President, After Conference, Indicates He Will Address Joint Session Soon.

FIELD HEADQUARTERS, Mess, June 26.—According to the correspondent of the Columbus, N. T.—Twenty-three American lives were lost on the battlefield at Carrizal, according to the latest dispatches from General Pershing's front. News of this new loss to the American forces in Mexico is expected to heighten the already strained relations between the United States and Mexico. The Mexican troops, in addition to the occasional raids, have been killing American citizens, and the protests of the American government have been ignored.
