

MOOSE TO MEET TO CONSIDER 'REVOLT'

Colby Leads Fight to Put Progressive National Ticket in Field.

CHICAGO MEETING CALLED

John M. Parker, Vice-Presidential Nominee, Joins in Protest at Indorsement of Mr. Hughes and Asks for Session.

NEW YORK, July 12.—A conference of representative Progressives from all parts of the country soon will be held in Chicago, it was announced here today by Eastview Colby, to consider the widespread and bitter revolt within the party against the action of the National Committee in indorsing Charles E. Hughes, the Republican nominee for the Presidency. The date will be decided upon in a few days.

Mr. Colby, who nominated Theodore Roosevelt for the Presidency before the National Progressive convention at Chicago, said that he is in receipt of letters from every quarter of the country protesting against what he characterized as "the Perkins-Flinn program." This program, he added, "does not represent the thought or feeling of the rank and file of the party."

Mr. Colby made public a letter he had received from John M. Parker, of Louisiana, the Progressive nominee for Vice-President, in which Mr. Parker referred to the "star chamber" proceedings of the National Committee, adding:

"An enormous number of voters will never submit to such treatment, and I believe that when we consider the millions of women who will vote this year for the first time and the millions of wage-earners who are deeply interested in and believe in the reforms and betterment for the people, for which we have steadfastly stood, that if we can succeed in calling a new convention, preferably on August 5, the anniversary of the birth of the Progressive party, to demonstrate to the political boss our distrust and to the people of the Nation our determination to continue the fight for those principles which we so strongly advocated, will so stir public sentiment that we may win an overwhelming wave of protest against throttling anything pertaining to an independent move for the next generation."

"I am confident we could have an immense and representative gathering in Chicago and believe that an earnest appeal to the Progressive all over the country will result in state conventions, which would send delegates to put up a complete ticket."

He pointed out that Mr. Parker's letter was written before he (Colby) had called a conference.

to test the constitutionality of the land-grant law recently passed by Congress.

"In view of the fact that the Oregon & California Railroad Company has announced its intention of contesting in the courts the action of Congress in revesting title to the grant lands in the Federal Government," he said, "it seems to me that it would be decidedly to the interest of Lane County to have these lands on the assessment roll, no matter what the Attorney-General of the State may have ruled in regard to their taxability."

"We will be busy extending the roles some time yet, and there is time to consider protesting from several angles, and if there seems to be anything to be gained by having these lands listed on the tax roll, the assessor's office will be glad to consider the cost which might be gained will run from $75,000 to $80,000 a year."

END OF CASE IN SIGHT

Settlement for $135,000, Judgment Granted State, May Be Close of Big Treasury Steal.

BOISE, Idaho, July 12.—(Special.)—The last chapter in the Idaho treasury steal is about to be closed by the payment by the National Surety Company to the state of $135,000, the amount stolen from the results of the robbery or the killing of checks and scaling of interest from coupons by O. V. Allen, ex-Treasurer, now in the penitentiary.

Coleman for this amount having been given the state, no appeal is expected, as the surety company some time ago agreed to settle for virtually the same amount. With interest, Idaho will be reimbursed about $150,000.

Fred M. Coleman, defaulting Deputy State Treasurer, assisted the state in running down the various items. His help was necessary in order that the false work of bookkeeping covering a year's time should be corrected. Experts were continually baffled by these entries.

Allen stole what he had in hand in the state, no appeal is expected, as the surety company some time ago agreed to settle for virtually the same amount. With interest, Idaho will be reimbursed about $150,000.

PROTEST WILL BE MADE

RECORD CROWD EXPECTED TO BEGRIEVE CITY COUNCIL.

Proposed Extension of Greeley Street to Be Taken Up by Commissioners at Special Meeting Today.

One of the largest delegations of property owners the City Council has seen in a long time is expected to be on hand this morning, when a special session will be held at 10 o'clock to hear remonstrators against the proposed extension of Greeley street from Killingsworth avenue south to Delany street.

The proposed extension has been a contention in the Peninsula district for many years. Proceedings reached the remonstrance period about three months ago, and petitioners came within 10 per cent of few names of killing the proceedings automatically. The project involves a series of deep cuts and long, deep fills, it being virtually an extension of Willamette boulevard along the crest of the hills on the east bank of the Willamette river. The estimated cost of the project is $323,000. Those favoring it contend that it would save 10 or 15 minutes' time between St. Johns and Broadway bridge, provided the streetcar company extended a line over that course.

Its opponents declare that the demand for the extension emanates from five large owners of land in the district who are promoting it largely for real estate purposes.

It will be up to the Council to determine whether the project shall go through or not.

PARALYSIS GERM MAY BE ISOLATED

Fewer Infants Die at New York and Physicians Are Hopeful.

NO NEW AREAS INVADDED

Seventeen Deaths Reported in Day, New Jersey Puts Rigorous Quarantine Against New York Children in Effect.

NEW YORK, July 12.—While Health Commissioner Emerson declined tonight to discuss the report that a New York physician had succeeded in isolating the germ of infantile paralysis, great importance was attached by medical men to the meeting of physicians tomorrow night which will be devoted to a discussion of the disease which has cost more than 250 lives in this city since the epidemic began.

Among the speakers will be Dr. Simon Flexner, of Rockefeller foundation, who is devoting his energies to a study of the infantile paralysis. It was semi-officially admitted that scientists have progressed so far that they are testing a culture in which they believe they will find traces of the germ and ultimately isolate it.

Optimism is Evident. There was a feeling of optimism in the health department today, not only because there were fewer cases reported than yesterday, but also because no new areas were invaded and because all agencies combating the epidemic are working in complete cooperation.

Dr. John Dill Robertson, health commissioner of Chicago, who came here today to investigate the situation, declared that the health department has called upon to treat an unusual number of cases of infantile paralysis.

A conference of physicians and city officials called by Mayor Mitchell was held this afternoon to devise additional means of fighting the epidemic. A special committee, headed by Dr. Flexner, was appointed to undertake the work.

Out of a total of 3440 cases since the epidemic developed, there have been 387 deaths, it was officially announced by the Department of Health tonight.

In 1907, it was pointed out by Health Department officials, the epidemic of infantile paralysis here continued throughout the summer and until late in September. The total number of cases reported was 2500. There were 500 deaths.

Number of Deaths Less. Despite the worst heat wave of the season, the epidemic took its turn for the better today. During the last 24 hours only 17 deaths from the disease were reported in New York City. There were 162 new cases.

An absolute quarantine against New York children under 16 years of age was put into effect and rigorously enforced in New Jersey today. No children under that age will be allowed to enter New Jersey today.

New York New Jersey children under 16 years of age will not be permitted to cross the Hudson River into New York City.

This action has been taken by the health authorities of New Jersey to prevent, if possible, the spread of the epidemic into that state.

CINCINNATI, July 12.—The first case of infantile paralysis in this city, that of a 16-month-old boy, was reported to the health department today, death claiming the victim shortly afterwards. The case was in a thickly populated tenement district.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 12.—The first case of infantile paralysis in Luzerne County, that of a 3-year-old boy, was discovered today at Plymouth, near here. The boy's illness was diagnosed by several physicians.

TOTS STAR AT STRAND

BROTHER AND SISTER PROVIDE HEADLINE FUN.

Four Clever Vaudeville Acts and Dramatic Motion Picture Win Applause at Photoville.

Two "little dears" and their "daddy," of the Willis Hall Trio, headline a splendid bill that opened at the Strand Theater. A winsome little girl, who can't be over 5, and a boy of about 10 are the little brother and sister who entertain the audience better than most grown-ups can. Both sing well. Little Miss Hall trips out in dainty coat, bizzaz costumes and lights the audience with her baby mannerisms, the while she surprises them with an exceptional child voice.

Her brother also wins loud applause. There are three other acts on the bill and a movie. Among the most popular is Billy Small, with his merry violin and beaming smile. An interesting mechanical act is presented by Chester and company as the "Battle of the Navies." The sinking of a German ship by a large number of the British battleships is shown.

Glady's Dix and George Stanley sing Southern songs and provide four attractive costumes are worn by Miss Dix.

"The Heart of a Child," big photodrama of the war between labor and capital, is softened by a romance in which Edna Plughart plays the girl.

Government to Sell 330,000,000 Feet From Oregon Reserve.

District Forester George H. Cecil yesterday received a telegram from the Chief Forester, Washington, D. C., announcing that the application to purchase 330,000,000 feet of timber on the West Fork of the Hood River in the Oregon National Forest has been approved. The approval of the application amounts to an invitation for bids on the timber, which has a valuation of approximately $1,000,000.

A road is planned from the main route through the Hood River Valley near Dec to Lost Lake. This road, it is said, will be surveyed and a strip a quarter of a mile wide reserved along the route, so that the timber sale will not affect the beauty of the proposed road.
