Efforts of the executive committee of the Pacific Const District. International Longshoremen's Association, which will hold a session today at Seattle, are expected to be directed toward inducing Puget Sound unions to change their attitude, their unanimous vote early in the week being against returning to work at the scale and under conditions that applied before the strike of June I.

J. A. Madsen, secretary-treasurer of the Coast organization, headquarters at Seattle, with Jack Maher and Charles Bennett, Portland members of the executive committee, returned yesterday from San Francisco on the steamer Northern Pacific, and immediately went into session with the strike committee, made up of representatives of unions at Portland, Rainier and Astoria, They made a lengthy report of the situation as it developed at San Francisco.

The executive committeemen are to be at Seattle today. J. J. Foley, president of the Coast body, remained at San Francisco, and Gordon J. Kelly, of Vancouver, B. C., is not expected to attend the gathering. Reports from Seattle and Tacoms are that the union man will not alter their stand in the strike, and that they do not expect the executive committee to ask that they do so in view of the fact the vote on the San Francisco proposal was so overwhelmingly against lt. At the same time, as some of the union officials have been in session with Federal Mediator White, there remains hope that a settlement may foliow.

Mr. Madsen said yesterday to. the fee femans francisco longshoremen are to get a wage increase at the conference to be conducted August 1 between representatives of the employers and the unions, which was the compact under which they returned to work. It is said most of the nonunion men working on the San Francisco docks during the strike have walked out since the union men went back, though there has been no change with reference to the lumined to concessions to the unions.

Some of the union men are inclined to the view that the northern organizations should fellow the San Francisco compromise with the understanding that their demands will be arbitrated. As to the situation here, the impression is that no negotistions will be attempted until after Monday, as the temporary order of Federal Judge Wolverton, issued Wednesday to restrain the strikers from interfering with the affairs of the San Francisco & Portland Steamship Company, was made returnable at 3 o'clock that afternoon.

Frank Berry, Deputy United States Marshal, has served all but two of the union officers mentjoned in the injunction proceeding. Mr. Madsen was not served on his arrival, and P. Ward of Union No. 6, had not been reached last night.

SPOKANE, Wash., July 21.—(Special.)—Louis Hill, president of the Great Northern, in Spokane today was asked about steel equipment. He said:
"We don't want it unless the Government insists," was the answer.
"Steel is too hot in Summer and too cold in Winter. Steel doesn't go in an overcoat country, and the Great Northern believes in the overcoat country thoroughly. Where the overcoat doesn't thrive, they have the hookworm. No we don't want steel cars unless we are forced to use them." (1) A Pause in the Play Programme Proceeded. (2) On a Sec-

Home People Are Hosts to Many Visit ors From Neighboring Cities

COVE. Or., July 21.— (Special.)—
Cove's sixth annual Cherty Fair Thursday was a success from every viewpoint. Attendance was from all parts of Union and Baker counties, including automobile parties from Malheur and Harney, besides visitors from Wastern Oregon and out-of-state points. Cherties were equal to expectations. The exhibition hall was decorated in roses. The programme of 25 numbers was given without a single omission, and opened at 10:30 with one hour and a half noon intermission and contified until the close of the Cherry Fair hop. At 1:30 P. M. King Bing and Queen Anne were crowned by Rev. Charles H. Powell. The queen's speech from her threne was good enough for a Fourth of July oration. Two hundred and fifty girls in the court extemonial made a spectacular picture. Baseball in the merning between fimbler and Cove resulted in a score of 8 to 1 in favor of Imbler. In the evaning game between Eighn and Cove the score was 9 to 4 in favor of Eigin.

J. W. Brewer spoke on get-together and keep-together problems. J. K. Weatherford compared the prosperous thousands present in silks and automobiles with pioneer days, when he freighted will oxen between Umatilia Landing and Boise. Walter M. Pierce warned farmers against the danger ahreatening them in the single tax measure. W. J. Kerr, Senator Von Dehelief and C. E. Spence were much applicated.

Mount Scott Park Dedicated With Due Ceremony.

FESTIVITIES ATTRACT 1500

L. Rossall Is Chairman of Day, Mr. Convill Makes Address, Scouts Give Demonstration and Concert Concludes Celebration.

The new Mount Scott playgrounds, covering three acres, at Fifty-fifth avenue and East Seventy-second street, were dedicated yesterday by a big community gathering with a basket pionic at noon and varied exercises in the afternoon, closing with a basket pionic at noon and varied exercises in the afternoon, closing with a band concert. During the day about 1500 men, wemen and children visited the grounds. This is the only park in the southeastern section of the city.

L. Ressall, who has worked for five years for a yark in the Mount Scott district, was in charge of the programme. Miss Olive Nissley, park instructor, was in charge of the girls folk dances and demonstrations. The dances were by girls dressed in white. Then came the demonstration by Artleta Boy Scouts. No. 21. under the charge of T. Walter Gillard, first showing how to cook by a campfire. Next came the demonstration of a fife in the grass when the scouts extinguished it. One was presumed to have sustained a broken leg and was carried off on a stretcher, and another supposed to have been burned on the face received first-aid on the srounds.

Park Superintendent Convill epoke briefly of the new playgrounds, and gave Mr. Rossall credit for getting the tract, which he said had been leased should unite on the park question, as it would be necessary to purchase a large tract in that acction by the time the lease on the Mount Scott playground expires.

"There are approximately 6000 children in this section, and an estimated population of 25,000," said Mr. Convill, "and at least a 20-tract should be procured, where a awimming pool, playgrounds, ball grounds and community house may be greated."
