FRAUD IS CHARGED

J. B. Dickover Is Said to Have Made $30,000 in Land.

DEAL DECLARED SECRET

Santiam Fruit Colony Wants Injunction Against Alleged Spreading of False Reports and Preventing Mortgage Foreclosure.

Thirty thousand dollars is the profit J. B. Dickover, of Portland, is alleged to have made by fraud from the Santiam Fruit Colony, according to a complaint filed in the Circuit Court yesterday. Mr. Dickover threatens to foreclose a mortgage and has been forcing the Fruit Colony into insolvency by the spreading of untrue reports. It is charged by the colony plaintiff, which demands an accounting for all secret profits and an order restraining the institution of foreclosure proceedings. High financing in orchard lands is the charge of the complaint, in effect, it recites that Mr. Dickover in 1910 schemed to sell, as president of one company, to another company, of which he was president, 304 acres of land in Linn County at a price of $30,000 in advance of the price for which he contracted, originally, to buy the land. Company Declared Deceptive. The Santiam Fruit Colony was organized by Mr. Dickover in May, 1910, with $12,000 capital stock. He then bought the Cawrse farm, in Linn County, for $40,000, on time payments. The title was made out to the J. B. Dickover Company.

The J. B. Dickover Company was nothing more nor less, recites the complaint, "than an artificial corporate device, used by the said J. B. Dickover as a matter of convenience to enable him, in his opinion, to avoid successfully the consequences of committing fraud by interposing the fictitious separate legal entity of this thing called a corporation between himself and the parties whom he had defrauded or proposed to defraud."

The farm was sold to the Santiam Fruit Colony by the J. B. Dickover Company late in 1910 for $70,250. Mr. Dickover was president of both corporations.

Profit Not Reported, Says Plaintiff. Mr. Dickover is said to have willfully concealed from the directors of the Fruit Colony that a $20,000 profit was being made by the Dickover corporation in the transaction.

The Santiam Fruit Colony of 804 acres was divided into tracts of five acres each and planted to fruit trees. Of the land 450 acres has been purchased by 80 persons, on contracts, on which $25,000 is still due. Payments on the contracts have been interrupted by the circulation by Mr. Dickover and his son, J. W. Dickover, of untrue reports on the finances of the company. It is charged.

Mr. Dickover holds a mortgage for $15,000, given him as the balance on the purchase price of $70,250. As principal and interest on the deal, Mr. Dickover and his company have been paid $25,500, and $12,000 was paid for stock in the Fruit Colony, when the directors found that they had to assume a mortgage for $30,250 given by Mr. Dickover to Mr. Cawrse. In the light of the $20,250 mortgage given in the first instance, it is assumed that Mr. Dickover paid down less than $10,000 for the property, for which small initial outlay he is said to have figured on a profit of $20,000. The complaint refers to this as a "secret profit."

"Twenty-five thousand dollars, in and out every hour," read the sign on a swimming pool of which the Argonaut tells. "That's the nonsense," said the stymie-minded person, "there ain't that many women in the whole county."

MAN "DEEDS" CHILDREN

QUITCLAIM IS EXECUTED GIVING THEM TO HIS MOTHER.

Father Is Remarried Following Divorce. First Wife Believed Dead, so Grandmother Gets Title.

One of the most unique documents to be filed in Multnomah County is a quitclaim deed of Clyde Ellis Cole to his three children, executed in the form of a realty instrument and included in the petition of Mrs. Mary Cole, of Portland, mother of Clyde Cole, for the adoption of the youngsters, presented to Deputy District Attorney Pierce for approval yesterday.

Cole was divorced in Tacoma, December 18, 1912, from Bonnie May Cole, who left Tacoma for Tennessee, and he now believes her to be dead. He has married again and is living in British Columbia. He desires that the grandmother shall have the care of the children by his first marriage.

The "deed" reads as follows: Know all men by these presents, that I, Clyde Ellis Cole, of Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon, in consideration of love and natural affection, gift and grant to Mary Cole, my beloved mother, the children herein described and mentioned. I do hereby remise, release and forever quitclaim unto the said Mary Cole, my mother, residing in Portland, Or., and unto her male heirs and assigns, all my right, title in and to the following described children, in Portland, county of Multnomah, state of Oregon, to-wit: Earl Armond Cole, a male child 6 years of age last birthday, birthplace Parkland, Pierce County, state of Washington; Pearl Opal Cole, 6 years last birthday, a female, birthplace Seattle, King County, state of Washington; Harry Floyd Cole, a male 3 years last birthday, birthplace Tacoma, Pierce County, state of Washington, at present all residents of Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon.

I, Clyde Ellis Cole, sole and legal owner of the children herein mentioned, a divorced man, the courts having given all the legal rights mentioned above in this instrument, by free and voluntary act bequeath to my beloved mother, Mary Cole,

LAD DROWNS IN CREEK

HENRY KICKER, AGED 5, LIVES IN SWOLLEN STREAM.

Buggy in Which Mother and Other Children Ride is Overturned at Dieterich's Ford.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 5.—(Special.)—Henry Kicker, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kicker, residing on Salmon Creek, near Manor, was drowned yesterday when the single buggy in which Mrs. Kicker, her two sons and a nephew, from Portland, were trying to ford Salmon Creek, overturned. Mrs. Kicker succeeded in saving herself and two of the children, but the youngest was carried away in the swift current. The body was not recovered until today noon.

The party had been picking cherries for a Fourth of July picnic dinner and started to Manor to get some dainties for the lunch. Ordinarily there is but a foot of water in the creek at the place where the crossing was attempted, known as Dieterich's Ford, near the Studer sawmill, but this year, owing to the heavy rains, there was three feet of water. The horse was carried off his feet in midstream.

J. B. White, who lives nearby, came in response to their frantic calls for help, but was unable to save the little boy, though he assisted Mrs. Kicker and the other two children to shore. The current was very swift.

PYTHIANS OPEN REGISTER

All Portland Knights Are Asked to Enroll at Headquarters.

Headquarters were opened yesterday in the Pythian Temple, Eleventh and Alder streets, for the registration of all unattached Knights of Pythias who are wanted to take part in the entertainment of the Supreme Lodge, E. M. Lance is in charge. The Supreme Lodge meets in Portland August 1 for 10 days.

It is the plan to get a line on all Portlanders who have ever been Knights of Pythias, and especially to ascertain the names and addresses of residents of the city whose lodge membership is maintained elsewhere. There are 2400 members of the Portland lodges, and it is said fully as many other members of the order reside here. They are urged immediately to call at the registration office.

1000 VOLUNTEERS LIKELY

Judge Gantenbein's Enrollment Nears That Number.

Judge Gantenbein expects to have 1000 men enrolled for his proposed volunteer regiment of infantry by the close of the present week. He said yesterday that the reports were beginning to come in satisfactorily from outside towns and that, judging from the manner in which names were being sent in, the number would pass the 1000 mark in the next three days. The total number registered at the headquarters of the proposed regiment in the Courthouse had been brought up to 673 at 6 o'clock last night. A few of the units had not reported their day's increase and there are now perhaps more than 700 men enrolled.

From Astoria came a list of 58, the biggest number reported yesterday from outside Portland. Twenty-eight new names were sent in from Albany.

FIRE HOUSE TO BE CUT OFF

Work to Start at Once on Widening of Washington Street.

Work is to be started at once on the widening of Washington street at Sixteenth street. Arrangements were made yesterday whereby the fire station at Sixteenth and Washington streets is to be cut off 10 feet in front. Thus altered it will be allowed to stand temporarily.

Originally it was planned to move the engine to a nearby station. This plan has been given up in favor of a scheme to cut off the front of the building.

BABY'S CHEEKS MASS OF SCALES

Her Face Was Terrible to Look At. Would Scratch and Cry. Had to Tie Her Hands Up.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"When baby was four months old her face became very red and rough and the skin cracked and bled. Water oozed out and wherever the water came it would form big scales, and each check was a mass of thick scales. Her face was terrible to look at. She would scratch and cry and we had to tie her hands up.

"A friend told me about Cuticura Soap and Ointment and we got them. Now she is healed after using three boxes of Ointment and three cakes of Soap." (Signed) Mrs. Amanda W. James, 36 Moore St., St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 25, '16.
