

BANDITS ON THEIR WAY TO RAID BORDER

Mexican General Orders Pursuit and Warn Americans to Be on Lookout.

CHIHUAHUA FORCES ELUDED

Hearst Ranch at Babicoa Said Not to Have Been Confiscated, but Cattle Are "Detained" to Prevent Exportation.

CHIHUAHUA CITY, July 17.—Several scattered groups of Villistas have eluded the cordon of government troops which surrounded them in the Rio Florida bottom and have assembled at Tinajas and Las Escobas on the road to Olinda and are making their way north with the object of making another raid on the American border, according to confidential advices to General Trevino today.

General Trevino immediately ordered the commanders of the garrisons of Olinda and Delicias to throw troops out in an attempt to intercept the bandits, whose numbers were estimated at about 200.

The advices, which came from Santa Rosalia, said the outlaws skirted Chihuahua City by traveling in small groups to the little settlements northeast of here.

General Trevino immediately ordered the commanders of the garrisons of Olinda and Delicias to throw troops out in an attempt to intercept the bandits, whose numbers were estimated at about 200.

Reports from General Luis Herrera at Parral today indicated quiet in that district. General Medina Ramos has not yet engaged the main Villa band, which is announced in the Rio Florida district, he said, but is pressing them closely.

San Antonio, Tex., July 17.—Eight thousand marauders now at Laredo will be moved back from the border to one of the smaller towns on the railroad connecting Laredo and San Antonio, unless the border is closed, according to his plans, announced today. Citizens of Laredo recently sent to Texas members of Congress a resolution demanding that the government take the most energetic action to prevent the movement of the marauders across the border.

Carrazza Receives Accusations. Generals Jose Isabel Robles, Canuto Reyes and Hilario Rodriguez left today for San Luis Potosi, where they were ordered to incorporate into the de facto army the Cidillo brothers and their followers, who recently received amnesty.

San Antonio, Tex., July 17.—Eight thousand marauders now at Laredo will be moved back from the border to one of the smaller towns on the railroad connecting Laredo and San Antonio, unless the border is closed, according to his plans, announced today.

Milwaukee House Changed. Name and Manager of Notorious Milwaukee House Changed.

MILWAUKEE, Or., July 17.—(Special.)—The "Hotel Belle" of this place, which has been notorious in the past, is a thing of the past, according to present indications. Mitchell, who had hotel man of several years' experience, has taken charge and has had the building remodeled. The bar has been eliminated and a soft-drink stand installed. The entrance of the building has been changed and the interior remodeled.

Under the former management the hotel made Milwaukee notorious throughout the state, but the present manager gives assurance it will be run in an orderly manner.

FACULTY MEMBER QUITS. Head of Journalism Staff at Washington Turns to Advertising.

SEATTLE, July 17.—Frank G. Kane, head of the department of journalism at the University of Washington for the last three years, resigned today to accept a position in the advertising department of an automobile company at Detroit.

Professor Kane came here to become head of the department of journalism in 1913 from Detroit, where he was an editorial writer on the Detroit News.

HOPKINS BOUND OVER. Slayer of L. J. Eggers, Durkee Home-steader, Held to Grand Jury.

passed slayer of L. J. Eggers near Durkee last Tuesday, was bound over today by Justice of the Peace L. Hubbard to the Grand Jury on the charge of second degree murder. He will be held in jail without bail until October, when the Grand Jury will probably meet. Hopkins was extremely nervous during the hearing. When a bullet found in Eggers' back was produced the youth's eyes protruded and his face became deathly pale as he watched every move, while Dr. O. M. Dodson told of examining the body to find a bullet wound in the arm and another through the back.

EXPERT WILL PLAN SELF-HELP FOR STUDENTS.

M. J. Fenegan, of Pacific University.

FOREST GROVE, Or., July 17.—(Special.)—Pacific University announces plans for helping self-supporting students by means of employment on campus improvements and in industries adapted to work by students while in college. While the details of these plans are not yet worked out, the man who is to have charge of them has been employed to begin work the first of September. This man is M. J. Fenegan, for 15 years president of Portland College, Astoria, Wis., where he developed a remarkable system of employment and support for needy students.

Pacific University is planning to be distinctively the standard college of the Northwest for the poor but earnest boy. It already has the most complete equipment of modern buildings and grounds of any independent institution of higher learning in Oregon and west of the Cascade Mountains. The buildings and equipment are valued at $200,000.

HYPHEN IS DEFENDED

JUDGE P. H. D'ARCY SPEAKS FOR IRISH-AMERICANISM.

Oregon Orator Brings Seattle Crowd to Its Feet by Waving Green Flag and Louding Stars and Stripes.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 17.—(Special.)—Defense of Irish-American hyphenism was the undercurrent of an eloquent address last night before an audience of 1500 at the Metropolitan Theater by Judge P. H. D'Arcy, of Salem, Or.

The meeting was under the auspices of the Seattle branch of the Friends of Irish Freedom and a speaker dealt with present conditions in Ireland. At the conclusion a collection for the relief of Irish sufferers was taken. Judge D'Arcy spoke of a "Rights, Hope and Aspirations of a Progressive People," and prior to his main address sketched the history of Ireland from 402 A. D. to the recent execution of the "Republic of Ireland" movement.

Three times the crowd came to its feet during his talk, once in silent testimony of regard for the Irishmen who were ordered executed this year, again when Judge D'Arcy drew from his breast pocket the green flag of Ireland and finally when, at the conclusion of his speech, he paid a glowing tribute to the American Stars and Stripes.

In speaking of the relation existing between Ireland and England today, in which he said that England is still displaying the same stupor and indifference with the Irish question that was displayed by Cromwell, Judge D'Arcy said that the greatest part of the present trouble in Ireland is not due to religion, but to the efforts on the part of England to further her trade interests.

Judge D'Arcy, in his opening remarks, claimed a record as a pioneer of Oregon. He said that for more than 60 years he has lived on lot one, block one, ward one and precinct one in Salem, Or.

TAX PLAYS FAVORITES. COPPER CLASSED AS "MUNITIONS," SOUTHERN PRODUCTS ESCAPE.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, July 16.—The Democrats of the House of Representatives have considered the next two bills, which will be the election next November and made certain the retirement of the one Democratic Representative from Utah. They probably have contributed slightly toward Republican success in Colorado.

This was done by the inclusion in the Kitchen revenue bill of a paragraph imposing heavy taxes on copper producers and smelters. This was done on the same theory that the manufacturers of munitions are taxed in the Kitchen bill, the ways and means committee having considered that "copper should be classified with munitions. Why, if this was the theory, Congress did not go further and tax steel, lead, zinc and cotton, all of which enter into the manufacture of munitions, was not told, but it is easy to learn. Zinc comes largely from Missouri. Likewise, cotton is a product of the South. It is steel that is more difficult to determine why it was overlooked, unless out of respect to Senator Underwood, whose state is now a large steel producer.

DAY DRILL IS STRENUOUS

Soldiers Forbidden to Cross Border at Tia Juana, While Civilians Flock to the Races and Other Allurements.

SAN YSIDRO, Cal., July 12.—(Special.)—Yesterday was the last full day here at San Ysidro for the Third Battalion. It was a very full day, too. In fact, the big work started last night, and there has been plenty doing ever since.

About 10 o'clock P. M. there was a Mexican attack. At least, that was what the officers said. The whistles blew and everyone was ordered to turn out in double time. The number of this kind ever a test one, is calculated to turn a camp upside down about as thoroughly as can be.

Armed and equipped, yes; but not dressed according to Hoyle. Some eight men in each squad tent in a rush and give them a couple of minutes to find their guns, shoes and ammunition belts.

The morning attack, however, in Latin America would have been an attack on the ghostly white figures of the minute men assembled in trouserless ranks to repel the attack.

After the troops had drilled an hour Major Abrams announced to the officers that the long-expected invasion by the Mexicans had come. A certain point a couple of miles back of camp it was up to the Mexicans to proceed against this theoretical attack.

The early part of the afternoon, as usual, was devoted to school for non-commissioned officers and men, and the remainder of the time was spent in countless odd jobs of a last day before moving camp.

Many went down to the border to take a last look, or perhaps a stroll, at Mexico at close range. The big monument marking the boundary is but a few hundred yards from the race track at Tia Juana.

"Gringo" Dollars Welcome. But civilians do. In fact, there is a steady stream of American humanity drawn down and presented to the border, the gambling and the other allurements of the Mexican community.

Pythians Will Perform. Uniform Rank to Camp in Vancouver During Portland Session.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 17.—(Special.)—Vancouver is making preparations to entertain 500 visitors expected here when the annual encampment of the uniform rank, Knights of Pythias is held here from July 31 to August 5.

The encampment will be held here during the time that the Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythias, meets in Portland. Parades, drills and contests will be held. Five hundred dollars in prizes have been offered for the best drill team.

MOVE MADE TO SELL FIR. (Continued From First Page.) The West Coast Lumbermen's Association is one of the more active in the country, he said, yesterday that the export demand for lumber at the conclusion of the war will be tremendous.

white Sweden and Germany doubtless offer good supplies to the other countries, much of the European demand, in Mr. Bloedel's opinion, will have to be met by the United States.

Oregon Fir Better Adapted. Spruce from this Coast has been used almost exclusively by the allies in building aeroplanes, and the English railroads suddenly shut off from the material of the Baltic region purchased heavily by Douglas Company, Oregon and British Columbia, and official reports from two of the leading railroads of England are that fir will be principally specified in the future because it has been found to be stronger and more durable than the material formerly obtained from the Danzig and Riga districts.

SEALEM, Or., July 17.—(Special.)—Negative votes only will insure the defeat of the proposed constitutional amendment to allow the manufacture of 4 per cent beer in Oregon, Attorney-General Brown today advised the Oregon Prohibition State Committee.

SEALEM, Or., July 17.—(Special.)—The committee further asserted that the Attorney-General had said that the new dry amendment is an amendment to the amendment now pending, and includes by reiteration the manufacture and sale as already provided for.

SEALEM, Or., July 17.—(Special.)—Passage of the amendment to prohibit importation of liquor into Oregon for beverage purposes would be "the most effective rebuke to the impudent attempt of the brewers to restore the saloon under the guise of solicitude for the commercial interests of the state."
