'ROWDY' WOULD QUIT

Oaks Manager Will Abdicate if Released Outright.

ELLIOTT IS DISCOURAGED

Star Catcher Regrets His Club Has Failed to Back Him Up—Owners Admit That Change in Management Necessary.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—(Special.)—Sore at heart, discouraged over the failure of his club to back him up and inclined to feel that as a leader of ball players he has been anything but a success, Rowdy Elliott, manager of the Oaks, has announced his willingness, and intimates a strong desire, to quit his job.

Elliott, in this public declaration of a change that has been forecast for some time, makes one condition. He insists that if he is to drop from under for the purpose of giving the Oakland club a new boss, he must have the right to negotiate for his own sale to one of the major league ball clubs. He backs this up with the assertion that he is positive he can land with one of the Eastern clubs.

From the side of the Oakland management, in reply, it is admitted that everything points to a necessary change, but there is a staunch denial that any one man has been considered to fill Elliott's shoes.

Elliott Hard to Replace.

Aside from these official announcements and reading between the lines, it is quite evident that Elliott and the club he has managed have come to the parting of the ways—having doubtless reached an amicable agreement that there must be a change. The shoe undoubtedly pinches in the disposition of Elliott.

The Oakland club can hardly afford to release Elliott outright, or to allow him to make a deal for himself without the assurance that some good catcher will be had to replace him.

The club is too weak as matters stand to permit of probably the best catcher in the league dropping out from under with no arrangements made for a successor. Continued disasters seem to have broken the spirit of Elliott and with him the confidence of his team members.

Major League Berth Sought.

Not empty benches, perhaps, but close to empty ones have greeted them in consequence and with interest falling away, Messrs. Cook and Leavitt have at last realized that something must be done and in a hurry at that.

Rowdy sang his swan song to the newspaper boys before the game started today.

"Something must be done," he remarked. "I can see that and everyone else can see it. The team has gone up all together and the result is we don't seem to have a chance to win. I realize the owners must bring about a change and I am perfectly satisfied they should do so. But there is one thing I will insist upon. I want the right to negotiate with the major league clubs to give me a chance. I know that I can get a berth."

SCULLERS ARE TO MEET

COEUR D'ALENE AND PORTLAND TO COMPETE.

First Race to Begin at 2:30 P. M., Starting at Head of Ross Island. Local Crews in Shape.

Officials for the joint rowing regatta between the Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, scullers and the Portland Rowing Club representatives on the Willamette River tomorrow and Saturday afternoons have been announced. Joseph N. Teal, former rower for the local club, has been made commodore, with Kenneth Beebe, commodore of the Portland Mortorboat Club, and T. J. Mendenhall, of the Oregon Yacht Club, as vice-commodores.

The referee for the two days' programme will be Rodney L. Gilsan, and the judges will be K. J. George, F. S. Colquhoun, both of Couer d'Alene, and H. E. Judge, of Portland. Edgar E. Frank, chairman of the registration committee of the Pacific Northwest Association of the Amateur Athletic Union; H. K. Sargent and W. B. Fechheimer will handle the stop-watches, and H. G. Chickering, secretary of the Portland Rowing Club, will act as starter.

Despite a cool breeze which was blowing up the river last night Captain Hanson had his squad out for practice. Because of illness C. M. Dyrlund has stepped out of the bow position in one of the senior fours, and his place will be taken by Eddie Sammons.

The first race tomorrow afternoon will start promptly at 2:30 o'clock. The first contest will be called half an hour earlier the following day. This was done because of the club championships which were added to the Saturday list of events by Captain Hanson and Coach Dick Hart.

The start will be made at the head of Ross Island. The course is over the inside channel so that spectators may witness the entire jaunt from start to finish while on the east bank of the Willamette River. The senior and junior events will be one mile and a half, while the club titles will be fought over a half-mile course. Plenty of room can be found for a large crowd near the Portland Rowing Club moorings.

Vernon Buys Callahan.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 12.—Infielder Callahan, of the Sioux City Western League team, was obtained today for Vernon, according to Edward R. Maier, owner of the Tigers, in return for Don Rader and $2000. Callahan probably is on the way here. Rader will leave when he reports.

Murphy Buys Interest in Park.

CINCINNATI, July 12.—Charles W. Murphy, former president of the Chicago National baseball club, today became owner of the former ballpark of the Cubs in Chicago, when he concluded negotiations with Charles P. Taft for the purchase of a one-half interest in the real estate.

Dolly Varden Trout 32 Inches Long.

LA PINE, Or., July 12.—(Special.)—Among the extraordinary fish being taken from neighboring lakes and streams, none equal the "Dolly Varden" trout caught at Pringle Falls on Tuesday by Alfred Shultz. The fish weighed nearly 15 pounds and was 32 inches long.

Trapman's Score Perfect.

CASPER, Wyo., July 12.—R. A. King, an amateur of Delta, Colo., today won the state championship trapshooting tournament with a perfect score of 100 targets. In the professional division, Rush Razee, of Curtis, Neb., was high with a score of 99.

ORPHANS HAVE FUN

Day at Oaks Is Filled for Children of Homes.

FAIRY TALES ARE FILMED

Manager Cordray Entertains on Merry-Go-Round and Streetcar Company Makes No Charge. Picnic Lunches Are Spread.

Did they have a good time?

Indeed they did—every one of the children from the various Portland institutions, who came back last night, rosy-cheeked, tired and happy, after a glorious "Afternoon in Fairyland" at Oaks Park. Several hundred other Portland children were there, too, to enjoy the motion pictures of "Dick Whittington and His Cat" and "Cinderella" and to hear Miss Maude Ryan tell the stories.

The entertainment was given under the direction of Misses Rachel Clarke and Maude Ryan. After the entertainment the children from the homes were guests of Manager Cordray on a merry-go-round ride, and many remained to picnic in the park with their chaperons.

The little ones from the homes were taken to the Oaks free by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company. The Boys' and Girls' Aid Society had the largest number, 20 little girls and 18 boys. Frazer Detention Home was represented by 15 children.

Mrs. Agnes Fisher and Miss Marie Fisher brought 47 little ones from the Children's Home. This party was perhaps the merriest, for they brought along their luncheon and enjoyed a spread under the trees just before starting home.

Groups of children with their mothers attended the entertainment and afterward made a round of the concessions. There was laughter and shouting and the Oaks saw one of its happiest days. Late in the afternoon picnic groups were joined by the fathers and various friends, and until late evening there were many children at Oaks Park.

The motion picture of "Dick Whittington and His Cat" is unique as one of the old English folk stories that has been handed down for centuries. "Dick" was a little lad who lived some distance out of London. Finally he was fired with the tales of a traveling merchantman and runs away from his unhappy home to London.

There he walks the streets in dismay and hunger and weeps because he has been deluded and the streets are not "made of gold." Dick goes to work as a kitchen lad and smarts under the cruel treatment of a cross mistress. But the little daughter of the wealthy owner pities him and often helps him.

When a captain goes to the Orient Dick lends him his cat. A shipwreck occurs and the crew falls in the hands of the Sultan, who offers them a ship to go home and two chests of gold, if they will rid the palace of mice. The cat does the work and the gold is brought home to Dick, who gives presents to all, even to the wicked cook.

Then years afterward Dick and little Alice grow up and are married, and Dick is thrice Lord Mayor of London. The colorful photodrama and the story as told by Miss Ryan was a delight to the hundreds of youngsters as well as many grown-ups in the audience.

CHILDREN HAVE FROLIC

CONTESTS ARE HELD BY YOUNGSTERS AT WASHINGTON PARK.

Girls Present Flag Drill and Folk Dances and Meaning of Patriotism Is Explained in Talk.

A children's frolic was held at Washington Park playground yesterday under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association. A committee under Mrs. A. Mattingly co-operated in the arrangement of the programme and the participants were trained by Miss Louise Bailey and John C. Hatz, playground directors at Washington Park. R. L. Sabin, formrerly of the School Board, delivered a talk on "Our Flag," in which the meaning of patriotism was explained to the children.

A series of folk dances was given by 24 girls under Miss Bailey and the troupe executed movements known as the "Danish Dance of Greeting," "Ace of Diamonds," "Ox Dance," "Tantoli" and the "Seven Jumps." A flag drill was given by a team of playground girls.

The events on the apparatus and the athletic field were mainly contests for boys. The winners announced are: Backward race, first, Albert Barnum; second, Ed Doxey. Policeman's race, first, Coulter; second, Collins; third, Barman. Three-legged race, first, Barnum and Collins; second, Jefferson and Sprout.

Contests on the apparatus resulted: Horse, first, Albert Barnum; second, Doxey. Parallels, first, Scallon; second, Doxey. Single bar, first, Bennes, second, Harrison. Traveling rings, first, Elinor Wright; second, Clara Cohen. Flying rings, first, Mary Deery; second, Camille Burton.

SWEET PEAS SHOWN

Wonderful Shades and Nearly All Varieties Included.

NEW CONTESTANTS ENTER

Colored Girl of 12 Captures Four Prizes in Juvenile Class—Exhibitors Are More Numerous This Year Than Ever.

Sweet peas of many colors and varieties were on display on the sixth floor of the Meier & Frank building yesterday at the opening of the seventh annual exhibit of the Oregon Sweet Pea Society.

Long tables holding vases of almost every known variety of this flower presented an astonishing array of color, in shades seldom matched by any other flower. Among some of the rarer blooms, pale shades of salmon pink and orange were to be seen, while some varieties were shown with unusually deep purple tints.

The number of exhibitors this year is larger than before, and several enthusiastic amateurs have been engaged in considerable rivalry over the development of fine and rare varieties.

Colored Girl of 12 Is Winner.

Beside the prizes awarded for fine blooms, there are several awarded for baskets of sweet peas and for table decorations. Private gardeners, commercial growers and florists are also entered in special sections of the competition for prizes.

Among the prize winners was Violet Hooker, a small colored grower aged about 12, who captured honors in four different sections of the Juvenile class.

The awards of prizes decided upon yesterday were as follows:

Amateurs, best eight vases Spencers—First prize, Portland Seed Company's challenge trophy, Mrs. Etta M. Marshall, of Kent, Wash.; second prize, F. N. Dodds, 1133 Woodward avenue.

Best six vases—First prize, Hazel Petrie, East Forty-second and Sixtieth avenue; second prize, A. H. Beeson, 151 Grand avenue North.

Best vase white Spencers—First prize, Mrs. George Hansen, 830 Raleigh street; second prize, Mrs. F. J. Currigan, Lents.

Best vase light or dark pink Spencers—First prize, Mrs. J. S. Hanna, 1445 Mallory avenue; second prize, Miss Helen Clair, 445 East Twenty-eighth street North.

First Prize Not Awarded.

Best vase salmon or orange Spencers—First prize, not awarded; second prize, P. G. Strom, 1461 Cleveland avenue.

Best vase crimson or scarlet Spencers—First prize, Miss Harriet Leach, 1056 Williams avenue; second prize, Mrs. J. C. Howell, 1737 Woolsey street.

Best vase primrose or yellow Spencers—First prize, Mrs. Grace A. Reid, Rainier, Or.; second prize, Mrs. F. J. Currigan, Lents.

Best vase light or dark pink Spencers—First prize, Esther J. Walker, 4680 Sixty-fourth avenue Southeast; second prize, G. Casey, Lents.

Private gardeners: Best 12 vases Spencers—First prize, Henry Pigney, gardener for Solomon Hirsch; second prize, R. Rode, of Union Meat Company. The other prizes in this section were awarded to Henry Pigney.

Juvenile growers: Best vase white and best vase red—First prizes, Violet Hooker, 318 East Sixty-first street; best vase pink, first prize, Mildred Nichols, 75 Russell street; second prize, Violet Hooker.

Best vase lavender—First prize, Mildred Nichols.

Best vase blue—First prize, Violet Hooker.

Best vase mixed—Mildred Nichols.

Florists Win Prizes.

Florists—Section 1: First prize, Max Smith. Section 2: First prize, Max Smith; second prize, G. J. Burkhardt. Section 3: First prize, Niklas & Son; second prize, Max M. Smith. Section 4: First prize, Niklas & Son; second prize, Max M. Smith.

Commercial growers—Section 1: First prize, Henry Clemmens, of Newberg; second prize, Union Meat Company. Section 2: First prize, Union Meat Company; second prize, Mrs. Hugh Graham, 1131 East Thirty-eighth street. Section 3: First prize, Henry Clemmens; second prize, Mrs. Hugh Graham.

The judges included Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, Mrs. William MacMasters, Mrs. George E. Reed, Mrs. Samuel C. Kerr, Miss Ella Stephens and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot. The judges on commercial growers were S. B. Hall, R. W. Gill and H. A. Lewis. The judges of amateur growers, private gardeners and juvenile growers' exhibits were A. T. Clark, J. Forbes, B. Tonseth and F. Niklas.

George Ober's Mother Dead.

George Ober, manager of the Portland Hotel, received word yesterday of the death of his mother, Mrs. George Ober, of Blue Earth, Minn. Mrs. Ober was in excellent health when her son last heard from her and the news of her death was a keen shock to him. She was about 80 years old.

CIVILIANS TO TAKE CRUISE

South Dakota Will Carry Those Who Sign by Saturday Night.

Do you want a naval cruise on a United States warship from Portland to San Francisco and down the Coast as far as Magdalena Bay? If so, hustle your name over to the Navy recruiting office. All names must be in by Saturday night.

The cruise will be aboard the South Dakota which will come to Portland August 15 to pick up the civilians signed up from Oregon, Idaho and Wyoming. The cruise will continue until September 12 with a charge of $30 for each person.

Returning to Portland the South Dakota will spend a week in port while the men are drilled further. The cruise will not obligate the civilians to naval service afterward.

R. C. BABBITT IS CADET

Oregon Aggy Student Appointed to West Point.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, July 12.—(Special.)—The announcement that Richard Carrick Babbitt, a Polk County boy and a junior at the Oregon Agricultural College, entered West Point as a cadet on July 19 has been made. He was appointed by Congressman W. C. Hawley and passed the examinations with an unusually good record.

At college Mr. Babbitt was especially active in military affairs, having won the honor of ranking Captain, as announced in the 1916-17 roster of the regiment. He made an excellent record in scholarship, ranking especially high in mathematics. He was born at Independence, his father being the late Dr. Walter Babbitt.

WOODMEN OFF TO CAMP

Special Car Carries Record Oregon Delegation.

A special car on the O.-W. R. & N. line left yesterday with a record delegation of Woodmen of the World en route to the head camp at Denver, which will open Monday. About 25 were from Portland. Others were from Roseburg, Dallas, McMinnville and other points. More will be picked up on the route through the state. The party will spend 24 hours in Salt Lake City.

J. O. Wilson, clerk of Multnomah Camp, said: "This is the strongest delegation ever attending the head camp from Oregon and we expect to be heard from in framing any new measures. We shall talk Oregon all the time."

PYTHIAN LODGE INSTALLED

Halfway Is Second Baker Town to Get Organization of Knights.

ALBANY, Or., July 12.—(Special.)—A new lodge of Knights of Pythias was instituted tonight at Halfway, in Baker County, according to Grand Chancellor Marks. This is the second Pythian lodges installed in Baker County recently.

Marion F. Davis, of Union, past grand chancellor, represented the grand chancellor at the institution of the lodge and the work was done by the members of the lodges at Baker and Richland. The new lodge was organized through the efforts of W. G. Saunders, of Richland, district deputy grand chancellor for the district comprising Baker County.

Judge Gary Going to Orient.

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 12.—Judge Elbert Gary, head of the United States Steel Corporation, reached Vancouver today, accompanied by his family. Judge Gary will go to Japan and China aboard the steamer Empress of Asia, sailing tomorrow evening.

GRESHAM PAVING BEGINS

FULL WIDTH PAVEMENT ON MAIN STREET IS URGED.

County Is Lowering Grade on Main Thoroughfare to Conform With Grade on Highway.

GRESHAM, Or., July 12.—(Special.)—Work on the hard-surfacing of Main street commenced Tuesday morning and assurance is given that the street will be paved full width and finished within two weeks, from the fountain at Powell street to Third street and the work of hard-surfacing from there on will be pushed as rapidly as possible. Now that operations have commenced other property owners along the street begin to be anxious to have the full width pavement laid past their property.

It was brought to the notice of the property owners that in order to have the full width pavement they must have it laid now. The county is regrading Main street, lowering the grade in many places as much as one foot. This is being done only where the full width pavement is being laid. Beyond, where the pavement will be only 18 feet wide, the Warren Construction Company will lay the new surface on the present grade of the road, which will make a bad looking break in the surface. If the property owners should decide to make any alterations in the pavement after it is laid, the contract with the company to keep it in repair for ten years will become annulled. It would be practically impossible to add a strip of pavement to the narrow surface in latter years, as it would leave an unsightly crack between the two. An effort is being made to get the property owners all along the street to have the full width pavement laid now, when the road can be graded and finished up properly.

The proposition of removing the fountain from the intersection of Main and Powell streets also has been brought before the town authorities and a special Council meeting will be called for the purpose of deciding the question.

WATER RIGHTS GRANTED

Controversy of Long Standing in Klamath County Ends.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., July 12.—(Special.)—Twenty-nine owners of land in the Wood River Valley north of Fort Klamath, in the northern part of Klamath County, have been granted clear and undisputed water rights on Anna Creek, according to certificates received from State Engineer Lewis. This controversy has been one of long standing.

OAKS PARK

Chat No. 61

You know you like a picnic. Who doesn't? Also, we might add, everyone can't go away for a long vacation, but there are few who can't have a day in which to bring back good cheer and give the constitution a boost. We had hundreds of picnics yesterday. Many were groups of little ones and they did have a splendid time. But more picnics are coming. This is a regular picnic week. We're pleased, but we don't wonder at it. For there couldn't be a better picnic place.

Put on your knock-about duds and sports clothes. Pack the lunch basket. It doesn't matter a heap what you put in it, for you get hungry enough to enjoy cold soup on a picnic. But think of it. You won't even have to make your own coffee. The maid does that free of charge. Just bring the ground coffee and something to drink it in.

Our show is good and you'll like it. "The Astronomers" is full of life and music and every one of Knight's Troubadours is a winner. A new bill will begin Sunday afternoon.

Tomorrow, Minnesota State Society will picnic at the Oaks. Those who have lived in the "gopher" state are invited to join the picnickers and have a jolly good time with the rest.

The Hoosiers will be here Saturday. The whole big society of Indianians and their families and friends are planning a great picnic dinner at 6 and an evening of old-time fun with dancing in the pavilion and games and songs.

In a short time Fernilo's Band will be here and give the public a treat that can't be beat.

The Oaks car leaves from First and Alder street every few minutes.
