

FINAL PLEA MADE. ADD OF NAVAL BASE

Senator Chamberlain Urged to Back Up Measure Providing Columbia River Site.

LANE BILL UP TOMORROW

Wallace R. Struble Points to Activity of Washington Residents in Behalf of Northern Ports as Spur to Oregonians.

A telegram was sent last night to Senator Chamberlain by Wallace R. Struble, of the Astoria naval base committee, asking him to do all within his power for the Astoria base at the hearing to be conducted tomorrow by the naval affairs committee of the Senate.

Proffer is Accepted. The telegram sent to Senator Chamberlain reads: "Your declaration in telegram of June 3, confirmed by letter of sixth, that you stand for naval base at mouth of Columbia River and will do all in your power for same" is accepted in good faith.

The telegram sent to Senator Chamberlain reads: "Your declaration in telegram of June 3, confirmed by letter of sixth, that you stand for naval base at mouth of Columbia River and will do all in your power for same" is accepted in good faith.

All Urged to Give Aid. "The time has now arrived when the Oregon Senators can verify their promises made at various times and to many of their constituents regarding the Columbia naval base measure," said Mr. Struble.

19 GRADUATE AT ST. ROSE. GIRLS IN WHITE APPLAUDED ON ENTERING DECORATED HALL.

Scholarship standing is that of Pacific School Ninth Grade—Miss Pearl Tracy is valedictorian.

"Self-conquest is the Greatest Victory" is the motto of the 19 girls who graduated yesterday at the commencement exercises of St. Rose School, at East Twentieth and East Irving streets, conducted by the Sisters of Good Shepherd.

There was a profusion of roses, and a large American flag was draped over the entrance to the hall. The graduates were all dressed in simple white gowns of inexpensive material, and were received with applause as they came into the hall.

The graduates were from the ninth grade, corresponding to the same grade in the public schools, their scholarship standing being reported as excellent. They are: Bernice Scott, Bertha Marie Payne, Chloe Florence Flower, Daisy Marie Hoover, Edna Rose Hishop, Edna Marie Ferry, Eleanor Mary Knicker, Florence Irene Block, Hazel C. Walker, Irene Hester Briggs, Leah Pearl Tracy, Mabel Mae Wharton, Melissa Thelma Oadcock, Mildred Leona Shrake, Mildred Winona Werrill, Mirb Woodall, Myrtle Anna Johann, Pauline Anna Stillwell, Ruth Marie Ward.

SOLICITUDE LEADS TO JAIL. Sailor Misses $65 and "Friends" Are Arrested.

Charles Swanson is a sailor, just a few days on shore from an Australian voyage, and the readily made friends with Max Stenler and "Bob" Bolt. They accompanied him on Saturday evening to the Terminus Hotel, Third and Everett streets, and proved solicitous of his comfort. So much so, in fact, that City Detectives Hammerly, La Salle, Cahill and Trevelyan, on their party yesterday afternoon on an investigation charge.

When the sailor awoke yesterday morning his friends of the previous evening were absent, as was also $65 in currency. The detectives say they secured a complete confession from Stenler and Bolt and recovered $29.

LIEUTENANT IN THIRD INFANTRY, O. N. G., WHO WEDS WHILE CALL TO SERVICE IN MEXICO IMPENDS.

LIEUTENANT DENNIS C. PILLSBURY AND MRS. ETHEL TROUTON PILLSBURY.

OFFICER IS WEDDED

Miss Ethel Trouton Becomes Guardsman's Bride.

CALL TO ARMS HASTENS

Ceremony is Set Ahead, as Bridegroom is Under Orders to Go to Mexican Border With Oregon Troops.

Notes of far bugles from the Mexican border minkled in fancy with the organ strains of Lohengrin yesterday afternoon, when Lieutenant Dennis C. Pillsbury, of the Third Oregon Infantry, under the call to military service, was married to Miss Ethel Trouton at the First Presbyterian Church.

The wedding was to have been later, but the precipitation of the call for the mobilizing of the troops, and the imminence of Lieutenant Pillsbury's departure for the south, decided the young couple to hasten the ceremony.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Pillsbury went directly to the home of the bride's parents at 155 East Yamhill. The bridegroom will report back at Camp Wilbycombe today, and will be subject to call to the Mexican service as soon as his regiment is mustered in and ordered to the front.

Lieutenant Pillsbury is battalion quartermaster of the second battalion, Third Infantry, Oregon National Guard. He is a son of Captain A. B. Pillsbury, a pioneer river steambot man, and a grandson of the late Mrs. C. A. Coburn.

LODGE TO GIVE SHOW

Shriners Have Unique Programme for Heilig.

DANCE WILL BE ON STAGE

Band Concert and $500 Feet of Film of Portland and Scenic Vicinity to Be Feature of 2-Night Entertainment.

Wednesday and Thursday nights of this week are expected to be marked by attendance records at the Heilig Theatre. The band will play in the house will be directed by the nobles of Al Kader Temple, who have invited Portland to be present to the full extent of the seating capacity.

The Shriners are to present a distinct novelty in local entertainment. At 8:15 each night the band will open the entertainment with several selections. The second feature of the programme will be the showing of 2,000 feet of film taken in Portland and the scenic vicinity. The recent visit of the Shriners to the scenic spot of the Columbia Highway, with their rallying frolic at Multnomah Falls; pictures of the Rose Festival drill on Multnomah Island; street scenes of the city, and other features of local interest will be shown.

In the Shriners' pilgrimage section, you'll see lots of folk you know—dignitaries who have strangely forsaken their dignities.

All those who attend the entertainment will be urged to join in the dancing. The film will be taken by Shriners next month to Buffalo, when their delegates attend the Imperial Council Session in that city. The pictures will be shown on the screens in that city as effective and beautiful propaganda in creating sentiment for the Imperial Council of Portland for the Imperial Council Session of 1915.

RESPONSIBILITY IS DIVIDED

Old Council Charged With Improvements Accepted by Commission.

PORTLAND, June 25.—(To the Editor)—In a newspaper of recent date appeared an article headed "Sewer Improvements Confiscate Homes of Small Taxpayers." Readers of this article may perhaps infer that in recent years there has been a decided increase in burdens on property through unwarranted special assessments and taxes and that Commission Government may to some extent be responsible. It is, therefore, of interest to review the records of improvement expenditures in recent years. Commission Government began July 1, 1913.

MAN LURED TO ARREST

C. A. PARVIN IS HELD ON BAD CHECK CHARGE.

Portland Resident to be Taken to Ontario, Or., After Being Summoned to Jail by Telephone.

City Detective Tom Swennes called a telephone number, and smiled as he awaited a response.

"I'll bet you can't find him with that stuff," asserted one of his colleagues in the bureau, but Mr. Swennes was already opening amiable discourse.

"Hello," he greeted. "Is this Mr. Parvin's cell? Well, this is Detective Headquarters. Come right over, we have some important information for you. Alright, goodbye."

A short time later C. A. Parvin entered headquarters and was greeted by the affable Detective Swennes, who presented him with a document.

"Here's your important information," said the officer, and the astounded Parvin could only agree that it was, indeed, of importance. The document was a warrant for his arrest, on the charge of securing $46 by false pretenses through the passage of worthless checks on the Security State Bank of Woodburn.

Sheriff Ben J. Brown, of Malheur county, is expected here today to take the prisoner back to Ontario.

Parvin has been employed as a ranch foreman near Woodburn until recently, but made his residence in the city at 312 East Forty-third street.

O. A. C. CLUB PLANS FUN

"GET-TOGETHER" FESTIVAL TO BE AT OAKS PARK.

With 300 Members, Portland Ex-Students' Organization Expects to Have Rousing Time.

The O. A. C. Club of Portland will celebrate a "get-together" festival at Oaks Park Wednesday night. There are 350 members of the club and the picnic promises to be one of the largest events on their year's calendar. The members will meet at Oaks Park at 6 o'clock and have a picnic supper under the trees. Here songs, toasts and stories will be enjoyed.

After supper there will be contests, races and a programme. Many of the girls who were members of the glee club in school, and students who were orchestra and band members, will be there to help make the picnic a lively one.

The last part of the evening will be devoted to dancing in the pavilion at Oaks Park. Dancing will continue until late at night and the party will close with the singing of old college songs.
