The Chautauqua tent city inhabitants turned out the prodigal and 2000 visitors welcomed out to hear Wood Briggs and his bewitching Southern drawl today. The Sequoia male quartet, not unknown to Portland, also helped to warm things up a bit in two splendid prelude concerts.

DR. J. W. ASHFORD PASSES

Pioneer Eastern Oregon Physician Dies at Canyon City.

Head of Lycam Is Heard

Sylvester Long, president of the National Lyceum Association, talked tonight to another large crowd. His theme was "Hungry People." His talk was a masterly study of desire. He presented desire as the supreme life force, the one enduring impulse. What a man is according to Mr. Long, depends upon what he wants and how much of a man he is depends upon how earnestly he wants it. Man changes only through the transformation of his desire.

BETTER SERVICE OFFERED

Power Company Asks for Extension of Marshfield Contract.

MARSHFIELD, Or., July 18.—(Special.)

The Oregon Power Company, which supplies Marshfield and North Bend with electricity, has made a tentative offer to the City Council of Marshfield to improve the lighting and reduce the rates. The contract between the city and the company for lighting expires in two years, and the offer is conditional that the Council extend the contract an extra five years. The company proposes to install twice as many lights at intersections and to light all the cluster posts in the downtown section. The difference in cost to the city would work a saving of between $300 and $500. There has been some talk of the city owning its own lighting system. One of the officials said the Council would probably not accept the proposition of the company, once, and might refuse it altogether.

USING UP VITALITY

The struggle for success uses up vitality in America at a greater rate than any other thing. Fighting to keep away from the poor-house we shorten the distance to the grave. Especially in middle age, at forty or thereabouts, do we become impressed with the necessity of laying up competence and with that feeling in time comes worry, nervous breakdown, neurasthenia. The entire system feels the result of the nervous strain. The digestion ceases to function, the heart expands, the heart palpitates on slight exertion, the muscles of the back ache after a day's work. Your blood is thinner and not so bright a red. When these things occur, whether you are fourteen or forty, you need a tonic. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are most people's need because they are non-alcoholic and they really build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. They are useful for growing children and for men and women whose nervous energy has been overtaxed. Your druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 60 cents per box, six boxes $2.80 by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Write today for free booklets on the blood and nerves.

QUINABY, Or., July 18.—(Special.)

Replacing the hop driers burned during the picking season on the upper Lively hopyard, there are six of a new, fireproof model being erected. All are under one roof, but the only fire necessary is in a building separate where an engine generates electricity to operate the big plant. Fans, having a capacity of 10,000 cubic feet of air a minute dry a kilo in eight hours that by the old system required a period of 24 to 36 hours. A cord of wood is saved on each kilo and two men now do the work of 18.

SAWMILLS TO RESUME.

RIDGEFIELD, Wash., July 18.—(Special.)—The Brattle-McClelland shingle mill at this place resumed operations Sunday night, commencing on the night shift. This mill employs 25 men. The H. J. Umatilla Man Elected

REV. J. M. CORNELIUSON IS MODERATOR OF SYNOD. Rev. Joseph Diven, of Albany, Is Reporting Clerk—Consolidation of Colleges to Come Up Soon.

EUGENE, Or., July 18.—(Special.)

Rev. James M. Corneliuson, of the Tutuilla Mission, on the Umatilla Indian reservation, today was elected moderator of the Presbyterian synod of Oregon, in session here. Rev. Joseph Diven, of Albany, was elected reporting clerk. With the election of the moderator the synod began its real work, the morning sessions having been devoted to preliminary business and lectures by university speakers. Action on the proposed union of Albany College, at Albany, and the Pacific University, at Forest Grove, will be taken up later in the week. Pacific University was founded in 1848, and until eight years ago was a Congregational institution, but of late has been nonsectarian. As a nonsectarian institution it has raised an endowment of $200,000. Albany College, as a Presbyterian institution, has an endowment of $250,000. Such a merger has been considered in previous years. Congregationalists in Portland and the people of Albany are opposing such a step at this time. Dr. Calvin H. French, secretary of the Presbyterian college board, is here from New York to take part in the discussions. During his long stage career John Drew has played more than 100 parts.
