Chat No. 48

This is the last week of the Ladies' Columbian Orchestra at Oaks Park. Music-lovers who have not heard this excellent band of talented musicians should avail themselves of the opportunity and come to the park either today, tomorrow or Sunday afternoon. Their closing concerts will be the bisgest of their season's engagement. On Sunday afternoon the programme will be a rousing double-header, with both the Columbia Ladies and Knight's Troubadours, a breezy, tuneful company, who will appear in a series of popular musical comedies. This merry company of fun-makers have an unlimited repertoire of the latest New York songs, dances, comical sketches and benutiful costumes.

July 4 a special holiday pro-sketches and beautiful costumes.

July i a special holiday programme will be given. Come out and spend the day with us. Bring along your lunch basket, the family friends. Nothing is merrier than an old-fashioned Fourth of July spread. You'll find no better place to entertain your friends on Independence day than Oaks Park.

Russell Smith Reaches Semi-Finals at Spokane-Wilhelm Loses to Ford.

WAVERLEY WINS DAVIS CUP

Ford and Smith Picked to Reach Finals-Miss Agnes Ford and Mrs. Robert Wilson, Both of Seattle, to Play for Title.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. SPOKANE, Wash., June 29.—(Special.)—Rudolph Wilhelm, of the Portland Golf Club, was eliminated from the Pacific Northwest golf tournament Paul Ford, of Seattle, today and the 1916 title now rests between Paul Ford, E. J. Barker, of Butte; O. W. Potter, of Seattle, and Russell Smith, today, of Waverley. Young Ford and Russell Smith appear to be the next bests to show in the finals. Ford's edge over Wilhelm today was 8 up and 2 to play despite ratic driving and wobbly putting proved too big a handicap.

Russell Smith won his game from J. J. Dempsey, of Tacoma, in a 2 and 1 finish. It required a 2 on the 17th green to clinch matters.

Ford meets E. J. Barker, of Butte today in the semi-finals, 26 holes, and Russell Smith is alleged against O. W. Russell Smith is aligned against O. W. Potter, of Seattle. Potter put him out of the Oregon championships at Port-land three years ago.

Title Goes to Scattle.

Another prime surprise today was the elimination of the Northwest women's champion, Mrs. T. B. Curran, of Tacoma, by Mrs. Robert Wilson, of Scattle, Miss Agnes Ford, also of Scattle, defeated Mrs. George Mayes, of Portland, in the other semi-finals, so Miss Ford and Mrs. Wilson will settle the championship between themselves. pionship between themselves.

Waverley Country Club's victory over the Seattle Golf Club guartet in the Davis cup competition was an addi-tional feature of the afternoon. This tional feature of the afternoon. This match, for possession of the magnificent trophy presented by C. H. Davis, Jr., of Portland, attracted a great amount of attention. Russell Smith and C. H. Davis, Jr., of Waverley, opposed Paul Ford and J. H. Ballinger, of Seattle, best ball of the four to count one point. Waverley finished two points up, due mainly to some wonderful golf by Russell Smith, who scored a two on the pinth and threes on the a two on the minth and threes on the 16th, 17th and 18th, two of them four Waverley Team Wins Match. Guy Standifer and Forest Watson ran up three additional points on George Tilden and O. W. Potter, ao Waverley's total margin was five points. This competition will be an annual feature of the Northwest tourneys haveniter.

A San Francisco writer, discussing one of the Oaks-Angels games last week, said: "What little interest there was in the Oaks early in the season now has entirely disappeared." How is that for the frigid fist? Plainly, the San Oaks as the Giants' fans are for

Keene, pitcher for the Salem team of the Inter-City League, will be given a trial by Portland on its next trip home. The youngster has a great fast ball, and as he is a college man, is just the type Walt McCredle is looking for. He plans on entering Oregon Agricultural College this Fall, and if he falls to make good with the Mackmen will certainly fill Bicky Williams' shoes for the Aggles next Spring. All of this Hugo

The Portland magnate is one of the owners of the mud baths. If the roads are not too muddy, they will make the trip by automobile. The intention is to remain Judge McCredie has asked the again. Judge McCredle has asked the Coast League magnates to hold their annual Fall gathering at the resort, for by that time the hotel and all the frills which go with a resort of that kind will be completed. It is thought that the convention will be held there.

The Philadelphia Athletics after their disastrous performances of late would lead one to believe that they could not beat any team. A few days ago they found one that they could trim, however. Counie Mack's crew stopped in Grand Rapids on an off day and played an exhibition game with Bill Essick's Central League team. It took Connie Mack's band 10 innings to beat the aggregation of the former Portland pitch er, but it was done, by a score of 2 to 0.

Wille Mitchell, now with Detroit, will join the club next Tuesday at Salt over to Toronto, has been shifted to Hartford, in the Eastern League.

Rowdy Elliott used Otis Crandall on the knoll again Wednesday and won from San Francisco, 8 to 0. From the frequency that Elliott is working Crandall, one would imagine that Rowdy is trying to work the veteran out of the league. You know, 'tis said that Crandal may be named manager of the Oaks, and maybe Rowdy is looking after Rowdy's interests.

Bill Lindsey, former Beaver third-sacker, released by Birmingham to make room for Tex McDonald, has been acting as substitute umpire in the Southern League and may get a regu-lar appointment.

Jack Dalton is back in the game with San Francisco and the Seals now expect to climb to the top. The San Fran-cisco club has installed mechanical announcers in its park, similar to those that have been in use in the park of the Chicago White Sox.

CHAMPIONS ARE ON RISE

PHILADELPHIA PLASTERS TWO DEFEATS ON GIANTS.

In First Game Only 27 Giants Face Rixey, While in Second Chief Shows Old Form.

NEW YORK, June 29 .- The Philadelphia champions checked their slump today, when, after suffering five straight defeats, they won both sections of a double-header from New York, 4 to 0, and 4 to 2. In the first game Rixey pitched rethe finals. Ford's edge over Wilhelm today was 8 up and 2 to play despite the fact that most of the golfing wise-acres were backing Wilhelm to win. The Portland expert plainly was off his game. He was short on his putting all day and, on the second nine, drove into the rough four consecutive times. In the second game the veteran Chief Bender, hero of five world's series victories over the Glants, showed a flash of his old-time form and held the Glants to seven scattered hits. Bancroft virtually won the game for the league champions in the second inning, when he hit a home run with two on bases. Luderus made seven hits in Luderus made seven seven official times at bat in this series before he flied out to Burns in the third inning of the second game.
