Big Contingent Arrives From Spokane to Take Part in Tournament-Course Is Put in Excellent Shape.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. GEARHART, Or., Aug. 14.—(Special.) -The seventh annual Gearhart golf Mrs. J. A. Dougherty, Oregon state will be a contestant however, and with other Waverley experts will give Miss Ford a run for the title, it is expected.

LOSING TO DUFFY. Although the men's qualifying rounds will not be played until Wednesday, golfers have been arriving on evening trains for two days. Russell Smith, Northwest amateur champion, drove in yesterday with Robert McCraken in time for 30 holes of sensational golf. On his first round Champion Smith turned in a card of 71 strokes, only one over par, and this despite one bad hole, which required meven strokes.

Dr. Jonah B. Wise, Tualatin Country Club, R. C. F. Astbury, Medford, Guy O. Sanborn, C. W. Halderman, Astoria; Frank T. McCollough, Spokane.

"Wire when tug leaves."

Immediately upon receipt of the first message the tug Queen was dispatched. Until late today the tug groped blindly about in the fog, but found no trace of the bark and put back to port.

At 4:45 o'clock, after search had been abandoned, there came a third message and that he was putting back worse and that he was putting back to port. This message read:

"Bark Callao six miles southeast of lightship and no anchorage. Send tug."

COEUR D'ALENE, Idaho, Aug. 13.—
(Special.) — Portlami crews won the principal boating events in the annual regatta on Coeur d'Alene Lake, which closed here today. The senior fours' one mile, and senior doubles one-kalf mile went to the visitors, while Coeur d'Alene oarsmen won the senior singles, in which Humphries, of Portland, was third, and the war cance race.

The boating races were exhibitions. The boating races were exhibitions, with Portland and Cocur d'Alene oarsmen dividing forces and putting part of each others crews in the rivais shells. In the log-roiling, Billy Delyea won back his title lost to Billy Moran, of Barrison, Saturday. The men tested each other on the slippery log 3 minutes and 40 seconds before Delyen was able to unfoot Moran. They rolled for 3 minutes flat and then by a sudden twist both fell into the lake. This was declared no fall and the men mounted the log again and it took but 40 seconds for Delyea to spill Moran. The Swastikai Sr., won a nice four-mile handloap race and the owners, Yandt and Peyton, carried off the beau-Spokane Boys Take Part in Final Practice of Pacific Northwest Squad.
