New York 5-4. Cincinnati 2-7.

CINCINNATI, July 13,-New York and Cincinnati Nationals broke even in a double-header here today, the visitors winning the first game, 5 to 2 and the locals capturing the second, 7 to 4. New York hit Toney rather freely in the first contest, but four of their runs were due to two costly slips by Cini were due to two cosily slips by Cincinnati. The first came in the third, when Neale misjudged Boolan's fly. This gave New York two runs. Again in the seventh Griffith misjudged a fly by Robertson, which counted for a home run, and scored Kauff, who had doubled. In the second came Teacher oled. In the second game Tesreau hit hard in two innings. Bluejacket was tried out again today, but was relieved in the fourth inning, after passing Merkle, the first man up.
