Lecal jobbing quotations:

The wool trade is struggling with the highest prices ever known, according to a Now York trade journal. It says of the market there:

"More business was placed through the local markets by domestic manufacturers in the course of the week, but beyond the extreme firmness of values there is not much now in the situation.

"About a quarter of a million pounds of South Americans changed hands during the week, and offerings are being made there for wool that is still on the sheep's back and cannot begin to come here for three months."

City Commission next Tuesday on the petition asking that the channel of China Ditch be deepened to prevent its annual overflow and subsequent damage to property along its banks.

A plan will be presented by the petitioners that was formulated by Stanley Macomber two years ago, when he was City Engineer, but never carried out. This plan is the construction of a trunk sewer to take the place of the ditch.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Aug. 10,— (Special.)—Construction will begin in a few days on the new warehouse and office building to be erected on the Southern Pacific property near the station by Wells-Fargo Express Company. The new building is to be of concrete blocks, 24x35 feet in size and one story in height. Exterior and rough finish will resemble the Southern Pa-cific station as nearly as possible. In addition to office room, the building will be arranged so as to accommodate 10 loaded trucks at one time.
