Kin of Missing to See Note.—One possible explanation of the suicide note, recently found in a bottle floating in the river, is the disappearance of Peter Zimmerman, of Aurora, Or., who left his home on June 20, the date of the note. He has not been seen since then. The bottle with this missive was found by houseboat residents, at the foot of Hoyt street, on Monday. Zimmerman has a wife and stepson at Aurora and it is reported that they will come to this city in an endeavor to identify the handwriting. The note is at the Detective Bureau.

FIREMAN FILES TEST CASE

Pay During Suspension for Not Cleaning Citizen's Property Asked.

As an outgrowth of the suspension of several firemen belonging to engine 3 last May because of their refusal to assist in cleaning up trash and refuse on certain premises in the vicinity of the firehouse, J. N. Jepson yesterday filed a claim for $45.95, which is al-leged to be salary due him during the period he was suspended. The case will be heard in the District Court. Emphasis is placed on the fact that the premises which the firemen refused to clean up were private.

reys for Mr. Jepson, said yesterday that the action would be made a test case to determine whether firemen were supposed to be scavengers as well as firemen.
