

ORPET HEARS LOVE TOLD IN LETTERS

Alleged Slayer of Marion Lambert Sits With Head Bowed During Ordeal.

MOTHER VISIBLY MOVED

Illinois Courtroom Crowded to Listen to Reading of 22 Missives to Former Sweetheart Alleging True Love.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., June 22.—William Orpet, charged with the murder of his former sweetheart, Marion Lambert, underwent the most trying ordeal of his trial today, when attorney David R. Cochrane, assisting in the prosecution, read 22 of his love letters written to Marion. The 22 remaining ones will be read tomorrow, after which the state will rest its case.

During the presentation of evidence bearing more directly on the charge of murder the defendant sat with his head only slightly bent and was quick to return a resentful glare at any of the curious ones who stared at him, but during the reading of his letters he sat with his head bowed and one hand shading his eyes from all observers, even those who sat closest to him.

The missives cover a period of a year and number 44 in all. They were written from Madison, Wis., where Orpet was attending the University, to Marion at Lake Forest.

The missives given the jury today were love letters only. They told of an infatuated boy pleading for more letters from Marion, seeking warmer expressions from her of the love which he alternately claimed or doubted.

She called him "dear" and he wanted to be called "dearest." He begged her to write oftener, cut his classes to reach the postbox in the early morning and spoke of his distress when the latter had nothing for him from her.

Although the text of the letters was published week by week in the newspapers, and was visibly moved at the passages where her son spoke of his anxious waiting for the letters.

INTERVENTION IS URGED

Senator Works Brings Mexican Crisis Before Senate.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Discussion of the Mexican situation was precipitated in the Senate today by Senator Works, of California, who called up his resolution to authorize intervention in Mexico, and gave notice that unless the foreign relations committee acted soon he would move to take the matter out of its hands.

The California Senator said he did not want to bring on debate at this time, but that action should not be further delayed.

"I feel that the time has come now when this matter should not be left exclusively in the hands of the executive branch of the Government," he said. "Some action must now be taken by Congress. I think it exceedingly important if we are forced to enter Mexico that we should do so with a clear declaration by Congress as to our purposes and intentions."

Chairman Stone replied that his committee had taken no action and that he was not prepared to say what it would do.

F. P. WALSH IS INVITED

Labor Council Wants Kansan for Labor Day Address.

Frank P. Walsh, a Kansan city, Mo., known for his work as chairman of the Federal Commission on Industrial Relations, is to be invited to come to Portland and make the Labor day address, according to action taken at the regular meeting of the Labor Council last night.

The council went on record as favoring a "good, old-fashioned" Labor day celebration, including a parade and programme of addresses and music.

The meeting was principally taken up with the working out of the plans for the carrying out of an extensive campaign of opposition to the Chamber of Commerce in its recently announced policy favoring the open shop.

Resolutions were also adopted for carrying out an extensive organization campaign in the city, the purpose being to organize new unions and to bring as many as possible of the workers of the city into the unions already formed.

SENTENCE IS UNIQUE

DELIVERYMAN TO PAY PENALTY FOR DRINKING ABSINTHE.

Enlistment Causes Labor Shortage, So W. Havens Will Work and Pass Five Sundays in Jail.

The rigors of martial times were felt in Municipal Court yesterday and as a result Walter Havens, driver of a bakery delivery automobile, will serve a five-day sentence on five successive Sundays.

Havens admitted that one drink of absinthe and the effects of that fastidious drink, were responsible for his being found at Montana and Fremont, asleep, oblivious to the fact that his auto had run away with him, and plunged into a fence. Patrolman P. R. Johnson found him by the wayside and yesterday morning Acting Municipal Judge Storer levied the sentence.

The proprietor of the bakery for which Havens works, appeared yesterday afternoon in Municipal Court and made his protest to Judge Langenshuth who had resumed the bench. He had three drivers, he related, when one was summoned on Sunday, and gave the another called East on important business. The third was Havens, and now Havens was the court would see that it was hopeless.

Couldn't some arrangement be made whereby Havens might serve his five-day sentence on Sundays, and serve the bakery's customers on week days? "Certainly," agreed the accommodating Judge, and it was so ordered. For five Sundays to come Mr. Havens will be engaged.

OUTSIDER TO GET PLACE

WILSON SAYS HUGHES' SUCCESSOR NOT IN CONGRESS.

President Realizes Need of Keeping Democrats in Control of Senate. Gregory a Possibility.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 22.—President Wilson, in conference today with Senator Myers, of Montana, intimated quite strongly that he will not go to the Senate or House of Representatives, and he selects a successor to Justice Hughes on the Supreme bench.

Senator Myers called to urge the appointment of Senator Walsh. The President told the Senator he thought there was "plenty of good material outside of Congress," and he thought it poor policy to "take a good man out of Congress to place him on the bench."

The President's statement is taken to mean that he realizes the Democrats will have a hard fight to retain control of the Senate and he does not propose to endanger the party control by transferring any Senator to the Supreme bench.

Attorney-General Gregory discussed with President Wilson for nearly an hour late today the question of Mr. Hughes' successor.
