MARSHALL LAUDS PRESIDENT WILSON

Vice-President Says He Accepts Renomination That He May Aid Executive.

DEFINITIONS ARE ASKED

Republicans Challenged to Explain Phrase of "Firm Americanism." Credit Taken for Peace and Prosperity in Nation.

INDIANAPOLIS, Inc., Sept. 14.—
Thomas R. Marshall formally accepted the Democratic renomination for the Vice-Presidency here tonight, not for additional honor, he said, "but in the hope that I may assist in the re-election of Woodrow Wilson, who has not walked where the path has led, but who has walked where there was no path and who has left a trail."

In a speech of acceptance phrased in characteristic vein, the Vice-President sketched briefly the legislative achieve-characteristic vein, the Vice-President sketched briefly the legislative achieve-ments of the Administration, in which he said he had been "an onlooker," and culogized the President as "the man who brooded over the Republic in stormtossed times and by mere words spoke peace on the troubled seas of spoke peace on the troubled seas of international politics." A changed Ad-ministration, he declared, would not dare repeal a single one of the important measures put on the statute books since March 4, 1913. Wanting an issue, he continued, the Republicans had turned to foreign affairs, coining such phrases as "firm Americanism," which they could not define.

Credit Taken for Peace. "The American people this year have made their own issue," said Mr. Marshall. "Those that the parties present may be only side issues. The real issue of this campaign is that thought which goes with the father to his work or business, which engrosses his work or business, which engrosses every mother, wife or sweetheart, which sits down with them at every fireside and goes to bed with them in every home, and that thought is, 'Can the President of the United States continue so patiently to manage our international affairs as to maintain honorable peace?"

"The one bright, peaceful spot under the sun this day is America and it is so because the President pleads guilty so because the President pleads guilty to the charge of using words rather than shot and shell and shrapnel."

The Vice-President made a caustic reference to the refusal of Theodore Roosevelt to accept the Progressive Presidential renomination, declaring the ex-President was a leader "who promised he would lead at Armageddon but who, alas! deserted at Bull Moose Run," and now had "turned his back on the Holy Land."

Definitions Are Wanted. Definitions Are Wanted.

The all-important question of what the Republicans would have done regarding the Lusitania, Mexico and Belgium, said the Vice-President, had not been answered by the party's Presidential candidate, Mr. Hughes. He added that "firm Americanism" should be categorically defined by those who had coined it, and declared the people would not be willing to discharge one doctor because he was criticised by another because he was criticised by another who offered no remedy.

Mr. Marshall said further, in part:

"In accordance with custom, the great political parties have nominated candidates and endeavored to present to the people what they are pleased to call the lasues of this campaign. These call the issues of this campaign. These, in ordinary years, would be accepted as the issues. But this is an abnormal year, You cannot interest a bridgeroom in the tariff nor a widow in the coffin trust. Civilization is turning a corner trust. in the tariff nor a widow in the coffin trust. Civilization is turning a corner and the people are more interested in getting around it safely than they are in the character of the load. The American people this year have made their own issue. Those that the parties present may be only side issues. If the side issues square with the main issue, well and good.

Progressive Policies Affirmed. "The Democratic party is a growing -a progressive party. Part of its duty is to quiet the fears of the timid. It is to quiet the fears of the timid. It proposes that the social and economic justice of the tariff towards the workingman shall have a practical instead of a theoretical test. It waives its ancient views as to a tariff commission, now that the tariff has been lowered and wealth has been made to bear its fair proportion of the burdens of government, and it proposes to ascertain the real purchasing difference between the wage here and abroad, and to put that difference into the tariff schedule, if needed, which I doubt, and provided that the manufacturer agrees that the difference shall go into the pay envelope and not into dividends. What the Republicans was dividends. pay envelope and not into dividends. What the Republicans use to fool, we shall use to cheer, the weary heart of Those who criticise may the Prestdent is an infirm American. Now it so happens in this country that not birth nor religion, but loyalty to America constitutes the American. Any blood and any faith and any party that assaults an American President because he chooses to ignore blood and church and party in the cause of peace would suf-fer less by committing harl-karl. So that it may becloud the real issue, the that it may be cloud the real issue, the Republican party has sought to copyright the phrase 'firm Americanism' separation fr without defining it. By this phrase they want the English-born to understand that if the President had been a firm American, Belgium would not have been invaded and the Lusitania would not have been sunk. This is what the wife's death. late strategist at Armageddon is supposed to believe, "On the other hand, to that small portion of the people who think more of Germany than America, that phrase is supposed to mean that had he been a firm American the German Emperor would never have been called upon to that country and police it, to guarantee title to property, however obtained, and to remain therein as long as necessary, and then let every son, husband and father, synchronously with voting and to remain therein as long as necessary, and then let every son, husband and father, synchronously with voting the Republican ticket, enlist in the army of intervention. But if they will not do this let them keep slience. Mere criticism is not constructive."

Bird of Perpetual Motion That but Is Always on Wing.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 14,-Marin H. Glynn, in his speech notifying Thomas R. Marshall of his nomination as the Democratic candidate for Vice-President here tonight, summed up the results of the Administration of Woodrow Wilson, replied to critics of the Administration and set forth the rea-sons why he believed Mr. Wilson and Marshall should be re-elected. Concerning some of the issues of the ampaign Mr. Glynn said:

"In their search for an issue, grass-toppers never hopped as our opponents have hopped, chameleons never changed their hues as our opponents have changed their cries in this campaign.
