and receipted for a 7-3 licking by Salt

It was not all Lowdermilk's fault. He was a trifle unsteady in early innings. was a triffe unsteady in early innings, and this incipient wildness enabled Salt Lake to get off to a 3-0 start. Portland, however, got Lext to Paul Fittery in the sixth inning and scored enough runs to tie the count before Manager Blankenship could get Bert Hall warmed up to relieve him. Given ordinary support, the tall, lean, lanky, cadaverous, spindly, slatlike Lowdermilk might easily have breezed home to a victory.

But victory was not in the deck.

Ward's Wild Heave Costly.

"Chuck" Ward opened the seventh by chucking wide to first base on Quin-lan's grounder and this pulled the plug. Bayless walked and, after Brief's out, Lowdermilk deliberately walked Easterly to set the stage for a double killing.

Orr produced the double play, all right, but Bill Rodgers gummed up his rather hard-hit grounder and, instead of a double play, two runs clattered across the old home plate. Rath's bunt scored another Bee and a moment later Orr and Kane pulled a double steal and counted the fourth run of the inning.

This clabbered Lowdermilk's chances for a win. Manager McCredie sent in for a win. Manager McCredie sent in a flock of pinch hitters in the ninth, but Bobby Vaughn's walk was the nearest semblance to an attack that ob-truded into the sizzling afternoon.

Louis Guisto came to life again with a leap and astonished the crowd with a nifty backhand stop of Kane's grounder in the fourth inning.

Buddy Ryan didn't relish the heat, and got himself kicked out of the game in the first inning. Buddy disagreed with Umpire Guthrie on a third strike. Easterly finished in the outfield and there was a general switching of talent or the right.

Kenneth Williams is the Southern Oregon boy who was sent up to Cincinnati last Fall by Spokane. He remained with the Reds until this Spring, when illness resulted in his return to class B. He bats left-handed. With Wille's knee in bad shape and Billy Nixon scheduled to leave for St. Paul within the very near future, Williams will find a ready job when he arrives in camp. Gislason, an infielder, and Rube Evans, the ex-Beaver southpaw, are slated to join Salt Lake within the next fort-night—possibly Sunday night, when the Bees leave for San Francisco.

While here yesterday Manager Williams issued a challenge to the Portland Coast club. Inasmuch as Portland has Coast club. Inasmuch as Portland has double-headers on tap for the Saturday, Sunday and Monday preceding the proposed date—Tuesday, September 5—there does not seem strong likelihood of any such inter-league affray this year.

Spokane is playing Tacoma at Tacoma, and while Nick was absent yesterday his team won a 10-inning game from the Tigers, 6-2. Williams says Spokane is outdrawing any city in the league about 2 to 1.

JAP USES "PULLED DRIVE"

Late Anthony Wilding's Old Stroke

Handled Cleverly by Nipponese. NEW YORK, Aug. 23,-Tennis experts, who have been studying the style of Ichiya Kumagae since the re-cent victories of the Japanese champion, showed him to be a formidable contender for the National title here next week, say that Kumagae's success is due to his use of the "pulled drive," one of the rarest strokes in the

This stroke, they say, corresponds to the pull in golf. Its effect is to make the ball spin upon an axis tilted away from the player at an angle of about 35 degrees. The bail is heavily cut sideways, upward and cutward, and the effect is a wide curve in flight and a very puzzling bound or break after it strikes the ground.

It is said that this stroke was used successfully by the late Anthony F. Wilding, the British and Australian champion, but it is virtually unknown in the United States
