DUPLICATES ON GATE

For Second Time in Week, Jupiter Pluvius Halts Angel-Beaver Clash.

DOUBLE-HEADER IS TODAY

First Game to Be Called at 1:30 o'clock—Both Managers Chance and McCredie Lament Losses Caused by Bad Weather.

At Los Angeles—Vernon 1, San Francisco 0. The day game at Los Angeles was called off at 2:00 p. m. because of rain.

Just as the Los Angeles baseball club climbed into the Seward Hotel bus yesterday at 1:30 o'clock and were ready to start for the Vaughn-street grounds and while the Portland players were donning their uniforms, old Jupiter Pluvius declared war on everything that could be bothered by rain.

Old Jupiter kept on firing until 2:40 o'clock, and when he finished Judge Williams in Wallingford and his heroic nephew, Walter, decided that the ball game was better suited for raising ducks than for baseball, and hostilities for the day were suspended.

Consequently, there is another double-header which will have to be played off between Los Angeles and Portland at the Seward Hotel this afternoon.

The first game is scheduled for today and tomorrow and as three are on the docket when the Angels come here again, late in August, the most likely to be played off in the cafeteria City when the Beavers visit there next.

Chance Shies at Wet Field. Frank LeRoy Chance, well-known orange grower of Glendora, Cal., spent the remainder of yesterday afternoon and last night trying to get a good game on the Oregon climate. The Peersless Leader, if he had his way, would never send his team on a ball field on a wet day.

In the Pacific Coast League, where you are allowed to carry only 18 men to be within the players' limit, I can't say that it is good business to play ball if the grounds are slippery and wet," said Chance yesterday. "You are running chances to have a good ball player stove up and perhaps kept out of the game for a week or so."

It is a Saturday Sunday or a holiday, then, all right, to take a chance with the adverse conditions, but on a week day when there are only a few people out, the manager of the Angels has the crafty pilot of Powers' Angelic horse.

Nash to Join Angels. According to "Toots" Weber, secretary of the visiting club, Los Angeles manager George S. Foster has decided to sign Shortstop Nash, of St. Paul, would join the club at Salt Lake Tuesday. As a result, "Shortstop" Nash will be playing for the Cafeteria City skipper, when the Beavers clash with the Seals and Oaks.

Manager Frank Chance of the Angels needed word from President Powers that Shortstop Nash, of St. Paul, would join the club at Salt Lake Tuesday. As a result, "Shortstop" Nash will be playing for the Cafeteria City skipper, when the Beavers clash with the Seals and Oaks.

The first game of the double bill on the bill of fare this afternoon and tomorrow will start promptly at 1:30 o'clock. "Big" Hagaman and Byron Houck for the Beavers are scheduled to oppose George Zabel and Pete Standridge for the Angels in the afternoon. Manager Chance has no doubt that the odds are in good enough shape to warrant his pitching.

Louis Gault will hardly be able to get in the fray today or tomorrow and the present intention of Boss Walters is not to use him until Tuesday morning, when the Beavers clash with the Seals at Oakland. Louis' heel, which was splined by Bunny brief last Saturday, is still sore, and Trainer Clough wishes to give it plenty of time to heal.

Judge McCredie telegraphed Owner Russ Hall, of the Tacoma Tigers, at Butte, Mont., yesterday asking him if he could use Chicks' Eaker, the catcher of the Kirkpatrick team of the Intercity League. Baker has been working out with Portland since the team came home and, although he is not a youngster, Walt McCredie thinks there are six or seven good years of baseball in him. If Russ Hall can use him, McCredie will try to place him elsewhere, as Walt isn't going to take him on the road trip.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 30.—San Francisco hoisted the Coast League championship pennant won last season today and celebrated the event by defeating Oakland 2 to 1. Fanning was in hot water a number of times, but luck was with him. Bodie's sensational hitting added spice to the game. The championship pennant was hoisted with appropriate ceremonies, in which about 300 naval aviators from the Youngster Buena training station participated.

WEST MEETS FATE

Eastern Tennis Champions Are Too Much for Youths.

SENSATIONAL PLAY SEEN

Church and Mathey, in Wonderful Form, Trim Davis and Johns, of California, in 3 Straight Sets for Clay Title.

CLEVELAND, O., June 30.—The East triumphed over the West today when George M. Church, Tenafly, N. J., and Dean Mathey, Cranford, N. J., former Princeton team, retained the doubles championship of the United States on clay courts by defeating Willis E. Davis and Harold Van Dyke Johns, of San Francisco, 7-5, 6-0, 5-1, in the challenge round of the doubles event in the seventh annual National clay court tennis tournament on the courts of the Lakewood Tennis Club.

The champions more than lived up to their reputations. Church, in particular, played spectacular tennis. His exhibitions at the net bordered on the sensational. Mathey played excellent tennis, considering that he has not been on the courts as much as usual this season. The Californians performed cleverly in the first set, but from then on went very erratic.

Conrad B. Doyle, of the Columbia Country Club, Washington, D. C., reached the final round in the men's singles today as tenth seed. His opponent in the final round will be Willis E. Davis. This match will take place tomorrow, will be for the National singles championship, as R. Norris Williams, of Philadelphia, 1915 champion, will defend his title in a challenge round.

Former Portlander's Peculiar Delivery Causes Another Rumpus in Majors.

Carl Mays, former pitcher for the Portland Colts of the North-western League, now chumping for the Boston Red Sox, let Washington down with two hits yesterday, beating that team 6 to 1. During the contest Mays hit McBride, of Washington, with a pitched ball and then McBride proceeded to throw his hat at Carl. In the hostilities that followed, Catcher Agnew, of the Sox, knocked Manager Griffith, of the Senators, down.

During the latter part of last season, Ty Cobb, of Detroit, threw his hat at Mays after nearly being beaten by a pitched ball. Mays has a peculiar underhanded throwing motion which seems to fool opposing batters to such an extent that many times they are unable to get out of the way of an inside ball.

PACIFIC COAST DOUBLES ON Roland Roberts and Teammate Among First Day's Victors.

LONG BEACH, Cal., June 30.—Preliminary matches were played today in the Pacific Coast men's sectional doubles tennis championships which were entered. Interest centered in the appearance of Maurice E. McLoughlin, many times a champion of the Coast, and Ward Dawson, of Los Angeles, a class two player. Thomas C. Bundy, who with McLoughlin held the doubles title three years, did not consider himself to be a serious contender this season and forced McLoughlin to deliver batons to such an extent that he was unable to get out of the way of an inside ball.

San Francisco Tradesmen's In-Terrary is Being Arranged.

Party Will Pass Day in City and Go to Coos Bay for Celebration of "Railway Jubilee."

EUGENE, Or., June 30.—(Special.)—The delegation of between 175 and 200 San Francisco tradesmen will visit Oregon on a trade extension excursion during the month of August. The party will make their first stop in Eugene, according to Henry P. Adams, president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, who is in the city today.

It is planned to continue on to Coquille River points, to visit Eandonon, and start home after participation in the jubilee celebration on the first day at North Bend.

On the return trip stops will be made at Oregon towns south of Eugene. Mr. Adams' mission is in connection with the excursion. He is picking out points of interest for the visitors.
