TENSION MUCH INCREASED
State Troops, However, Will Not Be Used for Foreign Service for Present.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Finally the crisis over the Mexican border troubles, which has affected all of this state and the entire nation for the last eight days, has been set in temporary history by the offer of President Wilson. About 10,000 national guardsmen will be transferred to the Mexican border to assist the regulars already in the field.

The call for the militia zone that will be added to the present zone of control from six counties to every county in the state will be given to the governor of the state by the president at 8 a.m. today.

Formal demands will be made upon the Mexican government for the withdrawal of its warships and the return of its troops to Mexico. The president will also demand that the Mexican government return to the United States the Americans who have been taken prisoners of war by the Mexicans, and the United States will ask that the Mexican government return the property of American citizens which has been seized.
