Portland Planning Big Special Trade Excursion.

TWO JUNKETS DETERMINED

Representatives of Chamber of Commerce to Attend Celebration in August and Large Number to Visit Later.

Plans for Portland's excursion to Marshfield are rapidly reaching compiction.

While the trade and commerce bureau of the Portland Chamber of Commerce will be represented at the gigantic celebration to be held at Marshtield August 24, 25 and 25, the forces of the Chamber will be conserved for the big trade excursion that will spend a week around Coos Bay and along the coast early in September.

The August celebration will be a jubilee over the completion of the Williamette-Pacific Hallroad, giving Portland direct communication with a tremendously wealthy country. Salem, Eugene, Albany and many other Valley cities will send their marching organizations, while Portland will probably stand on a select representation of leading citizens.

It is plauned by Nathan Strause, chairman of the bureau, to make the

The Chamber intends that its train shall stop also at Mapleton, Florence, Gardiner, North Bend and Coquille, and that plenty of time shall be allowed jobbers and wholesalers for looking over the country and getting acquainted with its business men.

"We will have a good representation at the celebration," said George E. Hardy, executive secretary, "but it is apparent that the Marshfleid people will have so much going on in the way of amusements, banquets and side trips that the serious purpose of Portland's visit may be sidetracked.

"It is therefore plain that Portland owes a bigger and a finer duty to the section around Coos Bay, Portland must take time to study with them the things that will lead to a closer affiliation between the communities."

Automobile Is Classed as Dangerous Weapon-Cash Settlement Made Out of Court.

The indictment against Charles B. Pfahler was dismissed by Circuit Judge McGinn yesterday. Mr. Pfahler was secretary to the late Bishop Scadding, and confessed to the destruction of the records of the bishop following his death. He was indicted for "burning the books of a corporation."

The dismissal was on the recommendation of Deputy District Attorney Hammersily. It was held that the ends of justice had been satisfied in the confession signed by Mr. Pfahler, and the dismissal was asked on the disinclination of the complaining witness. Bishop W. T. Sumner, to prosecute.

A civil settlement, of which the court could not take judicial notice, was made by Mr. Warriner with Mrs. Beckman for the payment of $2000. A damage suit against C. H. District Attorney Evans made no recommendation in the case except that Mr. Warriner not be let off with a fine. He did not recommend that Mr. Warriner be paroled, but on the other hand he offered no objections to the granting of a parole. The entire matter was left to the discretion of the court

The accident which resulted in the prosecution of Mr. Warriner, occurred April 9, when the Warriner automobile crashed into the motorcycle ridden by Henry Beckman and his wife. Mr. Beckman was not injured, but his wife's face was badly torn. The distiguring scars are permanent. It was proved that Mr. Warriner had been drinking and had liquor in his automobile. There was evidence presented at the trial tending to show that the autoist had approached the motorcyclists at an unreasonable speed.

John F. Logan conducted the defense and the prosecution was handled by Deputy District Attorneys Collier and Hindman.

A large number of friends and members of the fire bureau and city officials attended the memorial, which is an annual affair.

The party left from the City Hall at 3:30 o'clock, going in fire machines to the cemetery. A fire truck was sent ahead with a load of flowers and set pieces. A. G. Long. chairman of the board of trustees of the David Campbell memorial fund, conducted the services. He paid a fitting tribute to the memory of the late chief, after the grave had been decorated. Dr. J. H. Boyd, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, offered prayer.

Among those who took part in the services were Mayor Albee, City Commissioner Bigelow, Fire Chief Dowell, Mrs. David Campbell, all the battalion fire chiefs and representatives of the various fire districts.
