plays a good fielding game, is as heady a player as his predecessor and a bet-ter hitter.

The Seal pitchers, at least those who are being regularly used, are going well, with the veteran Spider Baum topping the list in number of games won and looking better than ever before in his long career. Curley Brown continues to pitch good ball and so does Johnny Couch, while Bill Steen is improving steadily.

is in a fair way to repeat.

The big disappointment of the sen son is the complete collapse of the Oak-land team. Somewhere there is a psy-peated seasons of failure. Somewhere there is a hidden canker that breeds discontent, that makes of the men mere mechanics of the game as a means of earning a livelihood. Whatever may be the cause, it would seem that the directors of the league should ferret it out. The Oaks are too important a factor in league affairs to be neglected much longer.

Two former Vancouver players, Dutch Reuther and Gaard Gislason, who walked out when the players' strike was declared last year, are playing in brilliant form for the Spokane team, of the Northwestern League. Both would look mighty good in Vancouver uniforms now. uniforms now.

Northwestern League fans in Van-couver are according baseball good sup-port, notwithstanding the abnormal condition brought about by the war, and there is every likelihood of the attendance increasing as the season progresses. progresses.

Despite the fact that the Boston Americans have looked good at this season, they do not seem to have a chance in the race. Jim Thorpe is suing an Eastern newspaper for saying that he was in a saloon brawl.

R. H. E. The game, which was the play-off of last Saturday's postponement, was delayed twice by rain. Mogridge was taken out in the second inning after he had walked Burns and Young had tripled. Veach got two triples and two singles in four times up. The score:
