BOGUS MEDIUMS GO

SPIRITUALIST BODIES TO BAR FORTUNE TELLERS. Meeting of Churches to Be Called to Start Move to Change City Ordinances to Exclude Fakers.

Fortune tellers are about to be driven out of the Spiritualist Church organizations.

In fact, excommunication awaits the type of mediums who advertise that they are willing to commercialize their powers to "restore lost love."

The existing ordinance, said the Rev. H. Linn, of the Church of the Soul, "are at once too rigid and too comprehensive, and are susceptible of various changes."

BATTLE BILLED FOR NIGHT

National Guard and Naval Militia Will Fire Salutes, Parade and Give Drills; Firemen, Too, to Have Demonstration.

GRADUATING EXERCISES TONIGHT.—The graduating exercises of the Christian Brothers' Business College will be held tonight in Alumni Hall.

TWO DUCKED BY CANOE CAPELLING.—J. Elbert Baul, 23 years old, and J. Breth, 24, both living at 144 West Killpatrick street, were in a canoe in the Willamette River, between the Hawthorne and Morrison street bridges, yesterday afternoon.

MAMAS TO HAVE STRAWBERRY PICNIC.—Tomorrow evening the Mamamas will have their fourth annual strawberry picnic at the farm of J. M. Mason.

SALEM PARTY COMES BY AUTO.—A. M. Clough, of Salem, accompanied by Mrs. Clough and their daughter, Mrs. W. L. Bryant, and son-in-law, Rex Bishop, and Mrs. Bishop, arrived in Portland by automobile yesterday morning.

THE FIRST THING in the morning, as early as 6 A. M., there will be firing of salutes by the Oregon National Guard and Naval Militia.

Then will come the field-day events. There will be races and sporting events of all kinds, in which the public is invited to participate.

Scheduled for the afternoon are Fire Department drills and races in the streets. There will be a revival of the old-time firemen's hose races and foot races.

Fireworks to Be Spectacular. In the evening will be staged some big spectacular events in the harbor. There will be military and naval maneuvers.

Baroque on Mental Telepathy Is Unusually Comical Act, and Other Numbers Are Given, Too.

Truly patriotism is not dead among us, nor sleeping. Nowhere can one get better proof of this assertion than in a visit to the Strand Theater.

These "boys" in blue make up a fire and drum corps of about 200 men in a brave old voice and make a stirring appeal as a picture with his silvered locks and untheatrical appearance.

One of the dandiest acts in vaudeville is the rapid-fire burlesque on mental telepathy offered by Hava and Quimby.

Both boys are natural comedians. One psychic (?) is blindfolded and sits on the stage, while the other, Hava, in and down the aisles "sending him thoughts."

Kitty, a pretty maid, and Davis, her partner, offer a capital juggling act interspersed with delightful music.

The story of a stage-struck girl who takes lessons in acting is told humorously by the LaFour-Yermon trio.

One of Peter B. Kyne's good stories, "The Three Godfathers," has been made into a splendid film story, full of thrills and interest.

Two men arrested last night at the residence of Hubert Jewell, 338 Fairfax terrace, on June 11, was found in a paper sack, hidden in the grass behind a house.

They told the detectives that they watched Mr. Hubert and his family drive away from the residence in an auto. The thieves then entered the home and appropriated a lot of jewelry, including several watches, three pearl necklaces, three bracelets, a diamond brooch and many other valuable trifles.

Since the robbery was reported the detectives have been on the trail of the perpetrators.

Bellamy was arrested last September for the burglary of a Thurman-street store. He was convicted and served a sentence of three months in the County Jail.

WOMEN ARE DISAPPOINTED. Suffragists Threaten to Turn Votes Against Democrats.

ST. LOUIS, June 18.—Representatives of the National Women's Party, at a banquet held here last night in honor of the late Susan B. Anthony, expressed their disappointment over the results of the Democratic suffrage plank, and threatened to turn the 4,000,000 women voters in 12 suffrage states against the Democratic ticket if Congress refuses to pass a suffrage amendment before election day.
