

SOCIETY NEWS

BY GERTRUDE P. CORBETT

ENGAGEMENTS and weddings are tumbling over each other these early Fall days. The latest announcement is that of the engagement of Miss Harriett D. Jellison to Herbert D. Landes, of Salt Lake City. Miss Jellison is probably one of the best-known girls of Portland in social service and philanthropic work, as well as in society. For several years she has been president of the Fruit and Flower Mission and Day Nursery, and also is actively identified with the work of the People's Institute.

She has accomplished a great deal with her work in the various organizations in which she is interested, and her efforts have brought much cheer and sunshine into many lives. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Jellison, sister of Mrs. Vera J. Wolcott, who made known the happy news yesterday at a charming tea at the residence of her mother. Only the bride-elect's closest friends were bidden to share in the festivities, and the hostess was assisted by Miss Beulah Bridges and Miss Agnes Beach. Little Helen Wolcott and Jessie Smith received the guests at the door and presented them with the formal announcements. Mrs. Orange M. Clark and Mrs. Harry K. Haak presided at the tea table, which was adorned with a large bowl of vases of flowers. In the drawing-room an arrangement of pink roses and gladioli, with the feathery huckleberry as a background, was most effective.

Miss Jellison is a graduate of the Monticello Seminary, of Godfrey, Ill., and with her family formerly made her home in Kansas. Mr. Landes also is a former Kansan, now making his home in Salt Lake for several years, where he is prominent in machinery and implement circles. He also is popular socially. The wedding will be an interesting event of mid-October.

Another equally interesting announcement that has just reached here is that of the engagement of Miss Long, Jr., to Miss Madeline Pratt, of Elmira, N. Y. Mr. Long is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Long, of this city, and has for the past few years been in New York studying the manufacture of automobile fire apparatus, in which business his father also is interested.

While in Elmira he met his fiancée, and the engagement was announced last week by Mrs. G. W. Long, only charming bride party. The bride-to-be is a daughter of Mrs. David Pratt, and formerly resided in this city, where her mother and an aunt made her home for a few years. Miss Pratt is a granddaughter of Judge Woodward, of this city, and was graduated from Smith College in 1914.

Mr. Long is a Boston "Tech" man, also being graduated from Portland Academy, and is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi fraternity. He is a brother of Mrs. Lloyd Bates, of this city; Mrs. Mary E. Evans, of Seattle; Miss Mary Long, Walter and Howard Long, of this city.

The wedding is planned for early Spring, when the young people probably will visit in this city.

Miss Kathleen Seely entertained yesterday with a delightful tea honoring Miss Greata Wolcott Wood, of Christchurch, N. Z., who is visiting here, accompanied by her parents. The tea was a small and informal affair, only about 20 of the younger contingent being asked.

Miss Marcia Parker, Miss Constance Piper and Miss Margaret Reader assisted the young hostess. The rooms were attractively decked with pink and lavender sweet peas and asters.

Miss Rose Welser was hostess for Miss Carrie Bromberg, bride-elect, Saturday afternoon at a box company luncheon, followed by a pretty appointment at the Portland Hotel. Covers were laid for six.

Miss Katharine Tyler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Tyler, of 682 Talbot road, has accepted a position as teacher of the first class in the Starrett School for Girls, Chicago. Miss Tyler was recently graduated with high honors from the normal department of the Art Institute, Chicago. Her unusually high recommendations secured for her this position in one of the old-established private schools of Chicago. She will leave for that city about September 15 and may be accompanied by one or two young women of the Pacific Coast who will enter that school as students.

Mrs. Kenneth Beebe left yesterday for a few days' visit with Mrs. Arthur M. Sherwood at Gearhart. She will be joined over the week-end by Mr. Beebe and return to Portland on Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Calver, Benedict and small son Fritz, of the Vancouver post will leave today for San Diego to join Lieutenant Benedict, who is a member of the Army aviation corps. Lieutenant Benedict was formerly attached to the Twenty-first Infantry at Vancouver Barracks, and has been for some time with his regiment at the Mexican border. Recently he entered the aviation corps and is now stationed at San Diego.

Mrs. Robert Glasgow, of Salmon Arm, B. C., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Manner, for several weeks at their beach home, is convalescing from an operation at Good Samaritan Hospital.

Mrs. Joseph Alexander McCord left yesterday to join her husband in Des Moines, Ia., where he has been transferred in the interests of the Ford Motor Car Co. Mrs. McCord's son David accompanied her.

The McCord family were very popular in Portland socially and in church circles, being prominent members of Trinity Episcopal Church, and their hosts of friends deeply regret their departure.

M. C. Woodward and family, who have been passing the summer at Silverton, Or., where Mr. Woodward is building a large sawmill, returned last week to their home in Irvington, 615 Thompson street.

Amidst a profusion of palms and bride roses, at the First Presbyterian Church, Miss Delberta Stuart last night became the bride of Charles Haddon Manners, of Underwood, Wash. The edifice was thronged with a fashionable assemblage, and the ceremony was read by the rector, Dr. John H. Boyd. Miss Genevieve Butterfield sang, presiding in the ceremony. "At Dawning" followed by "Because." Edgar E. Courson was at the organ. Mr. Courson played the wedding march and also played during the ceremony.

The guests were ushered by Frank Kerr, Jay Coffey, Howard Charlton and Henry Ladd, of Underwood. Nathan Mears acted as best man, and Mrs. Jay Coffey was matron of honor. Little Frances Kerr in a most charming and quaint frock, carrying a shepherd crook, was ring bearer.

PORTLAND GIRL WHO HAS LEFT FOR THE UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON.

Miss Lucile Edwards Johnson, a graduate of Washington High School, left for Seattle last Sunday to attend the University of Washington.

from the shoulders and was edged with a plating of lace. The veil was arranged in a semi-crown, high at the back of the coiffure. Her bouquet was an exquisite arrangement of Ophelia roses with a shower of Cecil Bruner buds.

Mrs. Coffey was gowned in a gold-colored tulle dress, embellished with dainty gold thread lace. She carried a bouquet of pink asters and Mrs. Aaron Ward rosebuds.

At the Francis Kerrs' home was a quaint model of chignon taffeta of a pale pink tint, made very full and hooped over white net. The shepherdess' crook was topped with a huge calla lily tied with a fluffy bow of tulle.

Following the ceremony a small reception was held at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kerr. Only the closest friends of the couple and their relatives were included in the reception.

Mrs. Dell Stuart, mother of the bride, and the Frank Kerrs received with the bride party. Mrs. Stuart wore a handsome model of pink tulle almost enveloped with silver lace. Her corsage was of lavender sweet peas. Mrs. Kerr chose a lovely gown of yellow tulle and lace with pink roses.

The house was attractively decked with roses and sweet peas. Ophelia roses in a broad low basket tied with tulle bows adorned the bridal table, over which Mrs. Nathan Mears, of Underwood, and Miss Etta Morris, of Philadelphia, presided. Lilies, roses and sweet peas in the pink and white effect were used in the drawing-room.

Two of the bride's brothers, Wayne Stuart, of Albany, and Bruce Stuart, of Toledo, O., came on for the ceremony. The former gave the bride in marriage. Owing to the prevalence of the malignant disease in New York the family of the bridegroom were unable to attend the affair, as they left early in the summer for the woods in Maine.

Mrs. John M. Dunn will entertain this afternoon with a bridge-tee honoring two charming matrons, Mrs. Frederick Graydon-Smith and Mrs. Vincent Smith, of Denver and Canyon City, Colo., both of whom are prominent socially and in clubdom in Colorado. Five tables will be arranged for bridge, and additional guests will augment the party at tea time.

Raynor Chapter of Annie Wright Seminary will hold their monthly luncheon Friday at the Hazelwood, and cordially invite all members of the chapter to attend.

George H. Butterfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Butterfield, will leave September 13 for Columbus, O., to enter the state university for a special course in optometry. Young Mr. Butterfield recently was graduated from Hill Military Academy.

Mrs. Oscar Rittenberg, who has been visiting in Minneapolis and New York for several months, has returned to her apartments in Hotel Norton.

Mrs. Nellie Williams and daughter, Virginia, have returned from a delightful visit in Seattle with Mrs. Williams' brother, William Gates, a well-known marine engineer. Mrs. Williams also was entertained by the MacWaters at the home of Anne Hill, former Portland residents.

One of the prettiest events of Tuesday was the luncheon presided over by Miss Clara Teal in honor of Mrs. George Teal, of Seattle, who is visiting here. The affair was given at the University Club, and covers were placed for 10.

The Peninsula Park Lavender Club will meet today in the field house of Peninsula Park. Mrs. Cornelia Haynes will preside. The club has grown in strength, numbers and interest. There are now 100 members. All are more than 50 years of age. After each business meeting or program the "lavender ladies" always conclude with a Virginia reel.

It was about two years ago that Mrs. Marion Dryden saw that there were interests for the children, for the middle-aged, for everyone except the elderly women. "Why not have a club all their own?" No sooner was the question asked than Mrs. Dryden got busy and called a meeting. In response many women attended. Some were rich, some were poor, but all had a common interest. They had passed more than 50 milestones on the road-way of life and, although some people regarded them as old; they knew they were young enough to have a good time. And so they organized. Mrs. Haynes was elected president and she named the club.

"It is wonderful to discover how many talents we have," said Mrs. Haynes in commenting on the growth of the club and its activities. "One little woman who is 89 recites beautifully, another plays the piano. Every one is happy in the club work."

Today business will be the feature and the next meeting will be a birthday party.

Seattle has caught the enthusiasm and has a club organized along similar lines. In Portland there are two clubs and another will soon be organized on the West Side. A meeting will be called in the Library soon.

Considerable charitable work is done, the women making it their duty to look after elderly women who are friendless or in trouble.

An opening feature of the convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association yesterday in Atlantic City was the triangular debate by Miss Laura Clay, of Kentucky; Mrs. Ida Husted Harper, of Washington, and Mrs. Raymond Brown, of New York, who presented the merits of some model of pink tulle almost enveloped with silver lace. Her corsage was of lavender sweet peas. Mrs. Kerr chose a lovely gown of yellow tulle and lace with pink roses.

Mrs. Bertha Taylor Voorhorst, formerly of Portland, will exhibit lantern slides showing the Yellowstone National Park and Columbia River Highway views and will tell of the merits and attractions of the West. To celebrate the semi-centennial of suffrage in Wyoming it is planned to hold a celebration in the Yellowstone Park. Wyoming was the first suffrage state, having gained the franchise for women in 1893. Mrs. Voorhorst is arranging the preliminary details of the semi-centennial observance and is looking to the railway companies and the Chambers of Commerce of different cities for co-operation.

HOME CHAUTAUQUA and Domestic Science Exposition

AT THE ARMORY DOORS OPEN AT 1 P. M.

Japanese Tea Garden—In charge of Episcopal and Congregational ladies. Trinity M. E., Oakley Green Evangelical, Millard-avenue Presbyterian and Alberta United Brethren have booths in Church Bazaar.

1:30 P. M.—Cooking Class by Mary Jane Marshment; bring spoon, small dish and note book. Sewing class by Madame Heywood; bring note book.

3:00 P. M.—"Modern Methods of Teaching the Deaf," with demonstration by Mrs. C. A. Ward, president Oregon Association for the Education of the Deaf.

4:30 P. M.—Style Show.
7:30 P. M.—Sewing and Cooking School.
9:00 P. M.—"The Pure Food Situation," by Dr. William Conger Morgan, professor of chemistry, Reed College.
Music by Columbian Ladies' Orchestra and Kapello Ladies' Quartet.

Playground in charge of Dr. Cora Talbot. Nursery in charge of Mrs. John L. Shaw Snead.

home of Mrs. George Welster, 653 East Fifteenth street, North, Irvington. Christian Larson, Mrs. Welster and Mrs. Mildred Kyle will give short addresses.

Mr. and Mrs. Welster have just returned from the clubhouse at Manzanita. Miss Elmer Carr accompanied them. She has been doing some painting and sketching with Mrs. Welster and will exhibit some of her work at the State Fair.

COMMENCEMENT IS SET

MEIER & FRANK SALESMEN FINISH THEIR COURSE.

Exercise, Marking End of Summer's Study Under University Professor, to Be Held at Library.

Two hundred employees of the Meier & Frank Company, who have just completed a course in salesmanship, given under the auspices of the company, will hold their "commencement" exercises Friday night at 8 o'clock at the Library Hall.

These will be the first commencement exercises of their kind held in Portland, as the Meier & Frank Company is the first big concern of its kind to put in a salesmanship course for the advantage and development of its employees.

Professor G. Robert McLaughlin, of the school of commerce of the University of Oregon, conducted the course, classes being held each morning from 8 to 9 o'clock and from 9 to 10 o'clock. The course began June 21, and will conclude today.

Dean D. Walter Morton, of the school of commerce of the University of Oregon, will attend the commencement and will be one of the chief speakers.

Although the course was given by a University of Oregon professor, it is not a part of the extension work proper, but was put on at the expense of the store, Professor McLaughlin giving his vacation time to the teaching, when his duties in the university were not required.

Meier & Frank contemplate development of further courses in future to give still more of their employees opportunity to increase their ability and advancement in their work.

supplies brought about the readjustment in values. The decline was the most extensive that has occurred since the war began.

The new wholesale price of sugar at Portland is $7 a hundred. The highest price of the year, and in fact in the history of Pacific Coast markets, was $8.45, which prevailed in May. Last year the market did not get beyond $6 a sack.

Prices Drop 75 Cents on Opening of Beet Crop Season.

A drop of 75 cents a sack in sugar prices was announced in the local market yesterday morning. A similar decline at New York set the pace for all sugar markets throughout the country.

The new-crop beet sugar season has now opened and the large increase in the price of sugar is being felt.

NOTHING COMPARES WITH IT

No raise is so sure as the raise

Crescent Baking Powder

will give your biscuits, cakes and rolls. Your grocer will gladly supply you.

ONE POUND 25¢

Crescent Mfg. Co., Seattle, Wash.

Reservations for the Federation luncheon to be held Saturday, in the Hotel Portland, should be made today with Mrs. C. N. Rankin or Mrs. J. A. Pettit.

A reception for all the members of the Portland Psychology Club will be held on Thursday of next week in the home of Mrs. George Welster, 653 East Fifteenth street, North, Irvington. Christian Larson, Mrs. Welster and Mrs. Mildred Kyle will give short addresses.

Mr. and Mrs. Welster have just returned from the clubhouse at Manzanita. Miss Elmer Carr accompanied them. She has been doing some painting and sketching with Mrs. Welster and will exhibit some of her work at the State Fair.

home of Mrs. George Welster, 653 East Fifteenth street, North, Irvington. Christian Larson, Mrs. Welster and Mrs. Mildred Kyle will give short addresses.

Mr. and Mrs. Welster have just returned from the clubhouse at Manzanita. Miss Elmer Carr accompanied them. She has been doing some painting and sketching with Mrs. Welster and will exhibit some of her work at the State Fair.

A Baby Grand Piano for $495

Because of the growing demand for an inexpensive Grand Piano we had built for us the ALDRICH BABY GRAND. The specifications agreed upon by the manufacturers and ourselves are such that we can fully commend its value as a musical instrument and protect it with our guarantee. Three features characterize this remarkable little Grand:

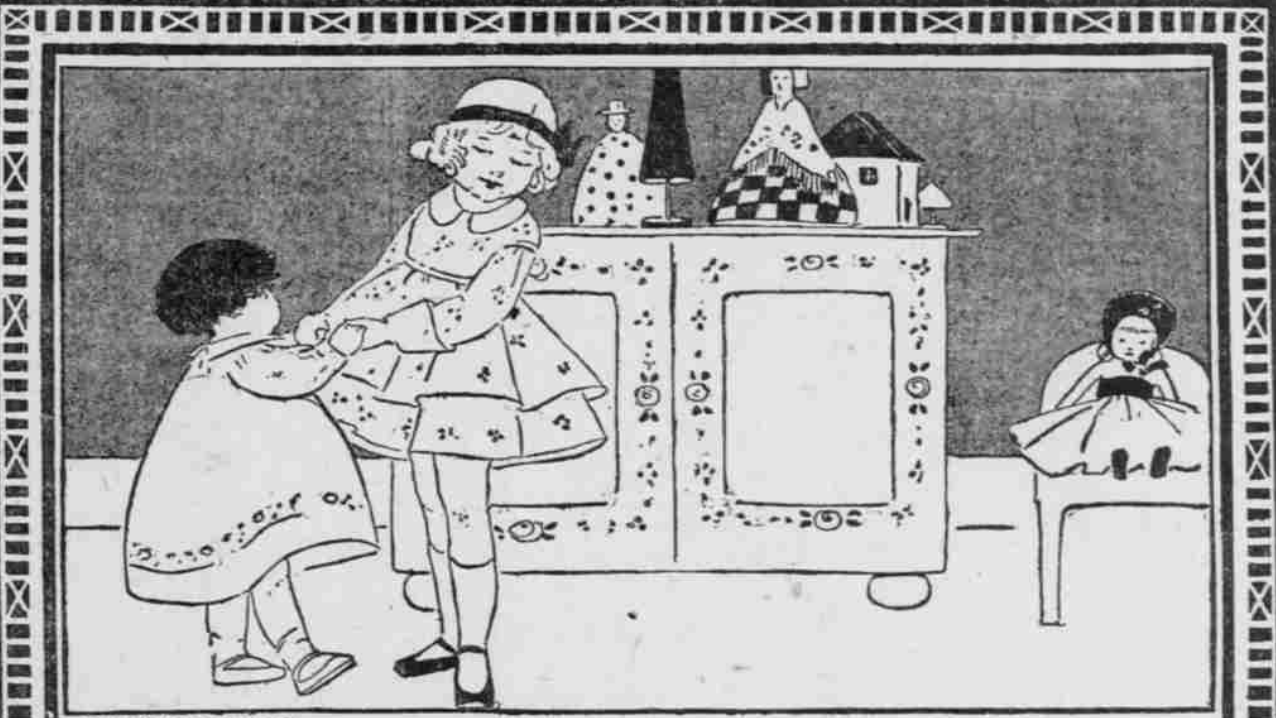

1. It is a real Grand Piano—it has identically the same keyboard as the larger and more expensive Grands. The tone and action are good, and, cased in choice mahogany, the architectural beauty is very pleasing.
2. It takes up no more room than the ordinary upright when placed across a corner or in a nook. Upon request (by phone or postal card) we will gladly mail (without charge) a tissue paper pattern the exact size of this little grand, which, when spread out on the floor, will show how conveniently it will fit your room.
3. It is priced no higher than a good upright—$495. If desired we will arrange very convenient payment terms. If you have an upright piano we will make a generous allowance on it toward this wonderful little grand.

If you have always desired a Grand Piano in your home, but felt that you could not afford it, or that your living-room was too small to accommodate it, you can now gratify your desire in the ALDRICH BABY GRAND.

Sherman, Clay & Co.

Sixth and Morrison Opposite Postoffice

Dealers in Steinway and other good Pianos, Pianola Pianos, Victrolas and Records, Player Rolls, Cabinets, etc.

HUM the time, start the step, Sister will show you how to dance. Brother's having great fun.

Sister also knows just what he likes best to eat—Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes—a great big bowlful with good milk to float the flakes and bring out the delicious Kellogg flavor.

Packed Waxtite—Look for this signature.

W.K. Kellogg

Imitations come and go! They change their name. They change their form. Some do both.

Kellogg's—the Original Toasted Corn Flakes remain as original as ever—light, and dainty, appetizing in flavor with a melting crispness on the tongue.

When you slice these clean, inviting loaves, you find the texture inside smooth and perfect—a creamy white, firm inner loaf.

Its Taste Never Disappoints

Baked by Franks at the U. S. Bakery, Cor. E. 11th and Flanders Sts.