woman. She leaves a host of friends in Sunnyside, where she made a large place for herself through her activities in the Young People's Society of the Sunnyside Congregational Church. Rev. J. J. Staub, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

A piano recital, in which a number of children of well-known Portland families will participate, will be given tonight at the Little Theater by Miss Jocelyn Poulkes. Two pianos will be used in the majority of the selections, in many numbers Miss Poulkes being at the second piano.

The children to be presented are:
Elizabeth, daughter of Mrs. H. H. Miller, Madeline Baker, Frances Mary Elmer, Verne Parker, Leta Kopitke, Lulu Madlock, Consuelo McMillan, Harriet Vivian, Adeline Knapp, Kathleen Es-finger, and Irene Reynolds. The programme arranged in an artistic and elaborate one.

Miss Elsie Lee, of this city, who has been a student at University of California, graduated early this month and returned to Portland Tuesday night.

The Piedmont Club will entertain this evening at Kanton Clubhouse. Dancing will commence at 9 o'clock.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

By EDITH KNIGHT HOLMES

FLAG Day is being anticipated by the Daughters of the American Revolution of this city. On Wednesday both chapters will hold a picnic. The members will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert C. Wright, 1870 East Alder street. They will take the Mount Tabor cars to East Sixty-ninth street. Multnomah also will have a suitable meeting.

The Unitarian Women's Alliance has been most helpful during the Rose Festival this year. They served lunches at the church every day and the members were interested actively. The flowers and general air of hospitality made the luncheon attractive.

Mary Elizabeth Harvey will be hostess to the Carrie Jacobs-Bond Musical Club Saturday, June 17, at her home, 215 North Decatur street, St.
Johns. The usual business meeting will begin at 11 o'clock. Stella Van Vleet, president, presiding. A programme under the direction of Mrs.
Carrie R. Beaumont will be given. A basket luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock and the afternoon spent in entertaining the members.

Multnomah Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will hold a reception on Wednesday (Flag day) in the home of Mrs. C. J. Reed, Irvington.

The Jewish Women's Endeavor Society has remodeled its building and furnished it completely. The members are ready to take in anybody that is in need of a home. Everything will be made convenient for the people. A ladder, Mrs. Levey will take charge of the home. The address is 447 Fifth street.

St. George's Society is preparing for a social meeting for June 16 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hogan, 1197 Cleveland avenue. The patronesses will be Mrs. J. J. Hogan, Mrs. J. J. O'Leary, Mrs. G. W. Tamsieie, Mrs. H.
Ingalls and Mrs. G. Porter.

Oak Grove-Milwaukee Social Service Club will hold a luncheon today at 1 o'clock. Miss Florence Olson will preside.

Central W. C. T. U. will hold an open discussion on Wednesday, when the subject will be "The Two Amendments."

Mrs. Lee Davenport has returned from California and is resuming her activities in the W. C. T. U., of which she is a prominent member.

HEN MOTHERS KITTENS

NEST IS DESERTED AND MOTHER CAT IS DRIVEN AWAY.

Efforts of Mrs. Louise Otto and Her Daughter Fail to Induce Biddy to Return to Her Eggs.

Cats with affections for chickens have prevailed since the memory of man running to the contrary, but a setting hen with an affection for kittens above the affection for the eggs she is hatching, is a thing rare to behold.

But such a hen there is. She is a Barred Plymouth Rock and she is owned by Mrs. Louise Otto, 439 Jarrett street.
For 20 long and lonely days she sat on a nest full of eggs. Not one was broken in the long vigil and Mrs. Otto's daughter, Amanda, looked forward to counting the chickens today.

But yesterday havoc befell the chicken yard. Into an adjoining nest the old house cat Puddy crept stealthily.
By noon yesterday a litter of kittens arrived. The old hen spied them.
With a grunt she clucked she forgot her nest of 20-day warmed eggs and drove the mother feline away. Then she appropriated the litter of kittens, huddled them and clucked to them with grandiloquent noises.

The distracted mother cat curled her long willowy tail high and whipped it around and about and about and about entreaty to the old hen to desist. But the old hen stood put. The eggs which were to have been chicks, looked so cold and all the entirety of Mrs. Otto and her daughter Amanda were as nothing.

At nightfall the hen was yet with her adopted kittens, although she had been coaxed repeatedly to stay with the eggs.

All human endeavors to reconcile the mother cat to her loss and the old hen to her duty, failed.

The hen had adopted the litter of kittens for good and all it seemed.

OSTEOPATHS OPEN SESSION

Oregon Association Holds 15th Annual Convention Here.

With a series of interesting demonstrations of osteopathic methods along clinical, technical and laboratory lines, the Oregon Osteopathic Association opened its 15th annual convention yesterday at the assembly hall in the Megan building. The session was attended by about 60 osteopaths from various parts of the state. The convention will continue today with election of officers this afternoon.

Yesterday's demonstrations were given by Dr. H. F. Leonard, of Portland, president of the association. Following the demonstration a question box was conducted.

The programme for today includes addresses by Dr. D. D. Young, McMinnville; Dr. H. Lester Barrett, Portland; Dr. H. P. Bloxham, Portland; Dr. Gertrude Gates, Portland; Dr. E. B. Northrup, Portland; Dr. H. A. Basher, Portland; Dr. L. H. Howland, Portland; Dr.
J. A. Van Brakle, Oregon City; Dr.
W. T. Howard, Medford; Dr. Eva S.

CLACKAMAS PAVES ROAD

County-Built Oregon City-Park Place Highway Nearly Finished.

OREGON CITY, Or., June 9.—(Special.)—The first piece of hard-surface paving laid by Clackamas County will be completed by Tuesday night. The paving is asphaltic concrete, five inches thick, and is mixed in the county paving plant and is laid between Oregon city and Parkplace. The work was done under direction of Superintendent Wordwick and rolled with county road rollers.

Preliminary estimates place the cost of the paving at 75 cents a yard, although the cost of installing the plant, purchasing belting and repairing it, are figured in. The actual cost of buying the materials and putting it down will probably be considerably under 60 cents a yard.

WESTERN GIRLS TO RESCUE

Close to 500 Young Women to Aid Labor Shortage in East.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., June 9.—About 500 girls are expected here tomorrow from the Middle West to fill the shortage of female help in local factories.
Five hundred more, it is said, will be secured in a month or so from other parts of the country.

The girls are being imported by the Burlington U. M. C. Company and the Wanamaker Brothers Corset Company. Both have been running large advertisements all over the country in an effort to secure girls.

SIGHTSEERS USE HANDCAR

Mexican and Companion Start for "Loop," but Police Interfere.

CHICAGO, June 4.—"See Chicago by handcar" is the idea that occurred to Anton Ketske, a Mexican, and a companion, and now Ketske is thinking it over in a police station. His companion escaped. The men stole a handcar in the yards of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad and started for the "Loop" over the tracks. They were making good progress when the police discovered them and gave chase. After several shots had been fired Ketske surrendered.

PERISCOPE IS AT CROSSING

Watchman Can See Trains at Dangerous Curve.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., June 8.— No longer is the periscope used exclusively in the business of slaughter in the war zones, for the instrument invented for aid in battle is now utilized by the Santa Fe to save lives.

At the Third-street grade crossing, a particularly hazardous point in the business district, the guardian of the crossing is now using a 20-foot periscope to watch for trains around a dangerous curve. The periscope extends over the roofs of buildings that obstruct the view.

BOSSY ADOPTS BABY COLT

Mourning Cow Is Now Devoted to Motherless Young Horse.

MEADVILLE, Pa., June 2.—A mare owned by J. S. Brown, a farmer, at Conneaut Lake, died, leaving a fine yearling colt. The colt was fed on a bottle a time and when strong enough was turned out with a herd of cattle for exercise.

One of the Cows had lost a calf and she has adopted the colt. They are now inseparable.
