

TOTTA BAGG IN GAME DESPITE ACCIDENT

Omar Special Remade Since Los Angeles Crash and Ready for Great Run.

CAR HAS FINE RECORDS

Former Mechanic, in Hospital for Months Following Crash, Writes to Ask He Be Permitted to Ride in Tacoma Races.

BY HARRY M. GRAYSON.

When Omar Toft, the Los Angeles speed king, smashed up his car, the Omar Special, by tearing down 175 feet of fence at Ascot Park, Los Angeles, on the afternoon of March 4, he knocked his own ambition and that of his mechanic, Arthur E. Kincaid, down as a doornail.

The ambition of the pair of speed maniacs was to start in the races at Sheepshead Bay and Minneapolis, which were run off in May.

The accident made thousands of dollars for the Omar Special. The big races were run off the next day, and as the mishap came in a tuning-up heat, the newspapers were full of freak photographs of the smashup the next morning.

Estimated that 25,000 people crowded that ever attended a race meet in Los Angeles, saw the performances the next day.

Teddy Teislauff, the late Bob Burman, Eddie Pullen, Hughie Hughes and Earl Cooper were all warming up their machines that Saturday afternoon.

Both injured in crash. The customary time around was taken to get a flying start. The Omar flew down the home stretch terrifically and coming out of the first turn blew a tire, which caused the car to skid into the fence.

How enthusiastic an auto racer becomes is evident in the fact that only yesterday he was writing to ask a letter from his old mechanic asking if he could ride in the Omar Special at Tacoma August 5.

Toft started driving racing cars in Berlin, Germany, seven years ago. He is 28 years old and was born in St. Louis, Mo. Toft and Kincaid, who is a Seattle, Wash., boy, built the Omar Special in Minneapolis last year.

The Omar special contains a Duesenberg 10-valve motor.

The last part of March it took fourth money in the 300-mile race at Tacoma, Cal., and in the April meet at Ascot Park took third money in the 150-mile event.

Willie Ritchie, ex-champion, has been burning up old news trying to find a match with Freddie Welsh at Colorado Springs. No chance unless Willie wants to guarantee Freddie $25,000.

Charley Miller, the fighting motor-man, will box Jack Lester, ex-heavyweight contender, at Reno July 21.

LA GRANDE TO BE HOST

TO BE ROYALLY ENTERTAINED.

Boxing bouts, Street Parade, Speed Events and Street Carnival to Be Features for July 20-22.

LA GRANDE, Or., July 19.—(Special.)—Ambitious plans to entertain in royal style those who attend the La Grande Motocycle annual far Western motorcycle championship races, July 20-22, are under way.

The feature race of Saturday is the 50-mile event for the Northwest championship. On Sunday the feature race will be the far Western championship event.

Thursday morning merchants of La Grande will take hold of the entertainment. A decorated automobile parade will begin at approximately 2:30 p. m.

Friday night the Moose lodge will be host, featuring Berger against Ray Masaroff, Battle heavyweight.

PORTLAND GETS 1917 MEET

BY EARL R. GOODWIN.

MANITOU PARK, Tacoma, Wash., July 19.—(Special.)—Oregon's representatives in the ninth annual gathering and clay-rock smashing of the Pacific Indians now being held here under the auspices of the Tacoma club scored in every trophy event on the second day's regular programme.

Lou Rayburn, of La Grande, Or., was the second high amateur of today's feat with a mark of 121 out of a possible 125. C. E. McKelvey, of Seattle, led the amateurs with a mark of 119.

A high wind from the southwest took a hand in the affair, and saw to it that the scores of the day were exceptional scores. Abner Blair, of Portland, was fourth high gun with 119 dead birds to his credit.

Siddall Wins Trophy. Tom Wilkes, of Seattle, presented the Pacific Indians with a handsome gold watch and it was shot for on a 50-bird race. Mark Siddall, of Salem, Or., and Al Riehl, of Tacoma, each broke 47.

GOTCH'S INJURY STOPS TALK OF MEETING WITH STECHER.

WHILE MITCHELL'S GREAT PITCHING FOR DETROIT SHOWS WHAT PORTLAND TEAM JUST MISSED.

UNLESS THE INJURY TO FRANK GOTCH'S LEG WAS MAGNIFIED BY THE DISPATCHES, THERE'LL BE NO STECHER-GOTCH WRESTLING TIT FIGHT.

BASEBALL IS FULL OF FRANKS, AS WITNESSED BY THIS SAMPLE: A FEW WEEKS AGO CLEVELAND SECURED WALTERS ON SOUTH-PAW WHILE MITCHELL, AND ORDERED HIM TO REPORT TO PORTLAND. MITCHELL OBJECTED TO A RETIREMENT FROM THE MAJORS, AND ACCEPTED A JOY WITH THE DETROIT AMERICANS AT LEAST MONEY THAN PORTLAND OFFERED.

THE DEALINGS BETWEEN GARNET BUSH, umpire, and the Northwestern League are somewhat clouded. STILL, if the admission of President Blewett that the league really owes Bush $148 is true, it is likely Bush will get the money if he refers his dispute to the National board.

OAKS PARK. Chat No. 68.

There are only a few more days to see Knight's Troubadours at the Oaks.

Yesterday their big opening at "The Oaks" was seen by hundreds of people.

This bright, happy performance with its wealth of fun and college "class" is the greatest treat ever seen at the Oaks.

See the Troubadours this week.

Then, Sunday, remember the big Ferris wheel is coming. So it's certain that one of the greatest treats ever seen before Portland audiences will then be given.

Ferris wheel ranks with Pryor, Sousa and Creator. It is unsurpassed, and it is with great difficulty and expense that we are bringing him to the Oaks. You can see the Ferris wheel at the Oaks at the opening and as often as you can after that. It is a treat that you will not see again for many a year, maybe. It's the first time and place that Ferris wheel has ever been offered at the Oaks at so popular a price as a pleasure resort.

Cars leave first at Alder for Oaks Park every few minutes.

JOHN F. CORDRAY.
