

REPUBLICANS WILL BE ORGANIZED SOON

Tentative Plan Is to Have Committee Meeting at Imperial Hotel About July 1.

CHANGE MAY BE MADE

E. D. Baldwin Likely to Be Chosen Secretary Again, but Chairmanship Is Eyed by Several and Progressive May Be Choice.

Organization of the Republican state committee will be effected at a meeting in the Imperial Hotel in Portland about July 1.

Charles B. Moores, state chairman; Edward D. Baldwin, state secretary; and Ralph E. Williams, National Committee man for Oregon, held an informal conference yesterday and agreed on the tentative date. A formal call will be issued within the next few days, or as soon as the date can be fixed.

At this meeting it is probable that the committee will be formally organized and that officers will be named to handle the ensuing campaign. It is intended to establish headquarters in a convenient building in Portland.

It is probable that Mr. Baldwin will be re-elected secretary. Several members of the committee already have promised him support. No other candidate's name has been mentioned in this connection.

Mr. Baldwin returned to the state yesterday from Chicago, where he attended the National convention. He has been in Washington, D. C., since Congress convened, as secretary to Representative Charles W. Whittier, and secretary of the state committee for four years.

Chairmanship is sought, however, over the election of state chairman. N. B. Hermann, of Roseburg, is reported to be a receptive candidate. He is a son of the late Hermann, ex-Representative in Congress. Charles A. Johns, a lawyer of Portland, also is said to be a candidate.

Many Republicans, however, are insisting that Mr. Moores take the office again. Mr. Moores has been chairman during the last two state campaigns and his wide and favorable acquaintance throughout the state is being urged as an eminent qualification for the position. Mr. Moores, however, did not express his willingness to accept.

The personnel of the state executive committee also will be determined, probably, at the forthcoming meeting. It is apparent that the action of the National committee of the Progressive party in Chicago next week will have a bearing on the makeup of the Oregon state committee.

Progressives Are Considered. If Hughes as the candidate of their party, as now seems certain, the Oregon Republicans will give the Oregon Progressives a full share in the making of the campaign in this state. It is the intention to place several Progressives on the executive committee. Some leading Republicans even have suggested that some former Progressive ought to be state chairman. Thus, they argue, the amalgamation of the two parties would be definitely and finally secured and the good faith of all who are working for the party would be concretely demonstrated.

Mr. Williams, the Oregon National Committee man, is eager to give the Progressives a full share in the making of the campaign on the state committee. He has made the same recommendation regarding the formation of the National committee. "I am anxious to get both parties working harmoniously together," he said yesterday. "If the Progressives endorse Hughes as their candidate, they will be entitled to adequate representation on the National committee as well as on each of the several state committees."

Hughes Called Progressive. "Hughes was the candidate at Chicago of the progressive Republicans as distinguished from the 'old guard' and reactionaries," he said yesterday. "The requirements of the Progressive party itself and I expect the Progressive committee to endorse him."

That means that the two parties will stand on common ground. The Progressives then should have a hand in the making of the campaign. If Hughes becomes the Progressive candidate the two parties in Oregon will be confronted with the perplexing problem of nominating a candidate for Presidential electors on the ballot next November. The Progressives and the Republicans each have a number of full ticket of five candidates. If these 10 names remain on the ballot it is possible that the Hughes vote will be so badly split among them that the Democratic electors will be elected even though Hughes carries the state. It is planned to procure the withdrawal of part of the Progressive and part of the Republican nominees.

MR. SHEPPARD WINS SUIT

City Will Benefit by Gift of Unincorporated Scenic Spot.

The city of Portland is to have clear title to the land comprising Sheppard's Dell along the Columbia River Highway. Judge McGinn yesterday decided for the plaintiff in the case brought in the Circuit Court by George Sheppard against George W. Holmes and Emil F. Orth, for title to 40 acres involving a part of the dell.

Mayonard, a man of comparatively humble circumstances, about a year ago donated to the city a 10-acre tract, including the scenic spot since christened as Sheppard's Dell. Subsequently Holmes and Orth, fortified with a Sheriff's sale deed, claimed title to a certain 10-acre tract, including a part of the same 10-acre tract that Mr. Sheppard had presented to the city. It appears that Mr. Sheppard had at one time given a mortgage on a part of his property as security for money borrowed from Holmes. Apparently Mr. Sheppard defaulted in some of his payments, and 40 acres of his land was sold to satisfy a judgment. Holmes and Orth were the purchasers. The land that they selected in this purchase included the most attractive part of the dell. Without it the remainder of the scenic spot would have been valueless.

Osmond Royal, on behalf of Mr. Sheppard, brought suit to recover the property. Estes Snedeker, as his attorney, succeeded in getting the case transferred. It was contended that the defendants accepted payments from Mr. Sheppard after they had foreclosed on his property and had been declared bankrupt. The plaintiffs had not finished presentation of their testimony yesterday when Judge McGinn abruptly called the case in favor of Mr. Sheppard.

Mr. Sheppard promptly expressed his indignation in complying his case in the city, which now gets the dell unincorporated and with a clear title.

Organization of the Republican state committee will be effected at a meeting in the Imperial Hotel in Portland about July 1.

Charles B. Moores, state chairman; Edward D. Baldwin, state secretary; and Ralph E. Williams, National Committee man for Oregon, held an informal conference yesterday and agreed on the tentative date. A formal call will be issued within the next few days, or as soon as the date can be fixed.

MYERS CLAN HAS REUNION

About 150 Members Assemble at Hall in Oregon City.

OREGON CITY, June 19.—(Special.)—The Myers clan met at the Knapp hall on Sunday, June 18, when a large number of the members of this family and descendants of this well-known Oregon pioneer family were present, there being about 150 in all. Among the features of the day was the banquet, after which a programme was given. Among those addressing the assembly were Colonel R. A. Miller, of Portland; Frank Myers, of Astoria; and W. W. Myers, Mrs. Sarah Ware, of Oregon City; Mrs. Mary West, of Newberg; Dr. Katherine S. Myers, of Portland.

One of the most interesting speakers of the afternoon was W. W. Myers, of this city, who gave an interesting talk on the travel in the early days across the plains and also told of how his grandfather Lynch had been one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

INGERS FOR THE BIG PROJECT

ings for the big project, is the opinion of those who are checking up the remonstrances filed, some time ago. The work has not been completed as yet, there being thousands of remonstrance petitions, but it is estimated by those compiling the figures that the remonstrance will fall a great deal short of the required 60 per cent necessary to kill the proceedings.

The number of square feet represented in the remonstrances has been compiled, but not the number of feet represented in the entire assessment district. It is expected the check will be finished this week.

FISHERMAN IS DROWNED

JOHN HOGUE LOST IN ROGUE RIVER SUNDAY NIGHT. Boat Capsized Near Griffin Ferry. When Net Catches in Our Lock. Partner Reaches Shore.

GRANT'S PASS, Or., June 19.—(Special.)—John Hogue, who with his partner, Mr. Pankey had been operating a boat in the commercial fishing fleet since the opening of the season, was drowned at 11 o'clock Sunday night when he was thrown into the water through the capsizing of the boat in the rapids near Griffin Ferry.

The men were drifting over the rapids when the net became entangled in the boat, throwing the boat broadside to the stream. Before the net, which caught in the or lock, could be cast loose, the boat was overturned.

Mr. Pankey, in making his way to shore, but nothing was seen of Mr. Hogue, and Mr. Pankey called assistance at about 12 o'clock and search for the river was made.

Mr. Hogue was about 25 years of age and had lived in Josephine County for many years, residing with his mother a ranch not far from where he lost his life.

HEADACHES

Thousands of men and women suffer from headaches every day, other thousands have headaches every week or every month, and still others have headaches occasionally, but no regular intervals. The best doctor is often unable to find the cause of many of these headaches, and in most cases, knowing the cause, he does not know what will remove it, so as to give permanent relief. All he can do is to prescribe the usual pain relievers, which give temporary relief, but the headache returns, and other treatments are necessary. If you suffer from headaches, no matter what their nature, take and take only the Pinkettes. They are a factory in the highest degree. You can obtain them at all druggists in any quantity, 10c worth, 50c worth or more. Ask for an established name.

SICK-HEADACHES

Sick-headache, the most miserable of all ailments, is often visited by the Pinkettes. Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., and saw the extreme cleanliness and purity which prevail in the preparation and storing of Lyman's Pinkettes. Vegetable Compound, as well as of her other medicines. An hour is required to go through so large an establishment. One thing which struck the visitors was the great number of files containing the letters of women who told how much the famous Compound had done for them. Only part of them are published, and no letter is ever published without the writer's permission.—Adv.
