

LOCAL NEWS

PROMINENT MAID WHO LAST NIGHT BECAME BRIDE OF WELL-KNOWN PORTLAND MAN.

In a lovely Italian garden setting, Miss Stella Wolfe last night became the bride of Edwin I. Neustadter. The ceremony was solemnized at 8 o'clock by Dr. Jonah B. Wise in the beautiful and spacious hall. An altar was erected in one end at the side of the broad staircase. The altar was decorated with about nine feet at the back, was covered with a magnificent gold brocade cloth about eight feet wide and was flanked on either side by wonderful gold and silver lace, which was made years ago in Turkey at the order of the Sultan. On the altar were several seven-branched candelabra, a beautiful Sabbath lamp being suspended over the center.

Italian marble and onyx converted the huge hall into a veritable garden. The gleaming white benches, fountains, pedestals and standards were filled with beautiful blossoms, and linked together with garlands of golden Summer chrysanthemums and lavender asters. Great clusters of tall double sunflowers nodded their heavy heads from the staircase, the rails also being festooned with vivid-hued autumnal foliage, which made a charming foil for the golden altar.

The bride, an exceptionally lovely girl, was attended by her sister, Miss Florence Wolfe, as maid of honor, Walter Rosenfeld acting as best man.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Henry V. Metzger sang and played the organ. Edward E. Courson at the piano, Sanford Wendel, a cousin of the bride, played the "Meditation" from "Thais" during the ceremony. Mr. Courson playing the wedding march.

The charming young bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractively gowned in a tulle and silver creation. A foundation of cloth of silver peeped through billows of tulle, which ended in deep points edged with silver. A full court train of the cloth of silver was gracefully hung from the shoulders and enveloped by the cloudlike tulle, a short veil also being worn. The veil, arranged in a small coronet, was banded with orange blossoms. A departure from the customary bridal bouquets was noted. Instead of the shower, the bride carried an old-fashioned cluster bouquet made entirely of white blossoms. They were bouvardia, staphylea, and white and bride roses arranged in a tall holder.

Miss Florence Wolfe was her sister's only attendant and she wore a handsome gown of apricot satin with exquisite silver lace. It was made bouffant and ankle length. She carried a gold basket filled with bouquet roses and lavender asters, tied with a fluffy lavender bow.

Only relatives and closest friends were invited to the ceremony and the reception which followed. An elaborate wedding feast was served, the bride's table, exquisitely arranged and bedecked, being set in the rose drawing-room. Here again Mrs. Fecheimer achieved an artistic triumph, as in the entire designing and arranging of the floral decorations. Tall spikes of the soft rose, blue and lavender-tinted delphinium were combined with pink asters and cut with a big effect. Pink lilies, harmonizing with the lovely rose furnishings of the room. In the supper-room, where the other tables were bedecked, an autumnal effect was obtained with red and brown tints. Zinnias in the orange, red and copper shades, brilliant and effective, and yellow cockscomb and sunflowers were striking against a background of tall kaffir corn, the cockscomb blossoms in the deep red-brown tint being most attractive.

Following the bride wore a smart navy blue tulle suit, with deep white collar and cuffs. Mr. and Mrs. Neustadter left for a month's trip through the Puget Sound cities and also will visit Lakag Lake, Lake Louise and other scenic spots. They will return to Portland they will be at home at 66 Lucetta place.

The wedding has special significance, inasmuch as it unites two old and prominent families; also the fact that the Wolfe family are among the pioneers of Oregon and were prominently identified with the early history and commercial growth of Portland.

Adolph Wolfe, father of the bride, is the president of the big and well-known establishment, Lipman, Wolfe & Co., one of Portland's oldest mercantile organizations. His wife, Mrs. Wolfe, family also are actively engaged in Portland's business circles. Mr. Neustadter being a son of Benjamin Neustadter, of Neustadter Bros., an old established concern.

The bride, after being graduated from Portland Academy, attended Heberberg University for a year, traveling considerably on the Continent, and recently she took a special course of study at Reed College. Mr. Neustadter is a well-known clubman and also attended Portland Academy, the courtship of the young folk really dating back to school days.

Society is now rejoicing over the fact that dinner-dances are to be added to their steadily-increasing list of diversions. Hotel Portland, which has held an important position in the social life of the city, has announced the opening of their series of dinner-dances for tonight at 8:15 continuing until 8:15, a special orchestra being provided for the dancing. A long list of reservations of prominent folk, many of whom will entertain parties of four, six and eight, some even larger, having been received, the opening night, special and elaborate floral decorations as well as many features to be introduced during the evening will make this evening notable.

These dances will be held every night except Sunday night. It will prove a delightful meeting of entertaining the visitors to town, the debutantes and the engaged folk, as well as any other devotees of the art of entertaining. Even non-dancers will enjoy the dinner-dances, as spectators, as Portland society boasts of many exceptionally clever and graceful dancers, both men and women.

Mrs. George Webster, honorary president of the Portland Psychology Club, opened her new home in Irvington yesterday for an elaborate reception, at which all members of the club were guests. Mrs. Mildred Kyle, president of the club, received with Mrs. Webster. Mrs. J. H. MacKenzie, Mrs. Charles and Mrs. P. J. Bannon, Miss Love, in the club assisted about the rooms.

A motor party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Riley, daughter, Miss Ruth Riley, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, and children, Billy and Percy, will leave for Hood River Valley today to pass several days at Mount Hood Lodge with Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Lerch, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Quakenbush and Mrs. H. H. Young returned Tuesday morning from a 10 days' motor trip covering more than 900 miles, visiting the cities of Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

Mrs. A. R. Ten Brook is visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon, Mrs. Ten Brook returned from Marshfield, in time to meet her son, John, who came home with his company from the Mexican border.

Miss Mary Leiser, of Spokane, Wash., is visiting Miss Agnes Love at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon. Miss Love has returned from the Agency

in Malheur County, where she visited her father.

Miss Agnes Love was hostess for a luncheon Tuesday in honor of Miss Mary Leiser, of Spokane, Wash. A pink color scheme was carried out and Cecil Bruner roses decked the table.

Mrs. J. S. Groo and little daughter, Julia, have returned from Salt Lake City, where they passed the Summer months.

Mrs. W. J. Van Schuyver is expected to return home here today, after a short visit to San Francisco. Mr. Van Schuyver will continue in the South a few weeks longer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Mackenzie and children are now domiciled in apartments at the Alvarado for the Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Reade, who have been spending the time on the Willamette River for the Summer months, will return today to their apartments in the Willmar.

Miss Velma D. Sawyer has just returned from a six weeks' visit at Cannon Beach.

Adolph Wolfe, father of the bride, is the president of the big and well-known establishment, Lipman, Wolfe & Co., one of Portland's oldest mercantile organizations. His wife, Mrs. Wolfe, family also are actively engaged in Portland's business circles. Mr. Neustadter being a son of Benjamin Neustadter, of Neustadter Bros., an old established concern.

The bride, after being graduated from Portland Academy, attended Heberberg University for a year, traveling considerably on the Continent, and recently she took a special course of study at Reed College. Mr. Neustadter is a well-known clubman and also attended Portland Academy, the courtship of the young folk really dating back to school days.

Society is now rejoicing over the fact that dinner-dances are to be added to their steadily-increasing list of diversions. Hotel Portland, which has held an important position in the social life of the city, has announced the opening of their series of dinner-dances for tonight at 8:15 continuing until 8:15, a special orchestra being provided for the dancing. A long list of reservations of prominent folk, many of whom will entertain parties of four, six and eight, some even larger, having been received, the opening night, special and elaborate floral decorations as well as many features to be introduced during the evening will make this evening notable.

These dances will be held every night except Sunday night. It will prove a delightful meeting of entertaining the visitors to town, the debutantes and the engaged folk, as well as any other devotees of the art of entertaining. Even non-dancers will enjoy the dinner-dances, as spectators, as Portland society boasts of many exceptionally clever and graceful dancers, both men and women.

Mrs. George Webster, honorary president of the Portland Psychology Club, opened her new home in Irvington yesterday for an elaborate reception, at which all members of the club were guests. Mrs. Mildred Kyle, president of the club, received with Mrs. Webster. Mrs. J. H. MacKenzie, Mrs. Charles and Mrs. P. J. Bannon, Miss Love, in the club assisted about the rooms.

A motor party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Riley, daughter, Miss Ruth Riley, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, and children, Billy and Percy, will leave for Hood River Valley today to pass several days at Mount Hood Lodge with Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Lerch, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Quakenbush and Mrs. H. H. Young returned Tuesday morning from a 10 days' motor trip covering more than 900 miles, visiting the cities of Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

Mrs. A. R. Ten Brook is visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon, Mrs. Ten Brook returned from Marshfield, in time to meet her son, John, who came home with his company from the Mexican border.

Miss Mary Leiser, of Spokane, Wash., is visiting Miss Agnes Love at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon. Miss Love has returned from the Agency

in Malheur County, where she visited her father.

Miss Agnes Love was hostess for a luncheon Tuesday in honor of Miss Mary Leiser, of Spokane, Wash. A pink color scheme was carried out and Cecil Bruner roses decked the table.

Mrs. J. S. Groo and little daughter, Julia, have returned from Salt Lake City, where they passed the Summer months.

Mrs. W. J. Van Schuyver is expected to return home here today, after a short visit to San Francisco. Mr. Van Schuyver will continue in the South a few weeks longer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Mackenzie and children are now domiciled in apartments at the Alvarado for the Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Reade, who have been spending the time on the Willamette River for the Summer months, will return today to their apartments in the Willmar.

Miss Velma D. Sawyer has just returned from a six weeks' visit at Cannon Beach.

Adolph Wolfe, father of the bride, is the president of the big and well-known establishment, Lipman, Wolfe & Co., one of Portland's oldest mercantile organizations. His wife, Mrs. Wolfe, family also are actively engaged in Portland's business circles. Mr. Neustadter being a son of Benjamin Neustadter, of Neustadter Bros., an old established concern.

The bride, after being graduated from Portland Academy, attended Heberberg University for a year, traveling considerably on the Continent, and recently she took a special course of study at Reed College. Mr. Neustadter is a well-known clubman and also attended Portland Academy, the courtship of the young folk really dating back to school days.

Society is now rejoicing over the fact that dinner-dances are to be added to their steadily-increasing list of diversions. Hotel Portland, which has held an important position in the social life of the city, has announced the opening of their series of dinner-dances for tonight at 8:15 continuing until 8:15, a special orchestra being provided for the dancing. A long list of reservations of prominent folk, many of whom will entertain parties of four, six and eight, some even larger, having been received, the opening night, special and elaborate floral decorations as well as many features to be introduced during the evening will make this evening notable.

These dances will be held every night except Sunday night. It will prove a delightful meeting of entertaining the visitors to town, the debutantes and the engaged folk, as well as any other devotees of the art of entertaining. Even non-dancers will enjoy the dinner-dances, as spectators, as Portland society boasts of many exceptionally clever and graceful dancers, both men and women.

Mrs. George Webster, honorary president of the Portland Psychology Club, opened her new home in Irvington yesterday for an elaborate reception, at which all members of the club were guests. Mrs. Mildred Kyle, president of the club, received with Mrs. Webster. Mrs. J. H. MacKenzie, Mrs. Charles and Mrs. P. J. Bannon, Miss Love, in the club assisted about the rooms.

A motor party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Riley, daughter, Miss Ruth Riley, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, and children, Billy and Percy, will leave for Hood River Valley today to pass several days at Mount Hood Lodge with Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Lerch, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Quakenbush and Mrs. H. H. Young returned Tuesday morning from a 10 days' motor trip covering more than 900 miles, visiting the cities of Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

Mrs. A. R. Ten Brook is visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon, Mrs. Ten Brook returned from Marshfield, in time to meet her son, John, who came home with his company from the Mexican border.

Miss Mary Leiser, of Spokane, Wash., is visiting Miss Agnes Love at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon. Miss Love has returned from the Agency

in Malheur County, where she visited her father.

Miss Agnes Love was hostess for a luncheon Tuesday in honor of Miss Mary Leiser, of Spokane, Wash. A pink color scheme was carried out and Cecil Bruner roses decked the table.

Mrs. J. S. Groo and little daughter, Julia, have returned from Salt Lake City, where they passed the Summer months.

Mrs. W. J. Van Schuyver is expected to return home here today, after a short visit to San Francisco. Mr. Van Schuyver will continue in the South a few weeks longer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Mackenzie and children are now domiciled in apartments at the Alvarado for the Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Reade, who have been spending the time on the Willamette River for the Summer months, will return today to their apartments in the Willmar.

Miss Velma D. Sawyer has just returned from a six weeks' visit at Cannon Beach.

Adolph Wolfe, father of the bride, is the president of the big and well-known establishment, Lipman, Wolfe & Co., one of Portland's oldest mercantile organizations. His wife, Mrs. Wolfe, family also are actively engaged in Portland's business circles. Mr. Neustadter being a son of Benjamin Neustadter, of Neustadter Bros., an old established concern.

The bride, after being graduated from Portland Academy, attended Heberberg University for a year, traveling considerably on the Continent, and recently she took a special course of study at Reed College. Mr. Neustadter is a well-known clubman and also attended Portland Academy, the courtship of the young folk really dating back to school days.

Society is now rejoicing over the fact that dinner-dances are to be added to their steadily-increasing list of diversions. Hotel Portland, which has held an important position in the social life of the city, has announced the opening of their series of dinner-dances for tonight at 8:15 continuing until 8:15, a special orchestra being provided for the dancing. A long list of reservations of prominent folk, many of whom will entertain parties of four, six and eight, some even larger, having been received, the opening night, special and elaborate floral decorations as well as many features to be introduced during the evening will make this evening notable.

These dances will be held every night except Sunday night. It will prove a delightful meeting of entertaining the visitors to town, the debutantes and the engaged folk, as well as any other devotees of the art of entertaining. Even non-dancers will enjoy the dinner-dances, as spectators, as Portland society boasts of many exceptionally clever and graceful dancers, both men and women.

Mrs. George Webster, honorary president of the Portland Psychology Club, opened her new home in Irvington yesterday for an elaborate reception, at which all members of the club were guests. Mrs. Mildred Kyle, president of the club, received with Mrs. Webster. Mrs. J. H. MacKenzie, Mrs. Charles and Mrs. P. J. Bannon, Miss Love, in the club assisted about the rooms.

A motor party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Riley, daughter, Miss Ruth Riley, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, and children, Billy and Percy, will leave for Hood River Valley today to pass several days at Mount Hood Lodge with Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Lerch, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Quakenbush and Mrs. H. H. Young returned Tuesday morning from a 10 days' motor trip covering more than 900 miles, visiting the cities of Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

Mrs. A. R. Ten Brook is visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon, Mrs. Ten Brook returned from Marshfield, in time to meet her son, John, who came home with his company from the Mexican border.

Miss Mary Leiser, of Spokane, Wash., is visiting Miss Agnes Love at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon. Miss Love has returned from the Agency

in Malheur County, where she visited her father.

Miss Agnes Love was hostess for a luncheon Tuesday in honor of Miss Mary Leiser, of Spokane, Wash. A pink color scheme was carried out and Cecil Bruner roses decked the table.

Mrs. J. S. Groo and little daughter, Julia, have returned from Salt Lake City, where they passed the Summer months.

Mrs. W. J. Van Schuyver is expected to return home here today, after a short visit to San Francisco. Mr. Van Schuyver will continue in the South a few weeks longer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Mackenzie and children are now domiciled in apartments at the Alvarado for the Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Reade, who have been spending the time on the Willamette River for the Summer months, will return today to their apartments in the Willmar.

Miss Velma D. Sawyer has just returned from a six weeks' visit at Cannon Beach.

Adolph Wolfe, father of the bride, is the president of the big and well-known establishment, Lipman, Wolfe & Co., one of Portland's oldest mercantile organizations. His wife, Mrs. Wolfe, family also are actively engaged in Portland's business circles. Mr. Neustadter being a son of Benjamin Neustadter, of Neustadter Bros., an old established concern.

The bride, after being graduated from Portland Academy, attended Heberberg University for a year, traveling considerably on the Continent, and recently she took a special course of study at Reed College. Mr. Neustadter is a well-known clubman and also attended Portland Academy, the courtship of the young folk really dating back to school days.

Society is now rejoicing over the fact that dinner-dances are to be added to their steadily-increasing list of diversions. Hotel Portland, which has held an important position in the social life of the city, has announced the opening of their series of dinner-dances for tonight at 8:15 continuing until 8:15, a special orchestra being provided for the dancing. A long list of reservations of prominent folk, many of whom will entertain parties of four, six and eight, some even larger, having been received, the opening night, special and elaborate floral decorations as well as many features to be introduced during the evening will make this evening notable.

These dances will be held every night except Sunday night. It will prove a delightful meeting of entertaining the visitors to town, the debutantes and the engaged folk, as well as any other devotees of the art of entertaining. Even non-dancers will enjoy the dinner-dances, as spectators, as Portland society boasts of many exceptionally clever and graceful dancers, both men and women.

Mrs. George Webster, honorary president of the Portland Psychology Club, opened her new home in Irvington yesterday for an elaborate reception, at which all members of the club were guests. Mrs. Mildred Kyle, president of the club, received with Mrs. Webster. Mrs. J. H. MacKenzie, Mrs. Charles and Mrs. P. J. Bannon, Miss Love, in the club assisted about the rooms.

A motor party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Riley, daughter, Miss Ruth Riley, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, and children, Billy and Percy, will leave for Hood River Valley today to pass several days at Mount Hood Lodge with Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Lerch, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Quakenbush and Mrs. H. H. Young returned Tuesday morning from a 10 days' motor trip covering more than 900 miles, visiting the cities of Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

Mrs. A. R. Ten Brook is visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon, Mrs. Ten Brook returned from Marshfield, in time to meet her son, John, who came home with his company from the Mexican border.

Miss Mary Leiser, of Spokane, Wash., is visiting Miss Agnes Love at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon. Miss Love has returned from the Agency

in Malheur County, where she visited her father.

Miss Agnes Love was hostess for a luncheon Tuesday in honor of Miss Mary Leiser, of Spokane, Wash. A pink color scheme was carried out and Cecil Bruner roses decked the table.

Mrs. J. S. Groo and little daughter, Julia, have returned from Salt Lake City, where they passed the Summer months.

Mrs. W. J. Van Schuyver is expected to return home here today, after a short visit to San Francisco. Mr. Van Schuyver will continue in the South a few weeks longer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Mackenzie and children are now domiciled in apartments at the Alvarado for the Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Reade, who have been spending the time on the Willamette River for the Summer months, will return today to their apartments in the Willmar.

Miss Velma D. Sawyer has just returned from a six weeks' visit at Cannon Beach.

Adolph Wolfe, father of the bride, is the president of the big and well-known establishment, Lipman, Wolfe & Co., one of Portland's oldest mercantile organizations. His wife, Mrs. Wolfe, family also are actively engaged in Portland's business circles. Mr. Neustadter being a son of Benjamin Neustadter, of Neustadter Bros., an old established concern.

The bride, after being graduated from Portland Academy, attended Heberberg University for a year, traveling considerably on the Continent, and recently she took a special course of study at Reed College. Mr. Neustadter is a well-known clubman and also attended Portland Academy, the courtship of the young folk really dating back to school days.

Society is now rejoicing over the fact that dinner-dances are to be added to their steadily-increasing list of diversions. Hotel Portland, which has held an important position in the social life of the city, has announced the opening of their series of dinner-dances for tonight at 8:15 continuing until 8:15, a special orchestra being provided for the dancing. A long list of reservations of prominent folk, many of whom will entertain parties of four, six and eight, some even larger, having been received, the opening night, special and elaborate floral decorations as well as many features to be introduced during the evening will make this evening notable.

These dances will be held every night except Sunday night. It will prove a delightful meeting of entertaining the visitors to town, the debutantes and the engaged folk, as well as any other devotees of the art of entertaining. Even non-dancers will enjoy the dinner-dances, as spectators, as Portland society boasts of many exceptionally clever and graceful dancers, both men and women.

Mrs. George Webster, honorary president of the Portland Psychology Club, opened her new home in Irvington yesterday for an elaborate reception, at which all members of the club were guests. Mrs. Mildred Kyle, president of the club, received with Mrs. Webster. Mrs. J. H. MacKenzie, Mrs. Charles and Mrs. P. J. Bannon, Miss Love, in the club assisted about the rooms.

A motor party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Riley, daughter, Miss Ruth Riley, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, and children, Billy and Percy, will leave for Hood River Valley today to pass several days at Mount Hood Lodge with Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Lerch, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Quakenbush and Mrs. H. H. Young returned Tuesday morning from a 10 days' motor trip covering more than 900 miles, visiting the cities of Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

Mrs. A. R. Ten Brook is visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon, Mrs. Ten Brook returned from Marshfield, in time to meet her son, John, who came home with his company from the Mexican border.

Miss Mary Leiser, of Spokane, Wash., is visiting Miss Agnes Love at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon. Miss Love has returned from the Agency

in Malheur County, where she visited her father.

Miss Agnes Love was hostess for a luncheon Tuesday in honor of Miss Mary Leiser, of Spokane, Wash. A pink color scheme was carried out and Cecil Bruner roses decked the table.

Mrs. J. S. Groo and little daughter, Julia, have returned from Salt Lake City, where they passed the Summer months.

Mrs. W. J. Van Schuyver is expected to return home here today, after a short visit to San Francisco. Mr. Van Schuyver will continue in the South a few weeks longer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Mackenzie and children are now domiciled in apartments at the Alvarado for the Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Reade, who have been spending the time on the Willamette River for the Summer months, will return today to their apartments in the Willmar.

Miss Velma D. Sawyer has just returned from a six weeks' visit at Cannon Beach.

Adolph Wolfe, father of the bride, is the president of the big and well-known establishment, Lipman, Wolfe & Co., one of Portland's oldest mercantile organizations. His wife, Mrs. Wolfe, family also are actively engaged in Portland's business circles. Mr. Neustadter being a son of Benjamin Neustadter, of Neustadter Bros., an old established concern.

The bride, after being graduated from Portland Academy, attended Heberberg University for a year, traveling considerably on the Continent, and recently she took a special course of study at Reed College. Mr. Neustadter is a well-known clubman and also attended Portland Academy, the courtship of the young folk really dating back to school days.

Society is now rejoicing over the fact that dinner-dances are to be added to their steadily-increasing list of diversions. Hotel Portland, which has held an important position in the social life of the city, has announced the opening of their series of dinner-dances for tonight at 8:15 continuing until 8:15, a special orchestra being provided for the dancing. A long list of reservations of prominent folk, many of whom will entertain parties of four, six and eight, some even larger, having been received, the opening night, special and elaborate floral decorations as well as many features to be introduced during the evening will make this evening notable.

These dances will be held every night except Sunday night. It will prove a delightful meeting of entertaining the visitors to town, the debutantes and the engaged folk, as well as any other devotees of the art of entertaining. Even non-dancers will enjoy the dinner-dances, as spectators, as Portland society boasts of many exceptionally clever and graceful dancers, both men and women.

Mrs. George Webster, honorary president of the Portland Psychology Club, opened her new home in Irvington yesterday for an elaborate reception, at which all members of the club were guests. Mrs. Mildred Kyle, president of the club, received with Mrs. Webster. Mrs. J. H. MacKenzie, Mrs. Charles and Mrs. P. J. Bannon, Miss Love, in the club assisted about the rooms.

A motor party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Riley, daughter, Miss Ruth Riley, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, and children, Billy and Percy, will leave for Hood River Valley today to pass several days at Mount Hood Lodge with Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Lerch, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Quakenbush and Mrs. H. H. Young returned Tuesday morning from a 10 days' motor trip covering more than 900 miles, visiting the cities of Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

Mrs. A. R. Ten Brook is visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon, Mrs. Ten Brook returned from Marshfield, in time to meet her son, John, who came home with his company from the Mexican border.

Miss Mary Leiser, of Spokane, Wash., is visiting Miss Agnes Love at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon. Miss Love has returned from the Agency

in Malheur County, where she visited her father.

Miss Agnes Love was hostess for a luncheon Tuesday in honor of Miss Mary Leiser, of Spokane, Wash. A pink color scheme was carried out and Cecil Bruner roses decked the table.

Mrs. J. S. Groo and little daughter, Julia, have returned from Salt Lake City, where they passed the Summer months.

Mrs. W. J. Van Schuyver is expected to return home here today, after a short visit to San Francisco. Mr. Van Schuyver will continue in the South a few weeks longer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Mackenzie and children are now domiciled in apartments at the Alvarado for the Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Reade, who have been spending the time on the Willamette River for the Summer months, will return today to their apartments in the Willmar.

Miss Velma D. Sawyer has just returned from a six weeks' visit at Cannon Beach.

Adolph Wolfe, father of the bride, is the president of the big and well-known establishment, Lipman, Wolfe & Co., one of Portland's oldest mercantile organizations. His wife, Mrs. Wolfe, family also are actively engaged in Portland's business circles. Mr. Neustadter being a son of Benjamin Neustadter, of Neustadter Bros., an old established concern.

The bride, after being graduated from Portland Academy, attended Heberberg University for a year, traveling considerably on the Continent, and recently she took a special course of study at Reed College. Mr. Neustadter is a well-known clubman and also attended Portland Academy, the courtship of the young folk really dating back to school days.

Society is now rejoicing over the fact that dinner-dances are to be added to their steadily-increasing list of diversions. Hotel Portland, which has held an important position in the social life of the city, has announced the opening of their series of dinner-dances for tonight at 8:15 continuing until 8:15, a special orchestra being provided for the dancing. A long list of reservations of prominent folk, many of whom will entertain parties of four, six and eight, some even larger, having been received, the opening night, special and elaborate floral decorations as well as many features to be introduced during the evening will make this evening notable.

These dances will be held every night except Sunday night. It will prove a delightful meeting of entertaining the visitors to town, the debutantes and the engaged folk, as well as any other devotees of the art of entertaining. Even non-dancers will enjoy the dinner-dances, as spectators, as Portland society boasts of many exceptionally clever and graceful dancers, both men and women.

Mrs. George Webster, honorary president of the Portland Psychology Club, opened her new home in Irvington yesterday for an elaborate reception, at which all members of the club were guests. Mrs. Mildred Kyle, president of the club, received with Mrs. Webster. Mrs. J. H. MacKenzie, Mrs. Charles and Mrs. P. J. Bannon, Miss Love, in the club assisted about the rooms.

A motor party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Riley, daughter, Miss Ruth Riley, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, and children, Billy and Percy, will leave for Hood River Valley today to pass several days at Mount Hood Lodge with Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Lerch, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Quakenbush and Mrs. H. H. Young returned Tuesday morning from a 10 days' motor trip covering more than 900 miles, visiting the cities of Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

Mrs. A. R. Ten Brook is visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon, Mrs. Ten Brook returned from Marshfield, in time to meet her son, John, who came home with his company from the Mexican border.

Miss Mary Leiser, of Spokane, Wash., is visiting Miss Agnes Love at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Bannon. Miss Love has returned from the Agency

in Malheur County, where she visited her father.

Miss Agnes Love was hostess