OAKS PARK

CHAT NO. 95

FERULLO and His Band

Every Afternoon and Evening

The music-loving public of Portland has demonstrated its love for good concert music. Owing to that unprecedented demand, Fernilo and his accompanying musicians will be at Oaks Fark another week. The public has demanded it and we are pleased to be able to grant that desire. Portland music lovers know what is good. They know that Fernilo or his kind do not visit Fortland often and they are not going to let him get away before they have had a chance to hear, not one, but many of his superb concerts.

Three weeks of Fernilo has put another feather in our cap. Our reputation for giving extraordinary attractions at a nominal cost has again been sustained. You don't have to pay an enormous price to hear him and you do not have to wait in front of the boxoffice for tickets. You can come here any afternoon or evening in front of the boxoffice for tickets. You can come here any afternoon or evening and hear a concert the like of which you will not often hear. And it's all for 10 cents.

If you want to forget all your troubles come to Oaks Park. Patronire our mirth-provokers and we will guarantee that when you leave the park your face will be wrinkled with smiles and that indigo feeling will have vanished.

If you are looking for some Blace where you can spend a few quiet hours in reading or sewing, or playing cardes with your "club" members, come here. We will make arrangements if you let us know when you are coming. The place is accessible by rail, automobile and water.

Cats leave First and Alder streets every few minutes.

Burial of Soldiers Is Big Task.

PRZEMYSL, Aug. 12.—The creation of cometeries for the men who died in the fourfold conflict for the possession of this city has assumed proportions of an industry in the city and the surrounding district. It has been going on steadily ever since the Austrians retook the city a year ago, but it still is not completed because bodies of many of the heroes have had to be removed from the temporary graves near the spot where they fell and reinterred here. Regardless of nation-
