Indiana Senatorial Candidate to Be Meeting Speaker at Meeting Friday.

HOOSIERS ARE FOR HUGHES

Ex-Congressman, Personal Friend of Justice, Declares Home Sentiment is Unanimous for Republican Nominee.

James E. Watson, of Rushville, Ind., member of Congress for 12 years and now the Republican candidate for United States Senator from Indiana...

Senator Moser Gets Consent. He is also a personal acquaintance of Mr. Hughes, who in 1908 went to Indiana...

At a meeting in Republican headquarters yesterday, attended by Ralph E. Williams, National committeeman...

Mr. Watson has had an interesting political career. He was a member of Congress from 1905 to 1907 and then from 1909 continuously to 1909.

In 1908, running against Thomas R. Marshall, now Vice-President, he was defeated for Governor of Indiana by a majority of only 8000 votes out of 750,000.

This Spring in the primary he ran against Harry S. New for the Republican nomination for United States Senator against Senator Kern, Democrat, losing by only 4000 votes.

Indiana Strong for Hughes. If elected Mr. Watson will take his seat immediately after Congress convenes next December with four years and three months to serve.

"So far as the rest of the country is concerned, the indications that Mr. Hughes will be elected are growing stronger all the time.

"I know Mr. Hughes' ability as a campaigner from personal experience. When I was running for Governor of Indiana in 1908, he came to Indianapolis and spoke in my behalf.

"No attempt was made in that campaign to do much as answer Mr. Hughes' speech. It couldn't be answered, that was all, and nobody was foolish enough to try."

"In Indiana," went on Mr. Watson, "conditions couldn't be more satisfactory for Republicans than at present. Indiana is politically the best-organized state in the Union."

"Why, there was a meeting of the Republican State Central Committee a few days ago, and Senator Brady, of Idaho, attended the Hughes notification meeting in New York tonight."

SOCIALIST CONFERENCE TOLD OF DIFFICULTIES IN WAY.

Dutch Leader Expresses View That the Superiority of Entente Allies is Coming Into Play.

LONDON, July 31.—The international conference of delegates of the Socialist party of nine neutral countries was opened at The Hague today with an address by the Dutch leader, M. Toelstra, who laid stress on the disastrous consequences of the war in hampering social progress.

Military successes, the speaker declared, had been on the side of the central powers but it seemed the zenith had passed and the superiority of the entente allies in men and money was definitely coming into play.

"The vital interests of all Socialists require them to ask whether the time had not arrived for them to resume their liberty of action, he said."

"The speaker, adds the dispatch, thought that no durable peace was possible on the basis of the present war, or the definite destruction of 'Prussian militarism,' but Socialists must see that restoration of the independence of Belgium and Poland and the constitution of a democratic Balkan federation were made essential points of any peace programme."

"The question of Alsace and Lorraine was more difficult," the dispatches quote the speaker as adding, and he believed the Socialist parties of France and Germany should aim at some such compromise as had been suggested before the war.

Emile Vandervelde, the Belgian minister of state, in a letter explained that he was unable to attend the congress and said his neutral comrades would have the right and duty of speaking as to how they were suffering from the war, as it is to their interest that peace when it comes shall be just if it is to be durable."

KING DEFINES PATRIOTISM. ONE HATES OTHERS, SECOND LOVES OWN, SAYS SERBIAN. Victory by France, Monarch Declares, Will Result in Re-Establishing Harmony of World.

PARIS, July 31.—King Peter, of Serbia, is living almost alone in a little village on a promontory of the Iaso of Zubos in the Aegean Sea, according to a correspondent of the Journal.

The King, who is 72 years old, rises at 4 A. M. every day and rides 40 miles on a motorcycle about the island. Referring to the war, he said to his French interviewer: "Your generals are far better than the generals of the enemy. They have less routine and more talent. As for the men it is enough to try the word 'France' to intoxicate a whole army with confidence."

"There are two patriotisms. One consists of hating the countries of other peoples; the other in loving one's own. France's patriotism is of the latter sort. The victory of France is going to re-establish the harmony of the world."

LADD ESTATE COMPANY PRINCIPALS Half-timber, Plaster-panel house designed by Root and Kerr, Architects Lot 4 Eastmoreland Block 27. An Ideal Home, a "Different" Home, distinctive in plan and combining many unusual features and giving, with its sun-tanned brick veneer first story and with its weatherbeaten half-timber effect and plaster panels above, a homelike and restful appearance, pleasing to the eye and synonymous of comfort within. This is fully apparent as one enters, for here we find it on every hand, but yet not at a sacrifice to utility. The Reception Hall is the key to the entire plan, for from here access is had to any part of the house—den, stairway, living-room and service portion. A single stairway does duty better than a combination, because though partly concealed so that it can be used by servants at will, yet no part of its utility is lost and it also affords passage to the garage, toilet, coat closet, etc., and to the basement. The plan fully explains itself and does not require further description, for a careful examination will show that everything requisite to the comfort and well-being of a family of five or six has been thought out. Would you like to apply the Ladd Thrift Plan to the buying of this home? If so, send in this coupon and we will furnish you with full particulars—explain how much lot 4, block 27 will cost, the approximate cost of the house and the amount of the monthly payments through the Ladd Thrift Plan. Send in the coupon right now. It will not put you under any obligation and you will learn how easily you can buy your home through this plan when you are ready. F. N. Clark & Co.
