

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S WATER COLOR COMPETITION

$250 In Cash Prizes to be awarded by The Oregonian for skill shown in reproducing in colors the actual labels represented by the group of advertisements appearing below. These advertisements will appear each Monday. Prizes will be awarded as follows: $25.00 each week; first prize $10.00, second prize $5.00, third prize $3.00, fourth prize $2.00, and five prizes of $1.00 each. The prize winners will be announced each Monday.

Name .....
 Address .....
 Age ..... School .....

Rules of Competition

All efforts must be executed in water colors. The name, age, address and school attended must be given by contestants in space provided for same. All school children of Portland and vicinity are eligible, except members of families of Oregonian employees. All advertisements in the group must be colored. City contestants must have efforts in The Oregonian office by Monday noon, one week after date of publication. Out-of-town efforts will be accepted until 9 A. M. Tuesday.

If in the opinion of the judges any of the winning efforts are of equal merit, the prizes will be divided equally. Prize winners will be announced Monday of each week, when successful contestants may call at The Oregonian office for their prizes. The winner of the first prize any one week will not be permitted to compete during subsequent weeks.

All efforts are to remain the property of The Oregonian. Packages containing the goods advertised can be had at any dealers. Should any difficulty be experienced in securing them, telephone the advertiser.
