HIGG GETS RELEASE

Noted Twirler's Salary Wing No Longer Has Zip.

OAKLAND LETS "VET" GO

Former Valuable Moundman, Al though Only 33 Years Old, Has Seen Service With National Game in Various Leagues.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 7 .- Irvin C. (Higg) Higginbotham, veteran pitch er, bought by Oakland from Portland a month ago, was given his five-day notice of release today, the first release he said, he had received in his 22 years of baseball. Higginbotham played with Portland three full seasons and parts of two, but his showing with Oakland proved unsatisfactory.

Higginbotham was sold by Portland to Oakland on June 11. His sale came as a big surprise, although he had not been used often by the Mackmen just before he was sold. Since joining the Oaks Higgy has been unable to win a single game and on three or four occaions has been bombarded freely.

The rounding into form of Pitcher Bill Burns for the Oaks is perhaps the reason for Irve's release. His let-out by Manager Elliott probably means the passing of the veteran as a class AA chucker. It appears as if his sal-lary filpper has lost the old-time zip. He, however, will make some club in the Northwestern League a valuable Higginbotham was reared in Oregon, and in his younger days pitched semi-professional ball in different parts of the state. He was the oldest member of the Beavers up to the time of his sale to the Acorns.

The veteran was a baseball landmark in Portland and always was popular. Portland fans will regret his failure with Oakland.

Higg has won four and lost eight games with Portland and Oakland this season. Last year was the first time that Higg failed to win more than half of the games he pitched in a full sca-son since joining the Beavers. At that, his mark last year wasn't bad, consid-ering the fact that Portland finished in the basement. He won 14 and lost 17

1914 Higginbotham practically pitched Portland to a pennant, when he won 31 and lost 20 for an average of ,608. He won 21 and lost 14 when the Beavers won the flag in 1913. In 1912, with a club that finished in fourth place, he won 19 and lost 12 contests. Higgy is 23 years old and came to Portland from the Toledo Mudhens, of the American Association, in 1912. He was secured by Toledo from the Cleve-

Healey and Hamilton, 4; Carson Bigbee, Bankhead, Les Sheehan, Pappa, Dave Hillyard, Kippert, Gaard Gislason and Sheely, 3.

Al Bartholemy is rapidly picking up in his hitting. Wednesday at Great Falls he got a home run with three Tigers on the bases. Owen Hall, of Tacoma, thinks a lot of this boy, and has advised Judge W. W. McCredie, of the Portland club that he will be unable to use "Chick" Baker. A veteran named Baldwin is assisting Bart behind the plate for Tacoma. Baker is at present with the Medford, Or., team, but is expected back in Portland today so that he cah catch for the Kirkpatrick Stars of the Inter-City League tomorrow.

Leaders in total extra base hits: Dave Hillyard, Butte, 59; Johnson, Butte, 41; Dutch Reuther, Spokane, 39; Sammy Bohne, Bill Leard and Carson Bigbee, Tacoma, 32; Pappa and Grover, 31; Rob-erts, 30; McGinnis and Sheely, 29; Har-per, Spokane, 26; Bankhead, 25; Eddie Frier, 24.

Fishing Bulletin

Myrtle Creek—Fishing conditions in this vicinity are considerably improved. Fish are bitling fine in North and South Myrtle creeks. Catches of 60 and 76 fine trout being reported frequently. Grasshoppers used for bait. Streams quickly reached by auto or a short walk from here.

Rossburg—Quite a number of people were at fack Creek and vicinity, camping and on week-end excursions, but it is too early for good fishing. Some have been taking good catches from the Calapoola. This month and August are the best for this vicinity.

Baby Beavers and Salem Lojus Will Clash.

ARE STRONG

Both Teams Have 10 Victories and 5 Defeats and Are Tied for Leadership of Circuit-Other Teams Are Fast.

The first big Inter-City Baseball League game of the 1916 season slated for Vaughn-street grounds has been announced for tomorrow afternoon, when the Baby Beavers and the Salem Lojus tangle for the leadership of the circuit.

Both teams have ten wins and five defeats to their credit, as have the Woodburn, Or., representatives. What is more, the Baby Beavers have a winning streak of eight straight, but it will be ended after tomorrow's play, according to Manager Pay, Baker of eccording to Manager Ray Baker, of the Lojus.

Portland fans will have the first opportunity of seeing the Salemites since the season opened. Several sensational players are listed in the visitors' lineup. Tom Keene—no relation to the well-known "perfecto"—will start the twirling, with Emil Hauser, of Northwest football fame, as the receiver. Manager Rupert will depend on his old standby, Al Zweifel, to dish up the foolers, with Whitey McBride catching. against Salem.

against Salem.

The game will start promptly at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and the Vaughn-street grounds will be opened at 1:45 o'clock. . . .

While the Vaughn-street match here is in progress the Montavilla Wildcats will be trying to forsake their losing gait at the expense of the Woodburn boys at Woodburn, Or.; the Kirkpat-ricks will be at St. Helens, Or., and the fast-slipping Battling Bradfords at Woodland against the Woodland Dolls. President Fred Norman Bay has assigned Maxey McLynn to umpire at Woodburn, Gordon Brown at Woodland, Ed Rankin at Vaughn street and Kirby Drennen at St. Helens. All games will start at 2:30 o'clock.

Mikami, one of the Japanese stars, taking three sets to do it, and won in the semi-fixals over Paul Darrough, of Oklahoma. Dix Teachenor defaulted to Hoerr for the round before the semi-finals.

Ray Greggs, the Salem third baseman, is considered the best guardian of the torrid corner in semi-pro ball around these parts. Manager Walter Henry McCredie has first call on his services, as Scout James J. Richardson claims the finding of Greggs for the claims the finding of Greggs for the Portland Beavers. In a gruelling contest today Egan defeated S. V. Beckwith in the semi-finals after a five-set match, which was stubbornly contested from the first game to the last, the score being 6-8, 6-1, 6-4, 6-8, 6-1. Superior staying powers rather than superiority in mastery of the game gave the victory to Egan. With two sets to his opponent's one, Beckwith plainly tired, and in the last set was unable to cope at all with Egan's steady placing and hard side court smashes. Egan, who has had very little tennis practice this season, steadily improved as the match progressed, and at the end was playing at the top of his same.

On the level, haven't you often sat in your stuffy office or puttered about your house and dreamed of a cool stretch of river scenery and a cluster of Oaks with rolling green about them and fleckings of bril-liant flowers? Maybe you didn't realize it but you were dreaming of Oaks Park, and if you only make your dream come true you'll be surprised at the literal kaleidoscope of enfortainment and pleasure that will be literal kaleidoacope of entertainment and pleasure that will be yours.

This afternoon and evening will be positively the last opportunity you will have of seeing Knights' Trouhadours in "A Night at a Cabaret," that brilliant, tuneful, laughable musical comedy. The big cast with the merry chorus of pretty maids will give another bright entertainment every afternoon and evening beginning tomorrow afternoon, "The Astronomer," which gives promise of being as successful as this week's performance. The new Oaks Orchestra, directed by Heary L. Bettman, will play at every performance.

Musical people in Portland will welcome the glad news of the coming of Ferulio's Band which will come to the park soon for a limited engagement.
