Premier Salandra Heads Movement to Quit-Minority to Remain in Power Until King Decides on New Men.

All parties agree that the new Italian cabinet must have a national character. It is suggested that it comprises all the leading statesmen with a view to unliting in the supreme struggle all political opinions except that of the intransigeant Socialists. political opinions except that of the Intransigeant Socialists, about 40 of whom oppose the war as a principle. From all sides a rapid solution of the crisis is urged owing to the gravity of the mourant.

The meeting also will prepare for future economic arrangements. This matter needs the approval of Parliament."

From the Italian military point of view, the Premier said, he could not conceal that the enemy, owing principally to geographical position, has been able to obtain initial successes, which might perhaps have been avoided by the local command on the Trentino front. This allusion to the deliverance of the fatherland.

On our front because it left our doors open to our traditional enemy. These unfavorable conditions rendered the first undeniable successes of the enemy's offensive possible, but we must recognize that better prepared defenses might at least have longer arrested the enemy's advance, keeping it farther from the Venetian plains.

"Therefore the country is learning with painful impression that after a year of war the enemy has succeeded in setting foot on the edge of our national territory which is as sacred as any corner of the fatherland. "ROME, June 11.—The Italian Cabinet, beaded by Premier Saiandra, resigned today.

This action of the ministry resulted from the failure of the Italian Chamber of Deputies yesterday to pass a vote of confidence in the government, following the presentation of the budget of the Minister of the Interior.

Belief exists here that the Ministerial crisis will soon be ended. All political parties, it is contended, favor a National Ministry containing Baron Sonnino, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, and the present Military Ministers.

The government falled to obtain a majority on a vote in the Chamber of Deputies on the budget of the Minister of the Interior. The vote was 190 against the budget to 120 for it.
