MOWREY HEARING ON

Wife Refuses to Testify Before Insanity Board.

BUSINESS TROUBLES CITED

Charges Made Against J. P. Miller Regarding Management of East Side Mill & Lumber Company. Attorneys Are Participating.

Side Mill & Lumber Company between himself and John P. Miller, president and manager of the plant.

The charge that he is being unjustly accused is made by Mr. Mowrey, and he contends that Mr. Miller is behind it. Mr. Mowrey asserts that when Mr. Mil-ler defeated him for the presidency of the mill he was excluded from a manthe mill he was excluded from a managerial position in the mill or employment of any kind there. Mr. Mowrey charges that the present attempt to send him to the insane asylum is supported by Mr. Miller, who, he says, influenced relatives against him.

Family differences and business re-lations are involved in the action and are being aired before examining physiclans in the determination of Mr. Mowrey's mental condition. Two brothers, Joseph and Morris Mowrey, testified to the man's alleged constant attempts to handle business deals of magnitude beyond his means.

Mr. Mowrey told of an increase Mr.

Miller made in his own selary and how sulting from mental weakness, Joseph Mowrey told of the payment of $5000 in Rainier for a lumber mill and the contract to pay $20,000 more by Harry Mowrey, who failed to raise the balance and lost his $5000.

The Mowreys were left a large amount of stock in the East Side Mill & Lumber Company by their father, the late A. C. Mowrey. A unique feature of the hearing is the employment of legal talent to con-duct the examination before the board

MRS. ALEXANDER AND SCHOOL BOARD BEFORE JUDGE.

Teacher-Mother Wants Place Equally as High Salaried as One Which She Held Before Baby Was Born.

Board must reinstate Mrs. Alexia Alexander as principal of the girls' department of the Benson Polytechnic School will be determined by Circuit Judge Gantenbein this morning, in a hearing on the alternative writ of mandamus issued last week. Judge Gantenbein returned from camp at American Lake last night to hear this case, curtailing his vacation.

eight years. frs. Alexander had received a salary of $215 as principal at the Polytechnic of $216 as principal at the Polytechnic. She went East last April with the avowed intention of studying methods of instruction in other states, and returned to Portland in August. She assumed that she was to retain her old position this term. Instead she was informed, on August 17, that she was to be transferred to a position as assistant teacher of history at the Washington High School at a salary of $125.

In her protest Mrs. Alexander asserts that the Board has no lawful authority to demote her, particularly as she took charge of a disorganized school of 143 pupils and succeeded in working out an orderly and efficient routine, while the enrollment increased to 336.

In the petition, prepared by Attorneys A. E. Clark and Franklin F. Korell, it is charged that only four members of the Board were present at the meeting when the alleged election of a successor to Mrs. Alexander was Mr. Mowrey told of an increase Mr. Miller made in his own salary and how a protest made to the board of directors of the mill was ignored.
