CHERNIAVSKY TRIO WINS PLACE IN MUSIC WORLD

Three Children of Musical Family Are Recognized as Masters of Their Chosen Instruments in Many Lands—Two Concerts Planned Here.

Leo, Jan and Mischel Cherniavsky.

FIFTEEN years ago a trio of wonderful child musicians, Leo, Jan and Mischel Cherniavsky, left their native Russia in Uman, Province of Kiev, left their musical brothers and sisters, bade good-by to their mother and to their father, Abraham Cherniavsky, an eminent Russian Hebrew violinist and conductor, and started out to make a name in the musical world. And now the names Cherniavsky in concert is the stamp of excellence in music. The three lads have become their traveling and, while this is their first visit to the United States, every other country in the world has paid them tribute. Russia, England, Germany, France, Austria, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, India, China, Egypt, the Straits Settlements and Honolulu have witnessed triumphs for the Cherniavsky trio, and now they are en route to New York, where they play in Carnegie Hall in January. Tonight they appear in concert at the Heilig, and again on Saturday night they will be heard in an entirely new programme. This trio consists of Leo, Jan and Mischel Cherniavsky. Leo is the violinist. He is 26 years old, a colleague of Yeasey, and critics agree that he is a player of startling strength and marvelous powers of execution. He has composed several pieces of music, as have also his brothers. Jan is the pianist. He is 24. Mischel, the cellist, is 23. Another brother, who uses the stage name of Alex Cherny, is accompanist for the trio. Jan Cherniavsky is reckoned a genius in technical equipment and in a musical knowledge that places him at the front with the younger generation of pianists. Mischel Cherniavsky is considered to be one of the finest exponents of the beautiful music of the cello.

The programme of the Cherniavsky trio for tonight at the Heilig is as follows: Trio for piano, violin, violoncello in D minor, op. 32 (Arensky); poco allegro e molto tranquillo, scherzo, allegro molto; cello, adagio; allegro non troppo. Leo, Jan and Mischel Cherniavsky. Violoncello solo, (a) "Nina" (Leo); (b) "Souvenir de Spa" (Mischel). Pianoforte solo, (a) Nocturne, in D flat (Chopin); (b) Study in F major, op. 25, No. 8 (Chopin); (c) Valse in G flat (Chopin); (d) "Rigoletto" (Verdi-Liszt). Jan Cherniavsky. Violin concerto No. 4 (Vieuxtemps). Leo Cherniavsky. Accompanist, Alex Cherny. Trio for piano, violin, violoncello, (a) serenade (Widmer-Cherniavsky); (b) "Moments Musical" (Schubert-Cherniavsky); (c) "Hilarian Dance, No. 17" (Brahms-Cherniavsky). Leo, Jan and Mischel Cherniavsky.
