

MR. HUGHES DROPS JUDICIAL RESERVE

Politics Re-entered With Zest by Candidate, Who Meets Scores of Old Friends.

STATEMENT IS WITHHELD

Formal Notification of Nomination Awaited Before-Nominee Gives Views Further-Marked Change in Bearing Is Noted

NEW YORK, June 12.—Charles E. Hughes re-entered politics today, apparently with abundant zest. He reached this city early in the day, established temporary headquarters at an uptown hotel and virtually held open house until nearly midnight.

Those who knew the nominee as a Supreme Court justice noticed a marked change in his bearing today. His air of studious reserve apparently left him with the robes of his office. He had a hearty handclasp and a smile for every man he met and was enthusiastic in his welcome of old friends, who came to see him after intervals of years.

Change in Bearing Marked. Those who knew the nominee as a Supreme Court justice noticed a marked change in his bearing today. His air of studious reserve apparently left him with the robes of his office.

Robert Fuller, who was his secretary when he was Governor, spent the afternoon helping him receive callers and Major Crossit, who was his military aide in 1910, established himself at the door of the inner office.

How the Progressives will vote; whether Colonel Roosevelt will support Mr. Hughes; whether the Colonel will take the stump for him; to what extent failure of the Progressives to support Hughes will affect the election—these and kindred topics were the subjects of much speculation on the part of the Republican leaders who called.

PROGRESSIVES RETURN TO REPUBLICAN FOLD

Party Leaders in Several States Come Out in Support of Hughes—Few Decline to Enter Harmony Wave.

NEW YORK, June 12.—(Special.)—New York Progressives are swinging to Hughes. The general sentiment of the Bull Moose was today by Oscar S. Straus, delegate-at-large to the Chicago convention and Progressive candidate for Governor in 1912, when he said:

Atlanta, Ga.—That the Progressive party cannot be delivered to any other cause, but will name a candidate in the place of Theodore Roosevelt if his declination sticks, was the declaration today of John L. Sibley, of Georgia, Progressive leader and one of the delegates-at-large to the Chicago convention.

ST. PAUL, Minn.—Minnesota Progressives are likely to support Hughes. G. W. Halbert, state chairman, said today:

DES MOINES, Capers Schneck, defeated candidate for United States Senate two years ago, today declared himself for Hughes and asserted that Iowa Progressives would support the Republican ticket.

THE PROGRESSIVE PARTY IN IOWA, said Mr. Schneck, "practically ceased to exist with the nomination of Hughes at Chicago. The Progressives who were Democrats will go to Wilson if he is nominated, and the Progressives who were Republicans will return to the Republican party."

NEW ORLEANS, La.—"Under no circumstances will I run on the Republican ticket."

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—The Republican nominee, Hughes and Fairbanks, will not receive the support of the Progressives of Indiana under any consideration, and in case the Progressives do not have a Republican ticket in the field, a concentrated effort will be made in this state to throw all the support possible to Wilson.

OMAHA, Neb.—Progressives are so pleased over the nomination of Hughes that the state candidates of that party are preparing to withdraw from the race in favor of the Republican nominee for the same office.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Independent oil jobbers testified today before the Federal Trade Commission that the Standard Oil Company had demoralized the oil industry and through failure of the independent jobbers to compete in each other's fields, had jeopardized the existence of independent jobbers and refiners.

THE DALLIES, Or., June 12.—(Special.)—While shipments of early cherries began this week, a light crop is expected in this section. According to the county agricultural agent, the light crop is not due to frost conditions, but almost altogether to lack of pollination, caused by setting out varieties of trees that do not mate.

THIS is the Life. These Summer days raise the old hankering for the fresh and free wind-blown outdoors. We want to play—to go fishing and to camp in the open near our favorite haunt in the hills. And those of us who are wise carry along the ideal Summer food. Just as Swastikas are the favorite Biscuits in a million homes, so are they the favorites of experienced campers. There's a good reason: Swastikas are always crisp and fresh beyond compare.

Biscuits, as you know, are no better than the ingredients of which they are made and because Swastikas are made of the best ingredients, by Master Bakers—under perfect conditions, they are known as the Purest of All Pure Foods.

You will delight every member of your party by taking along a goodly supply of Swastikas. Remember—there's a Swastika Biscuit for every taste and they all taste delicious.
