The new wholesale price of $7.50 a sack is still 95 cents under the top mark which was reached in the late Spring months. A year ago sugar was selling at $6.15 a sack wholesale, two years ago at $7.80 and at the beginning of the war at $5.25, which was about the normal price.

The strength of the market now is tredited to the scarcity of "raws" in the Eastern refining centers and to the higher prices asked by Cuban producers. There is also buying of refined sugar in the East for shipment to Europe. It has been the war demand from the allies that has kept sugar as the sugar of Marshfield, arrived.

DELINQUENTS TO BE JAILED

Speeders Who Are Tardy in Paying Fines Are Facing Sentence.

Jail terms for speeders who have had time to pay their fines and have not appreciated the courtesy and paid within the time allowed is threatened by District Judge Dayton, Several bench warrants were issued yesterday for men delinquent in payments.

Reports have reached Judge Dayton that many do not appreciate the privilege of paying on installments, and the Roadmaster's office and county motorcycle officers were informed yesterday that these fines must be paid up.

Those arrested on bench warrants will not get further time, but will serve their fines in Jall.

CAPITAL CITY DAY AT POLK FAIR IS BIG SUCCESS.

Crowds Arrive by Special Train an Automobiles-Visitors Numbering 5000 Royally Feted.

DALLAS, Or., Sept. 21.—(Special.)—Salem day at the fifth annual Polk County Fair proved to be a big success. Headed by 50 Cherrians in uniform, the Capital City throngs invaded Dallas. In addition to the large number coming by special train, there were about 200 more visitors from Salem who came by

The special train bearing the visitors Canning Company, to the Twin Falls was met by Mayor Kirkpatrick, and a Idaho, Vinegar and Cider Company. The warm welcome to the city was extended. The Dallas Band played several selections as the crowds poured from the train. CANNERY IS TO REOPEN Plant at Freewater Leased by Twin Falls Vinegar Makers.

MILTON, Or., Sept. 21.—(Special.)— The Freewater cannery, representing an investment of about $13,000, has been leased by S. D. Peterson, of this city, who holds the property in trust for the creditors of the Weber-Bussei Idaho, Vinegar and Cider Company. The new concern is already in the field and expects to operate the plant to its capacity as a vinegar and cider factory this Fall. If the season proves profitable, which is expected, a permanent industry is to be developed and a considerable payroll added to the industries of the twin cities. Report Says Street Extension Will Cost $211,309.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash, Sept. 21—(Special.)—Suit has been filed here by a Tacoma bank to foreclose mortgages owned by C. C. Hardcastle, who a month ago was arrested by officers from Missouri and taken to that state to face a charge of forgery.

Hardcastle's arrest revealed the fact that his name was J. M. Ford and that he had left Missouri eight years ago and since then had lived in the West under an assumed name. He had been known here for three years as an exemplary citizen and prosperous rancher and business man. He returned to Missouri voluntarily, saying he expected to clear himself of the charges against him there. NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Sept. 21 .-
