Dell was batted hard in the opening game. The second contest was won in the first inning, when four singles and a triple off Coombs scored five runs. Three more were made off Appleton and one off Hailes. Demaree was effective throughout. Scores:

Centralia Signs Pitcher.

CENTRALIA, Wash., June 20.—(Special.)—Manager McDonald, of the Tono baseball team, has signed up McCorkle, a Kelso boy, who is regarded as one of the best semi-professional twirlers in Southwestern Washington. McCorkle will work in the game between Tono and Winlock next Sunday. Curley Coen, a Tacoma boy, who has played with Tono the last two seasons, left Sunday to sign with the Great Falls team in the Northwest League.

What They Say.

Never mind what they say about you,
  Never mind what they do, or think;
Never mind if they pan or knout you,
  Using the tongue or the printer's ink.

The Panvil Chorus is always busy,
  A chorus that always needs a goat;
Let them rail till their tongues get dizzy,
  "What they say" doesn't row your boat.

Let them knock with a rap that's steady,
  What do you care for the outside mob,
As long as you have an answer ready?
  The answer being, "I'm on the job."

FRANCOIS MORAN should be our most experienced fighter in all lines of endeavor when he ends his next fight. Since returning home he has tackled Jeems Coffey, who was about his own height and weight. Then he met Willard, who was six inches taller and who outweighed him 58 pounds. Now Charles Francis is hooked up with Jack Dillon, who is five inches shorter and about 30 pounds lighter. What other sizes have you?

* * *

Moran should forget all about that Willard fight while facing Dillon. Else by mistake, through force of habit, he will be swinging three or four feet over Dillon's bobbing bean.

What's the Quaint Idea?

You may recall the names of the hardest hitting infield that has played in 20 years—McInnis, Collins, Barry and Baker. Three at least were always good for any spot between .330 and .360. Then they were scattered. Now what's the quaint idea? Have you noticed their batting marks of 1916?

Frank Baker, with the Yanks, is batting .264.

Eddie Collins, with the White Sox, is batting .248.

Jack Barry, with the Red Sox, is batting .216.

Stuffy McInnis, with the Mackmen, is batting .183.

There is a saying that is supposed to run something like this: "United we stand; divided we fall." That might be revised to read: "United we bat over .300; divided we drop back below .250."

For it is a remarkable occurrence, incident or episode that not one of the old Mackian infield is batting .270, two months after the season has opened.

Only one of the quartet is over .250, and the average of the four is down around .225.

Knowing all the quaint and sudden upsets connected with baseball, this turn is the strangest of them all. For there isn't a man in the bunch who is yet 30; there isn't a one of them who isn't taking fine care of himself; there isn't an entry from the lot who isn't hustling his best and drawing down big money for the job.

Yet here is the answer—a combined batting average of .225 for Stuffy McInnis, Frank Baker, Eddie Collins and Jack Barry! And this after two months' play. There are still one or two things in the span of this game that lie beyond the philosophy and dope of all who follow its winding wake. And this is one of them.

Sir: Can you give me the rest of that quotation from Shakespeare which begins, "Cowards die many times before their death," etc.? You quoted part of it some time ago.—H. R. H.

Cowards die many times before their deaths;
The valiant never taste of death but once;
Of all the wonders that I yet have heard,
It seems to me most strange that men should fear,
Seeing that death, a necessary end,
Will come when it will come.

DECANNIERE, WITH SIX WINS AND ONE DEFEAT, IS AT TOP.

Kahler Is Titular Leader, While Hughes and Fittery Have Been Nicked for Earned Runs Leaders.

Pitching records of the Pacific Coast League for the games up to and including those of Sunday, June 18, place Frank Decanniere, of Vernon, as the leading twirler with six wins and one defeat. George Kahler, of Los Angeles, still has his 1.000 per cent, but he had worked only two contests.

Wynn Noyes, of Portland, is the real sensation of the past week because of his four wins against Vernon. He now stands 11 victories and five defeats and has been responsible for but 39 runs. "Long Tom" Hughes, of the Salt Lake Bees, has been responsible for more runs than any other pitcher in the circuit. Exactly 57 runs have been charged to him while his teammate, Paul Fittery, is running him a close race, just one run behind.

Following are the records up to and including the matches of last Sunday:

BARTHOLEMY VISITS PORTLAND

Tacoma Catcher Takes Advantage of Postponement to Come Home.

Al Bartholemy, star catcher of the Tacoma Northwestern League team, arrived in Portland late yesterday afternoon to visit his folks. There was no game in Tacoma yesterday, so he left there at noon and will leave Portland early this morning, getting to Tacoma in time to get in the fray against Great Falls this afternoon.

Bart is brown as the proverbial berry. He says that the Tigers have an evenly balanced aggregation. Bill Leard is managing the team, and Russ Hall has converted himself into an "honest to goodness" magnate. All Marse Russ does nowadays is look after the financial end of the game. Bart says both are dandy fellows, and that every member of the team is pulling together and should land a pennant.

The Portland boy is doing most all of the catching since "Skipper" Roberts was released. Bart has been pounding the ball hard in the last few games.

C. K. HENRY WINS CASE

SUPREME COURT HOLDS FRAUD IS SHOWN IN PROPERTY DEAL.

For Fourth Time Since 1911 Case of Service & Wright Lumber Company vs. Sumpter Valley Is Reversed.

SALEM, Or., June 20.—(Special.)—Declaring that fraud had been clearly established, the Supreme Court in the case of James B. Bradshaw against the Provident Trust Company, respondents, and Charles K. Henry, appellant, today reversed the decree of Circuit Judge Davis, of Multnomah County. The opinion was written by Justice Bean.

According to records of the case, the Provident Trust Company conveyed to Mr. Henry and his wife a large amount of suburban property in payment for the company's bonds totaling $94,607.50, which Mr. Henry held. Included in the property transferred was a tract upon which James B. Bradshaw held a mortgage for $10,000. Mr. Henry contended that the officials of the company, unknown to him, inserted a clause in the conveyance making him responsible for the payment of the $10,000 mortgage. Upon discovery of the clause, which had been inserted, Mr. Henry alleged fraud, and in his opinion today reversing the judgment of the lower court, Justice Bean declared that the company officials "slipped one over" on Mr. Henry.

For the fourth time since November, 1911, the Supreme Court today passed upon the case of the Service & Wright Lumber Company against the Sumpter Valley Railway Company, appellant, when in an opinion by Justice Bean the original judgment for $3000 obtained five years ago was reversed and the case sent back for a new trial. In today's opinion Justice Burnett dissented. Since the case has been before the Supreme Court, Justices Benson, McBride, Burnett and Bean have passed on its various phases.

Other decisions were:

In the matter of the guardianship of David Troy, incompetent, Deliah Beem et al., appellants, vs. R. C. May, guardian, appealed from Union County; opinion by Justice Harris, motion to recall mandate denied.

Peerless Pacific Company, appellant, vs. W. H. Rodgers, et al.; from Marion County, involving a mechanic's lien; opinion by Justice Bean; Circuit Judge Galloway reversed.

Motion for rehearing was denied in Oregon Lumber Company vs. East Fork Irrigation Company; motion to dismiss was denied in State vs. Goodall.
