CELEBRATION COMMITTEE GIVES NOTICE IN AMPLE TIME.

Organization Has About $400 to Apply on Event Next Year and Will Be Incorporated.

Portland will have a Fourth of July celebration next year. Preliminary steps for the event were taken at the final meeting yesterday afternoon of the committee which managed this year's ceremonica. Notice was ordered to be given to the people of Portland in general and to the civic and fraternal orders in particular, so that they will not make plans to be out of the city July 4. 1917.

O. C. Leiter presided. The final report of Treasurer Reed showed cash receipts amounting to $2745.50. Disbursements were $2316.57, leaving a balance of $428.83. There yet remain three subscriptions totaling $40 to be collected, and bills amounting to $79 to be paid.

When all accounts are settled the cash balance will be about $400. This will be deposited at interest in a bank and used as the nucleus of the fund for next year's celebration. It was the opinion of the committee that this action would be satisfactory to the donors.
