Head of Association Calls at White House and Then Advises Continuation of Nen-Partisanship.

WASHINGTON, August 1 .- While Charles E. Hughes was outlining in New York today his position in favor of a Federal woman suffrage amendment, President Wilson was being urged by officials of the National American Woman Suffrage Association to take a like stand. After she left the White House, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the association said the President was weakening in his opposition to the Federal amend-ment, but it had made it that that he still preferred action on the question by the states.

Tonight Mrs. Catt issued a statement saying the association was "highly gratified" over the declaration of the Republican nominee. In response to questions, however, she said that when the organization's National convention met in September she would urge that association's best hope of victory would lie in preserving the presen non-partisan attitude."
