command, under Major Carle Abrams, at once began to pack up.

They were excused in consequence from camp routine and from participation in the parade on the rifle range this afternoon which was reviewed by Major-General J. Franklin Bell, U. S. A.

Thousands Visit Camp.

Thousands of visitors were in camp today. They came by hundreds on every train, by automobile, motorcycle, motor truck and even, in some cases, on foot.

Every train was packed. Automobiles were parked along the road for half a mile outside the camp.

The organizations taking part in the parade were the First Battalion, comprising companies A, B, C, and D; the Second Battalion, composed of companies E, F, G, and H; and Battery A, and Troop A, dismounted.

Colonel McLaughlin commanded in person. He handled his men skillfully despite the condition of the parade grounds which made parade evolutions difficult.

Colonel McLaughlin, Lieutenant-Colonel John L. May, Regimental Adjutant Clarence R. Hotchkiss, and other officers, later joined General Bell and Adjutant-General White in reviewing the troops.

Later, undeterred by the drizzling rain, thousands attended divine services conducted by Chaplain Gilbert and as many as had umbrellas raised them but the others stood out in the wet and listened anyway.

The Oregon Militia organizations mustered into the Federal service are entitled to the same pay and allowances as provided for the regular Army, Captain Williams said tonight.

Pay and allowances began on the day the companies reported at their home stations for mobilization.

Military officers below the grade of Major who are required to be mounted, and who furnish their own mounts and trappings for the use of use, will be allowed the additional pay authorized.

General Bell made a short talk at the officers' club following the parade, to officers of the Oregon troops here. General Bell urged them to enforce discipline strictly, but kindly, to do at all times that which they thought to be right, and to be thoroughly loyal to their superiors.

It was a fatherly talk from an old soldier and campaigner to younger men, some of whom are just beginning active military service.

NEBRASKA TROOPS TO ENTRAIN

Orders Sent to Rush all Available Forces to Border at Once.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 25.—Adjutant-General Hall tonight received orders from the War Department to rush all troops to the border at once. The Fremont signal corps and the first battalion of the Fourth Regiment will entrain tomorrow night.

RIDDLE TEACHERS CHOSEN

Fall Semester Will Open About Second Week in September.

RIDDLE, Or., June 25.—(Special.)—The election of teachers for the Riddle Public Schools is now complete for 1917. The following teachers have been engaged: Principal, Carl Bronson; assistant high school teacher, Miss Gora Fummel; of Grants Pass; seventh and eighth grade teacher, W. L. Smith; of Sutherlin; fifth and sixth grade, Miss Irene; of Grants Pass; and fourth grade, Miss Bertha Hopkins, Roseburg, Or. The primary work will be taught by Blanche E. Hildreth, Principal Bronson is teaching his fourth year in the schools of Riddle.

G. W. Murphy, of Washington state, was recently appointed as school supervisor of South Douglas County. The schools of Riddle will commence about the second week of September.

Alleged Horse Slayer Released.

ROSEBURG, Or., June 25.—(Special.)—Following a preliminary hearing Friday, before Justice of the Peace J. M. Martin, at Myrtle Creek, E. S. J. McAllister, charged with shooting two horses belonging to T. R. Dunnivan, was released. District Attorney Neuner stated after the hearing that the evidence against Mr. McAllister would be submitted to the Grand Jury next month. McAllister is currently in prison in Portland, but now is engaged in farming near Myrtle Creek.

Thousands of Visitors Listen to Major W. S. Gilbert's Praise of Oregon National Guard Responding to Call.

CAMP WITCOMBE, Clackamas, Or., June 25.—(Special.)—The first religious services held in camp were conducted under most impressive circumstances. Major W. S. Gilbert, Chaplain of the Third Infantry, preached on "The Heart of the Nation." He had thousands in his audience.

A flag-draped pulpit had been set up on the parade in front of the camp headquarters tent. The first and second battalions of the Third Infantry and Battery A, Field Artillery, and Troop A, Cavalry, marched in from the rifle range, where they had just been reviewed by Major-General J. Franklin Bell, United States Army, and formed in masses and close columns in front and along the sides of the pulpit space.

Behind them stood thousands of visitors who had come to the camp to visit friends and relatives before the Oregon troops went to the front.

The occasion was made even more solemn by the absence from the service of the Third Battalion, which had received orders earlier in the day to prepare to entrain for the border at once.

Prayer Opens Service.

The service was opened with a prayer by the Chaplain, followed by his sermon. Chaplain Gilbert said:

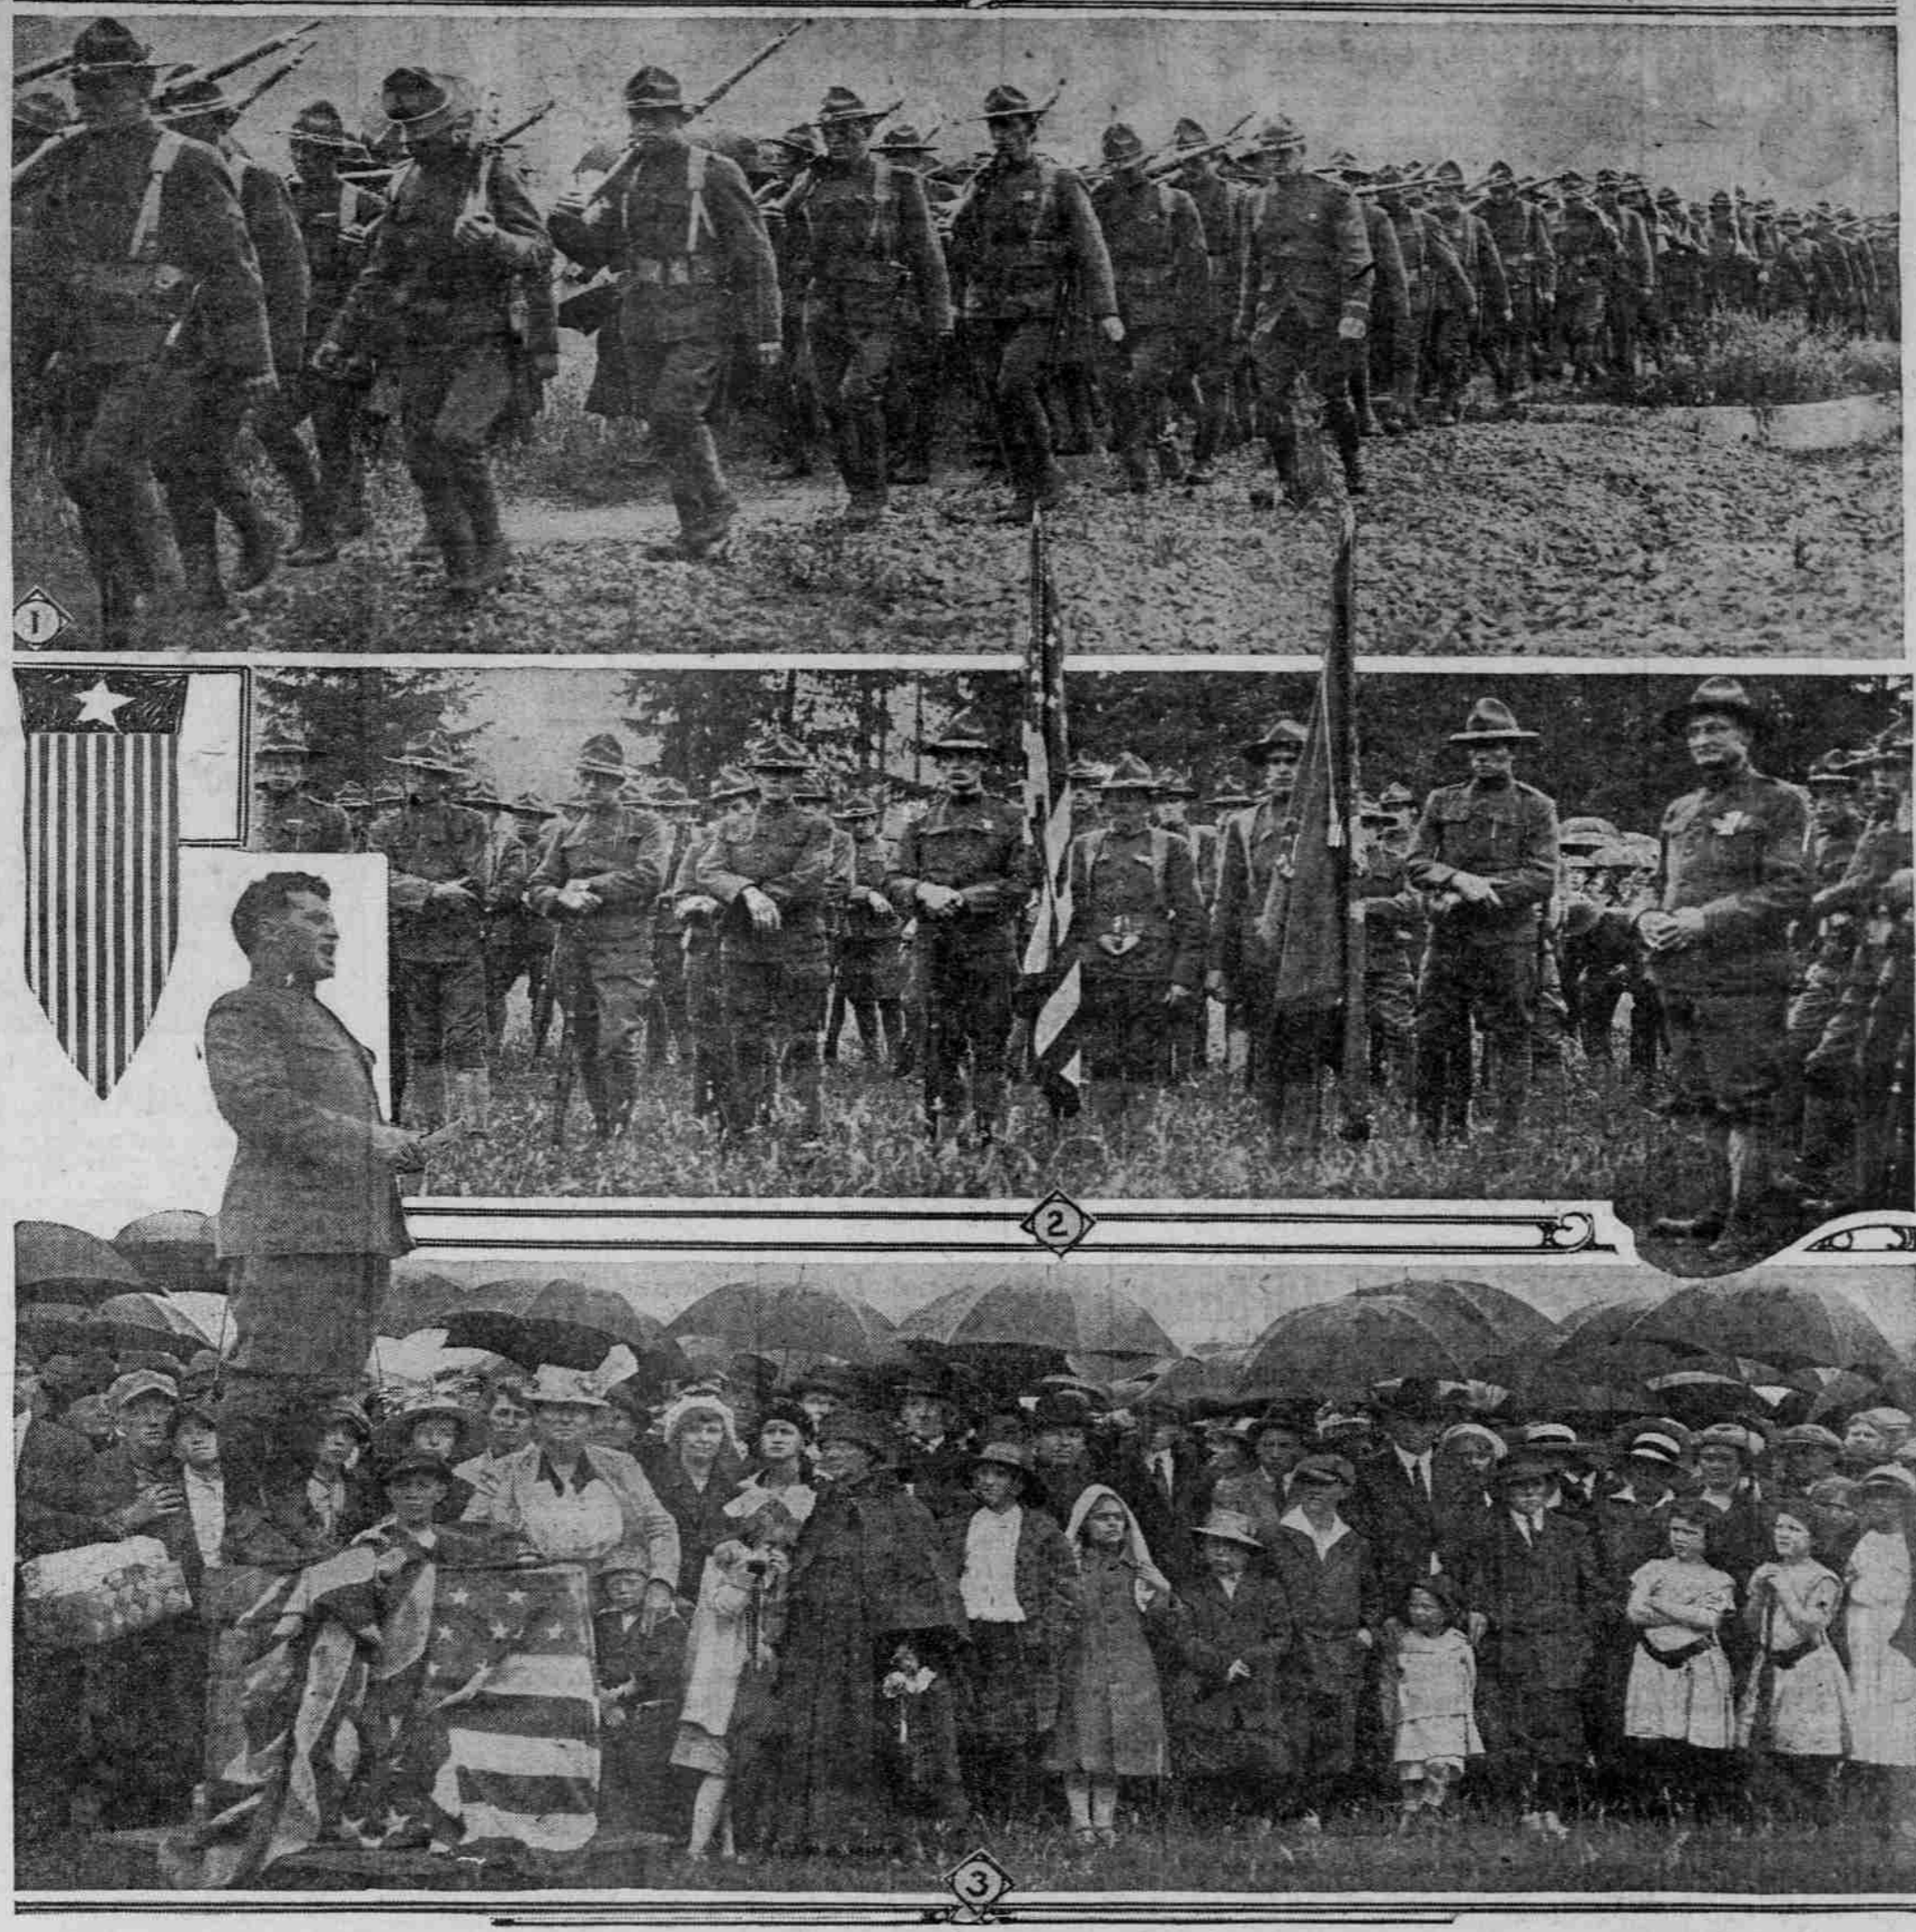

"The Nation's heart is stirred today as it has not been stirred for 18 years. The people have known that this present crisis would come sooner or later and for a full year and more there has been manifest in the Nation a deep seriousness and a stirring of the National spirit.

Every moral law has pointed to our responsibility to Mexico. The Monroe Doctrine has borne with it a great responsibility: the distress and helplessness of Mexico have called loudly upon us. We have no war with Mexico. We do not cover her territory, but we are at war today against the bandits, marauders, robbers, oppressors and misleaders of the Hispanic country.

The heart of the Nation has heard this call of Mexico and even at great cost and sacrifice has determined to do its duty for that neighboring people.

The heart of the Nation is right. Many had thought America's soul was sordid, dead, that all our interest was commercial, that the Nation's heart conformed to the market, that duty was a lost art and that the sturdy spirit of our fathers had deteriorated.

Now, once the crisis has come, the awakening of the heart of the Nation is indeed a thrilling epoch in our National life. At once upon the call to the colors our whole Nation has arisen. In every state of the Union troops are gathering and every village and hamlet is sending her sons to the Nation's call. We today are a part of a great National heart-throb.

German Tries Out All Records.

BERLIN, May 25.—The authorities, in conjunction with the customs officials, have established a "gramophone record testing headquarters" in Berlin. Each and every record that is to be sent outside of Germany must be permitted to pass the border. It is presumed that the measure has been taken to make sure that spies shall not, by the unique method of records, get valuable information across the line.

ITCHING BLISTERS ON BOY'S HEAD

Got Worse. Affected Ears, Neck and Face. Scratched Day and Night. Terribly Disfigured.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"When four months old my boy suffered with blisters and a kind of scaly skin on his head. I got some medicine but it didn't seem to improve but got worse and his ears, neck and face were affected. He scratched day and night the itching was so intense, and we had to keep his hands pinned the whole time. The skin was sore and inflamed, and he didn't have a hair on his head. It was just a cap of sore eruptions, and his face was terribly disfigured.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"He got so bad we had to keep a mask on his face. The trouble lasted for months, when a lady told my husband about Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and we got them. The third day I noticed a big improvement and in two weeks my boy was healed." (Signed) Mrs. H. A. Thiele, 348 6th St., Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 25, 1915.

THOUSANDS OF SICK WOMEN

Helped Every Year by Common Sense Suggestions Given Free by The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co.

For forty years women suffering from all kinds of female ills have been writing the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. of Lynn, Mass., for advice.

Thus they receive common sense suggestions drawn from a vast volume of experience, and thousands of sick women have been saved from untold suffering, as letters like the following clearly show:

Newark, Ohio.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman. Your Sanative Wash is just the thing to overcome female weakness. I have told young mothers as well as older ones about your remedies, and what they have done for me. I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved my life, as my health was very bad when I wrote you, but now I can do any work and have not had a sick day since I began taking your remedies. I keep the Compound and Liver Pills on hand all the time."—Mrs. Geo. THOMPSON, 24 Sherwood Court, Newark, Ohio.

DUFUR COLT SHOW HELD

FESTIVITIES FOLLOW ARRIVAL OF VISITING DELEGATIONS.

Attendance of More Than 2000 Sees the Largest Collection of Animals Assembled in Wasco County.

DUFUR, Or., June 25.—(Special.)—The first annual Dufur colt show was held Saturday with more than 2000 entries, and witnessed by about 2000 persons. The parade was formed at 9 o'clock, in charge of Mayor Knowles and aides, headed by the Maupin band, and followed by 280 horses, jacks and mules.

The Dalles sent a large delegation with a band and 50 automobiles, which was met at the entrance to the city by Mayor Knowles and aides. They were escorted through the main street, after which they joined the parade. Immediately after the parade Farmer Smith, of the O-W. R. & N. Company, addressed the assemblage. At noon basket dinners were enjoyed at the Dufur City Park, with free coffee and cream furnished. During the day band concerts were given by Foida's Band, of The Dalles, and by the Maupin Band.

The silver cup given by the Oregon Horse Breeders' Association for the best grade suckling colt was won by a colt owned by Roy Bolton, of Boyd. The silver cups presented by the people of The Dalles were won by the following: Best grade colt over 1 year and under 2 by a colt owned by Grant Bolton, of Boyd; best pure-bred colt, by a colt owned by William Hadrill, of The Dalles; best public colt, by a colt owned by Glavey Bros., of Dufur; draft team, by a team owned by Melvin Sigman, of Dufur. Ribbons were given to first, second and third winners in all classes. About $400 in free service awards were donated by stallion owners. Professor R. E. Reynolds, of Oregon Agricultural College, did the judging in all classes. This was the largest collection of horses and mules ever seen in Wasco County.

Drink or Drug Habits Destroyed in Few Days

The Modern Neal Treatment for the drink habit strikes at the cause of the craving, the accumulated poison from alcohol. The Neal Remedies eliminate the poison and neutralize its poisonous effects in three days.

The Neal Remedies are harmless vegetable compounds, administered internally—no hypodermic injections.

Opium, morphine, cocaine and other narcotic drugs are like alcohol, accumulative poisons. Remove the poison from the body tissues and you destroy the habit.

The Neal Treatment for drugs requires from ten days to three weeks to get results. There is no restraint and no heroic, unpleasant methods used.
