could see certain advantage in so doing.

The Hesperina an anti-Venizelos organ, devotes a four-column editorial to the declarations of the king. The author of the editorial is Nicholas Stratos, minister of marine last year in the cabinet of Premier Gounaris. M. Stratos takes each sentence as a text for the elucidation of a pro-war policy, saying it is evident that the Greek king is seeking an excuse and means to depart from a neutral course. The exminister, who heretofore has been a most ardent opponent of war, declares openly:

"The country cannot further depend upon the diplomatic assurances of the central empires and must enter the war by national action."

With Agamemnon Schliemann, Greek king is the control of the control of troops of the Central Powers by rational action."

The entente offensive from Saloniki, it is prophesied, will recede as Winter approaches, because the Macedonian mountains, which have a bad terrain in Summer, even now are considered im-

by national action."

With Agamemnon Schliemann, Greek minister at Washington in 1914, M. Stratos has formed a new anti-Venizelos war party. One of the foremost political figures in Greece said to the Aslitical figures in Greece said to the Associated Press today:
"The king, instead of bargaining for Greece's entry into the war, is merely being sensible enough not to enter until in a position to be of real value to the Entente allies. We have made our representations to the Entente powers, stating frankly what we require if we would not be more trouble than assistance. The decision is up to them."
