

9 TEAMS IN DASH FOR WORLD'S TITLE

Three Clubs in National and Six in American Have Chance of Winning.

RED SOX INCREASE LEAD

Spurt by Yanks Is Feature of Ban Johnson's Circuit—Brooklyn Pitching Strength Seems to Give Robins Advantage.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Six American League clubs are separated by virtually the same number of points as are three National League teams and the world's championship is the possible achievement of any of the nine clubs. The American race tightened last week.

In the National League there was not much change among the leaders excepting that Philadelphia moved into second place, sending Boston to third. Boston retains the American lead by a slightly greater margin than at the beginning of the week. Fewer games were played than usual, because of open dates. The Red Sox had a four-game battle with Chicago, winning the first two games, one a 16-inning affair, and losing the last two. Boston also broke even in the two games with Washington but on Saturday won from Cleveland.

The White Sox went into third place Sunday but second Friday after Cleveland lost three straight games to New York. Cleveland began the week well but started the last Eastern trip poorly against New York, the Yankees winning every game. New York made the best advance of any team in the league, winning five straight from Philadelphia and Cleveland but losing Saturday to Chicago.

St. Louis and Detroit managed to keep within striking distance of the leaders. Wednesday saw the Western teams start on their last Eastern trip and the interseasonal victories for the four days were: East, nine; West, eight.

The National race appears to have narrowed down to three teams, with Brooklyn having the best chance with its strong hold on first place and the steadiness of its pitching staff. Philadelphia has only one consistent box man, Alexander.

The last Western invasion by the Eastern teams for 1916 began Thursday. The interseasonal results for the three days were: East, six; West, six.

Nixon Goes to St. Paul.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—First Baseman Louie Guisto left with the Beavers for Portland after this afternoon's game. It is understood here that Ivan Howard, of the Cleveland Indians, is due to arrive in Portland Thursday night to fill Louie's shoes. It is thought that Walter McCredie will keep Guisto until Howard arrives. According to the number of telegrams received here by Walter McCredie in the last few days from Cleveland, the Indians want Guisto badly.

Catcher Harry "Dad" Meek was resigned by the Beavers last night just for a day as he was not taken North. Walt McCredie had him on the bench today because he could jump the breach in case Jack Roche was hurt.

Outfielder Bill Sammis, semi-professional of Los Angeles, did not accompany the club. He has been trying out with the Beavers for the past fortnight and may be taken to the Spring training camp next year as Walt McCredie has him under contract.

Outfielder Billy Nixon left tonight to join the St. Paul team of the American Association. He was sold for cash, but Walt McCredie refused to divulge the price.
