A little lecture on the psychology of becoming a criminal was given by Municipal Judge Langguth yesterday morging when C. H. Odeen and Edgar Rose appeared before him as the result of a physical encounter which they had at the Acme Auto Company's garage, 531 Alder street, where they were employed. The trouble arose over the possession of some tools, and Rose admitted the had threatened "to wrap an iron har around Odeen's neck." The latter took the bar and then threw his of ponent on the floor. Odeen was ar rested on an assault and battery charge. The Judge dismissed the two urging them to patch up their diffi-culties. "My experience has been," said the

he has discovered the secret of consistently sound condition. The Laurelhurst Club has five of the finest and fastest clay courts in the Northwest. They are each 120 feet long by 61 feet wide. These courts are directly across the street from beautiful LAURELHURST PARK and are adjacent to the Laurelhurst Club House, which has lockers and showers for both ladies and gentle-

Spectators are afforded an excellent opportunity to witness the games from elevations adjoining the courts, protected from the stin by artistic ornamental awnings.

The club membership dues for a whole family are but $1.50 per month and the initiation fees are but $10 for seniors and $5 for juniors (under 18).

The privilege of living near this delightful club and beautiful LAURELHURST PARK is in itself worth the price of a home in LAURELHURST.

It doesn't cost any more to live here, where your family would always have the proper home environment and where you would always feel that your children were in refined company.

Your rent money and a small cash payment down will pay for your home. Won't you investigate our home-building proposition?
