DARMODY IS NEW DIRECTOR

Business Manager of Tigers Says Rules Were Not Violated, as the Books Will Show; Rumor of Heavy Fine Is Heard.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 13.—(Special.)—Directors of the Pacific Coast League went into the official session at the Hotel Van Nuys today to investigate the report that the Vernon baseball club had been over the salary and player limit the first half of the season. Every club in the Coast League was represented.

Tom Darmody, new secretary and business manager of the Vernon club, was present as its official representa-tive. He was to be made a Pacific Coast League director. Vernon in Limit, Says Darmody.

"I have heard many reports about the eVrnon club's being over the limit," said Darmody. "I have been planning to purchase an interest in the eVrnon club for the last six weeks. During that time I have gone over the books of the club and everything is straight. If it had not been I would not have purchased stock in it."

In the ante-room of the meeting it was rumored that the Vernon club might be subjected to a stiff fine.

The principal reason for the calling of the meeting was the alleged retaining of Honus Mitz and Roy Mitchell, when they were supposed to have been unconditionally released from the club.

A. T. Baum, president of the league, called the meeting to order at 1 o'clock and the following men were present; Henry Berry, of San Francisco; Frank eLavitt, of Oakland; Walter McCredle, of Portland; Frank Murphy, of Salt Lake; John Powers, of Los Angeles, and Tom Darmody, of Vernon.

It was certain that the salary limit would not be raised, it was learned before the meeting. It was also certain that Darmody would be called upon to produce the books of the Vernon club and explain why Mitchell refused to sign with any other club after being released by Vernon.

The directors adjourned the meeting at 2 o'clock to attend the Vernon-Los Angeles game without making pub-

Coast League Gossip

THE consensus of opinion is that Cliff Blankenship tossed a bloomer when he traded Brick Eldred to Seattle for Frank Guigni. Guigni is seldom being played of late for the Bees and his hitting has been wretched, while Eldred has added new life to the Seattle forces.

Tyler "Pug" Cavet, the southpaw of the Mobile Gulls, of the Southern League, established a record in that circuit for consecutive hitting recently, Including the game of June 28, he hit safely in 13 straight games, alternat-ing between right field and the pitch-er's box. Cavet was with San Fran-cisco for a while last year.

Scout James J. Richardson, F. F. F. of the Beavers, is with the club in n Francisco. He will accompany it to Salt Lake.

Harry Wolverton, of the Seals, is looking for another infielder.

Billy Orr, of the Bees, is climbing up in his hitting. He has climbed 29 points in the last two weeks. Orr got 10 hits in the Salt Lake-Vernon series and 12 in the session with the Angels last week, and has been bitting well this week. this week. . . .

Jack Coffey, who was hit in the head last week by a ball tossed by Wynn Noyes, doesn't seem to be improving as rapidly as was first announced. It will be necessary for the veteran Seal to remain quiet for a few days yet.

It's tough to lose an 11-inning battle. It seems that Louie Guisto has lost his cunning. He has only secured two safe blows in each game since getting back in the fray Tuesday.

WOMAN SHOOTS MAD BULL

Wife Saves Her Husband's Life From Enraged Animal.

THIEF RIVER FALLS, Minn., July 9.

Mike Zimney, a farmer living east of here, was saved from being trampled to death by an enraged bull by the courage and prompt action of his wife. The animal took offense at the flapping of Mr Zimney's raincoat and attacked him, throwing him to the ground and breaking several and his collarbone.

Mrs. Zimney, seeing the plight of her mrs. Zimney, seeing the plight of her husband, quickly secured a shotgun and some shells. While she had never attempted to use firearms of any kind, she managed to load the gun, and shoot the animal, stunning him sufficiently to enable her to drag her unconscious husband out of danger. Mr. Zimney was brought to the hospital here for treatment.

Concerning the Yankees.

The Red Sox proved last season that fine pitching plus a strong fielding defense were enough to beat out a rugged attack, even one that was led by Cobb, Crawford and Veach, all tearing the cover off the ball. Bill Donovan's Yankees are offering about the same proof this season. They are not leading the league on attack by several notches, but they are getting the best pitching in the game, and back of this superb pitching both infield and outfield are helping to roll back any rival attack. At the start of the season the Yankees, via the dope, were awarded fourth place well back of the Tigers, white Sox and Red Sox. Today they are the most feared and the most formidable club in the league, despite harder luck than any other club has faced. And a club that can stand up under such adverse fortune isn't very likely to break later on when the harder test comes on the next Western trip. The Red Sox proved last season that

If Willard Quits.

The rumor is still abroad around the unbaked landscape that Jess Willard will retire.

If this should happen there is one logical procedure in sight—this will be for Frank Moran to face Fred Fulton and for the winner of this bout to take Jack Dillon.

Dillon, having outpointed Moran so decisively, now holds second place to the massive Kansan. Moran and Fulton are the two next in line, and those are the ones that start the elimination scrimmage. A Few Late Books.
