n.crease in Enlistments Elates Those in Camp as Dreams of Active Service Are Sure to Be Realized-Senator Visits.

CAMP WITHYCOMBE, Or., July 13.— (Special.)—Recruiting at the army camp was materially stimulated today by the news that Colonel Clenard Mc-Laughlin would retain command of the Phird Oregon infantry, now on duty on

Already results are beginning to pour in from the scores of letters sent out by Captain Kenneth P. Williams to postmasters throughout the state. Applicants for enlistment are increasing daily, and at the present the sign "no men wanted" and the present the sign "no men wanted the present the present the present the sign "no men wanted the present the present the sign "no men wanted the present th

Eastern Oregon contributed its first Eastern Oregon contributed its first quota to the state's troops by the arrival yesterday of Ellington C. Bruce who halls from Condon. Mr. Bruce had not heard of the provision of the state to furnish railroad transportation for men coming to Clackamas to enlist, so paid his own fare. The news of free transportation is spreading rapidly over the state and Eastern Oregon is expected to rally to the colors in double time from now on.

Senator Day Visits Camp.

An appreciated camp visitor yesterday was Senator I. N. Day, of Portland, who spent some time gaining facts from Captain Williams about the conduct of camp life.

Today the hearts of the fastidious are teing made glad by the receipt of brand-new recruit kits which are being doled out by Captain George H. Schumacher, camp quartermaster. Each man receives one of the "Christmas presents" from Uncle Sam. Each kit consists of a neatly packed and sealed box containing two towels, razor, toothbrush, soap, comb, hairbrush, whisk-broom, shoe polish, and housewife.

The Chautauqua has won a warm spot in the hearts of men in camp, for the management has graciously extended its hospitality to the soldiers, admitting all men in uniform free of charge.

One Hundred Men Are Enlisted.

This evening is being looked forward to with keen expectation on account of the much-heralded entertainment at the Y. M. C. A. tent at camp. Manager White has made special arrangement with yodiers, whistlers, singers and other artists of more than crdinary reputation. ordinary reputation.

Since June 29, when Captain Williams opened the recruiting station here under orders from the War Department, just 199 men have enlisted.
