Brewery Amendment Is Declared Full of Jokers.
ATTORNEYS' VIEWS CITED
Fear Expressed That, With Any Extension of Liberties, Reversion to Saloon Would Be Possible Under Guise of Agencies.

Prohibition advocates throughout the state are uniting in the campaign to defeat the proposed brewery amendment to the "dry" law, which will be submitted to the voters at the forthcoming election.
The Anti-Saloon League, in a statement issued yesterday, charges that the proposed amendment is full of "jokers" and that it would open wide the sale and distribution of beer.

GREELEY STREET UP
Proposed Extension Is Argued Before City Council.
CONTROVERSY IS HEATED
Amount of Assessments and Probable Cost of Extension of Greeley Street to Be Ascertaind by City Officials.

With property owners who are opposed to the proposed extension of Greeley street from Killingsworth avenue to Delany street the project is a purely "rich man's boulevard."
The Council, after hearing the two sides, adopted a motion that the City Auditor proceed at once to prepare a statement showing the probable assessment to be imposed on each lot in the assessment district, and that the City Engineer compile figures to show as near the probable cost of the entire work as possible. The remonstrators against the proposed extension, as well as those favoring it, representing in all some 200 or 300 persons, left the Council Chamber satisfied with the plan.

Project Is Large.
The proposed extension is one of the largest ever attempted by the city. It means virtually the extension of Willamette boulevard along the crest of the hills on the east bank of the river over canyons and through hills, involving large fills and deep cuts.
John A. Laing, attorney, was the leader of the opposition to the project. He declared that it is favored principally and is in the interest principally of five large owners of acreage in that section. He named them as John B. Yarr, S. Benson, the O. W. R. & N. Company, Coe A. McKenna and John Mook. He declared that between 80 and 90 per cent of the actual owners of homes in the district are against the improvement. Mr. Laing styled it as a "rich man's boulevard."

is essential to the future development of the peninsula. He said that it furnishes a direct arterial outlet on an easy grade. Other speakers declared that it is but a matter of time until the streetcar company will be forced to build over the road and that the running time saved would be at least 10 or 15 minutes.
The opposition complained about the district already being swamped with street improvements. Report was read from Commissioner Dieck's office showing that the remonstrance filed against the project amounted to only 40.5 per cent of the entire district to be assessed.

MORE RECRUITING ORDERED
Three Additional Offices to Be Opened by Adjutant-General.
Acting Adjutant-General W. W. Wilson has received orders from Washington instructing him to muster into service three additional recruiting offices. Each recruiting officer is to be supplied with a sergeant, a corporal and a private, making 12 men for general recruiting.

As there are not enough officers on the active list to supply the needs of the War Department order, Major Wilson has telegraphed the department asking permission to place on the active list retired officers of the Oregon National Guard.
Woodsmen Killed Near Astoria.
ASTORIA, Or., July 13.—(Special.)—John Sullivan, an employee of the McGregor-Malone logging company's camp was fatally injured while at work late yesterday and died during the night. He was working on a gravel train, when the truck next to the engine jumped the track. Sullivan fell between the rails and his skull was crushed. The injured man was brought to the city, but he passed away without regaining consciousness. The dead man was about 40 years old, had worked at the camp but a few days and so far as known had no relatives in this vicinity.
