LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 18.— (Special.)—The teams split even on the day's doings.

Byron Houck bent Vernon, 5 to 2, in the morning, holding the Tigers to four hits. In the afternoon the Ham-pats gave the Beavers a touch of high winning 3 to 2 in eight and onehalf innings. A resume of the week shows that the afternoon game until the eighth, when Noyes made way for a pinch hitter. This gave A. A. Sothoron a grand little opportunity to go in and get beaten, which he did.

Noyes yielded five hits in seven innings, three of which happened in one round. In the fourth Mattick and Callahan, generally regarded as light hitters, crowned him for triples. These and a single by Whaling, netted two runs.

With Decanniere allowing only two hits, the two runs stood until the eighth, when Portland tied the score on Fisher's double. Vaughn's Texas leaguer, safeties by Evans and Rodgers and Nixon's sacrifice fly.
